The Jewelry Stock Has to Go at Any Price to Make Room

There can be no delay in giving possession, as the stock of jewelry must be disposed of, and the only way to do it is to make the price as it will move at once.

No need to call attention to the high grade stock. All we ask is to have you call in and see what an amount of good stuff your dollar will buy.

The stock was sold by Referee in Bankruptcy, and it's your chance to take advantage of the good things offered.

Ask those who have bought; they'll tell you. And there are still lots of good things left.

BRIEF NEWS OF THE DAY

Joe J. Wilson of Oakland is at the Livermore.

J. N. Dyer of Dorris had business here today.

Louis Silva of Weed is a Livermore guest.

W. Lair Thompson, the Lakeview attorney, returned to his home this morning, after attending to some business here.

Dr. G. H. Merryman's residence is now located at Eighth and Pine streets, phone 1231, where he may be reached any evening or night.

Auction sale of household goods at Home Realty company's office, at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon. Absolute sale. Owner leaving town. No fake bidding. Henry Rabbe, auctioneer.

Ellen Hodson and Bertha C. Byrd returned last night from a two weeks' stay at Eagle Ridge, where they enjoyed the beautiful scenery of the Upper lake, and left for their homes this morning.

All persons interested in the movement to enforce the local option law which was inaugurated by the young men and women of the city are requested to meet at the Christian church Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

K. Sugarman and Chas. F. Stemwell have bought three lots in Nichols addition from Roy Hamaker. The deal was made through the Home Realty company. It is the intention of the purchasers to improve the property.

William Waechter of Portland is in the city after cattle for shipment to Alaska. Nothing but the finest of beef stock are sent to the northern country and Mr. Waechter will no doubt pick up a fine lot of the fancy stock that is raised here.

C. D. Chorpensing and his mother arrived from the Willamette Valley last night, and Monday will leave for the ranch that Mr. Chorpensing purchased in the Langell Valley recently. Mr. Chorpensing was connected with the Electric Light company here until the first of this month, when he resigned and went for a visit in Salem and other cities before taking up his work on the ranch.

J. H. Stephens, who is here looking over the field for a business in the dry goods and clothing line, has made several trips through the irrigated valley with H. Rabbe of the Home Realty company. He believes that Klamath Falls is destined to become a good trading center, and since he has purchased a home here it is safe to assume that he will soon be identified with the business interests of this city.

Wm. Ruse, mayor of Yreka, Calif., left for his home this morning after a few days' stay here. He expects to return to this city about the middle of next month and spend a few more days in this delightful summer climate. Mr. Ruse owns considerable property in this city, and is more than pleased with the improvements that are being made in the way of paving and the new sewer system that is being installed.

O. F. Beck, E. Frank and H. R. Glenn arrived here last night in the pathfinder car on a road making tour of the state. They are gathering material for a comprehensive road map of Oregon, which is to be issued by August 15th. It will contain all the best routes from Portland to Klamath Falls and other cities, and will be something that travelers have long sought. They leave in the morning for either Lakeview or Orster lake, they have not decided which.

What She Adored In her trim little bathing suit she sat on the white sand. "I adore intelligence," she cried. "So do I," said he. "All the same, though, beauty and intelligence never go together." "And do you think me intellectual?" she faltered. "No," he confessed, frankly. "With a sweet smile she murmured: 'Flatterer.'—Exchange.

Are You Looking

For the best bargain in irrigated land on the market? Have 60 acres, improved, 5 miles from Klamath Falls; good home, barn, good well, all in crop; 60 acres under government ditch. Price for quick sale only $200 per acre, with all of the crop or $300 without crop. There is not a better buy in the country. See Geo. H. Rice, with Chilcote, office adjoining American hotel. Phone 681.

JOHN KELLEY SEVERELY HURT

Nose and Cheek Bone Broken BY A WINDLASS

Matt Deek Is Robbed While on His Way to California—Other Midland News

John Kelley was badly hurt Wednesday while helping to dig a well. The windlass, while loaded, slipped, and the handle struck him in the face, breaking his nose and cheek bone.

William Barks made a business for William Barks at the Midland barn, took the southbound train on the 13th, en route to Orange, Calif., for the benefit of his health. He took a draft for $250 on a San Francisco bank, and the first night on the train he was robbed of the draft and the robber got it cashed and made his escape.

We do hope the Pacific Telephone company will not forget Midland, and will put in a phone here, as we need such communications with other towns. It will be a great help to important business.

Abel Ady's new house in South Midland will soon be completed, and he will then move his family here.

George Helley and Allison Davidson started for a four-weeks' camping trip in the mountains last Tuesday.

D. B. Campbell is having his swamp pasture fenced, which will be a benefit to stockmen.

Mrs. Boddie and mother left this place last Monday for their home in Oakland.

Fred Stukel and George O'Neil came in yesterday with a bunch of cattle.

William Ady's made a business trip to Klamath Falls today.

Our Sunday school is at 3 o'clock every Sunday.

BIG EXCURSION SUNDAY

From present indications the excursion which the former citizens of Colorado are to give on the steamer Winema to Rocky Point on the Upper lake Sunday will be one of the best that has been given this year. Many have signified their intention of going, and as the weather has been quite warm for the past few days a pleasant ride on the cool waters of the lake will be a relief that all will want to avail themselves of.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT

Tonight is your last chance to see the Angel City trio. They have been very successful during their short stay here, making a hit with their audiences at each performance. As tonight is their last performance be sure and do not miss them.

"Western Justice" is on tonight's bill of pictures, and is probably one of the best dramas shown here for some time. "The Greenhorn" is the title of a very good comedy. "M-m-m-m" is a clever French drama of great merit.

Extra tomorrow evening, a string-chewing contest by twelve boys. A scream from start to finish.

Ladies, if you want to take advantage of the great clearance prices you will have to hurry.

of resources of the entire county. We should not contend for the convenience and present interests of our selfish individual business, but contemplate the larger proposition as to what is best for the Klamath section as a whole. Let us try to make it easy for the settler to get to Klamath county; get them here and fill our valleys with progressive, industrious people; increase the business of the towns; increase the travel of the railroad until the business will justify additional train service, and we will all profit by it.

The Klamath Chamber of Commerce is a body organized to work for the growth of the community. Its sessions are open, and you are invited to be present and offer any suggestions you wish. Why not attend one once in a while, discuss these questions and all get together on one line of action, instead of going off half-cocked with remonstrance petitions which have the effect of creating discord instead of harmony, and produce no results at all.

LODGE NEWS

The Eagles will scream Monday night at the Eagles' hall. Refreshments will be served by J. B. Vollmer. All Eagles are requested to attend. J. B. VOLLMER, Sec'y.

Klamath lodge No. 127, I. O. O. F., will meet tomorrow night.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Farewell of Portland, who are making this section a short visit, went with Mrs. Nate Otterbein and her son, Thos. Wilson, to Poe Valley this afternoon after some of the large trout that frequent Lost river in that charming little valley.
