

WORDEN HAS NAMED AN ADVISORY BOARD

FULFILLS A PROMISE

THIRTY MEN FROM EACH PRECINCT IN THE COUNTY HAVE BEEN NAMED TO CONSULT WITH OFFICIALS.

One of the campaign promises made by William S. Worden when he was candidate for County Judge, was that if elected he would appoint an advisory board from each precinct in the county to consult with and advise of the board of the needs of their particular section. Campaign promises are not always kept as a rule but in the present case the exception has been proven.

Judge Worden is in earnest in his amount of good for the county during his term of office and is convinced that his plan will bring the board in closer touch with the people and make the following appointments as members of the advisory board. Three men are selected from each precinct as follows:

- Port Klamath—James Felton, John Usher and Geo. W. Loosley.
- Pine Grove—W. T. Elliott, James Egan and E. R. Phillips.
- Merrill—Geo. O'Neil, S. E. Martin and E. E. Fitch.
- East K. F.—Henry Rabbes, E. T. Anderson and Frank Ira White.
- West K. F.—E. R. Reams, J. W. Himes and Marion Hanks.
- Keno—R. W. Tower, F. T. Nelson and H. H. VanValkenburg.
- Odeus—Frank Courtade, J. T. Totter and M. H. Wampler.
- Bonanza—J. O. Hamaker, Walter Broadwood and J. T. Brudley.
- Langell Valley—H. G. Bussey, Chas. Orville and Walter Campbell.
- Poe Valley—Chas. Lester, Elliott Moore and Chas. Fickett.
- Dairy—A. L. Michael, Jacob Reuck and Wm. Welch.
- Midland—Chas. Ager, Wm. Barks and Wm. Tingley.
- Elly—D. F. Driscoll, John Wells and Jove Parker.

No appointments have been made yet for Crescent and Pokagona. The following letter has been sent notifying each of those appointed: "The County Court is creating an advisory board, consisting of three members from each precinct in the county. This advisory board will meet with the county court at various times for the discussion of matters of policy relative to the welfare and improvement of Klamath County as a whole. You have been selected by the court as a member of this board, which will meet perhaps three or four times a year and at the call of the county clerk. Please inform the county clerk by mail whether you accept this appointment or not."

MRS. ZUMWALT'S CLASS IN RECITAL THIS EVENING

In Redmen's Hall this evening, the members of the vocal and piano classes conducted by Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, Klamath Falls' gifted musician, will appear in recital, and those who have been fortunate enough to receive invitations are eagerly looking forward to the evening's program. Under the instruction of Mrs. Zumwalt, a number of persons with musical talent have developed into remarkably good musicians and vocalists, and many have attained note in musical circles. Tonight, they will appear in recital and an exceptionally good program is expected by the music loving public. On account of the concert given this evening by the Klamath Falls Military Band, Mrs. Zumwalt's recital will begin at 7:30 and be completed before the concert starts.

LAND BOARD HAS POSTPONED VISIT

TRIP TO THIS SECTION WILL NOT BE COMMENCED BY OFFICIALS UNTIL ABOUT THE FIRST OF NEXT MONTH

HALEM, May 5.—The contemplated trip of the state and desert land boards through Central Oregon for the purpose of inspecting the Carey act and other irrigation projects has been postponed from May 15th to about June 1st. The party, including the governor, state treasurer, secretary of state, attorney general and state engineer, will go from Salem to Lakeview, and from there will proceed in a northerly direction through La Pine and Bend, taking passage for home over the Oregon Trunk at Madras. State Engineer John H. Lewis returned home from Washington last night, where he has been in attendance upon the conference of state engineers, and where he went to make provision for completing topographical maps in co-operation with the federal government, for which money was appropriated by the last legislature.

AUTO STAGE HAS ITS OWN SHARE OF TROUBLE

W. L. Clapp of the Lakeview auto stage line, had a tenuous time of it trying to make his first trip to Lakeview. He started out Monday morning with several passengers, and made good time till he reached the Mount View or Smith ranch, ten miles beyond Dairy, when his troubles began. Crossing the divide into the Sprague River Valley, the roads became heavy in places, but he reached Elly without any serious difficulty. From that point on eastward, as he expressed it, "it was h—l," through the Devil's Garden, and a few miles farther on he was compelled to stop, and turned over his passengers to a man with a wagon, who took them on to Lakeview. There the snow was still in plenty, and the mud, in places, made locomotion almost impossible. He returned to town Wednesday evening. A continuance of the auto staging was postponed for the present—until the roads get drier and better.

Home From Bedding
Mrs. A. B. Livermore, who with her sons conducts the well known hostelry bearing the family name, returned to this city last night from Redding, Cal., where she spent a week visiting her brothers, Mayor G. H. Gronwaldt and A. H. Gronwaldt, proprietor of the Golden Eagle Hotel in that city. She reports having a splendid time visiting relatives and renewing old acquaintances.

THEY COUNT ALL THE PIECES NOW

LOCAL POSTOFFICE MAKE PAID SHOWING ON FIRST DAY, DESPITE THE LIGHT MAIL RECEIVED HERE THAT DAY.

Since May first, the postoffice at Klamath Falls, like other postoffices throughout the United States has been keeping tab on every piece of mail handled, and will continue the count throughout the month. This is being done by order of the Postoffice Department.

On the first day of the count, when an exceptionally "light mail" was handled, the following count was made at the local postoffice: Outgoing letters, 2,117; incoming letters, 1,152; city letters, 878; outgoing packages, 33; outgoing papers, 278; incoming papers, 834; city mailed papers, 54.

CHAMBER PLANS ENTERTAINMENT

SAN FRANCISCO BUSINESS MEN'S VISIT TO KLAMATH FALLS WILL BE ONE THEY WILL LONG REMEMBER

Plans for the entertainment of the Merchants' Association excursion, which will be here May 20th, were discussed at last night's meeting of the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce. When the excursion arrives the visitors will be met at the depot by the citizens of the town, and they will be taken to town in automobiles. After they will spend the day in calling at the local business houses and making themselves acquainted with conditions here.

In the evening a reception and smoker will be held in the Iris theater, when speeches will be made on subjects appropriate by local speakers, and colored slides of Klamath county scenes will be thrown on the screen. The Klamath Falls Military band will also assist.

SPECIAL FEATURE NIGHT PROVES A BIG SUCCESS

The Sparks theater was crowded to its full capacity last night, when the first feature bill was presented, and those in attendance express themselves as well pleased with the program rendered. The management will give those programs every Friday night hereafter, and intend to improve the quality of the bill as much as possible. Several well known amateurs took part in the performance, and every number was heartily enjoyed.

Miss Nelliger's vocal solo, the duet by the Turner children and the illustrated song by Walter Kegerreis, the mandolin number and the burlesque work by Shipton and Kegerreis all deserve special mention, but the pleasing contest between a quartet of hungry kiddies was full of merriment from the start till the winner, with a blackberry-stained visage, emerged from the remnants of what had once been a pie.

T. E. Hammerley, United States deputy marshal, arrived from Portland last night, expecting to take with him Charles Brown, the counterfeiter arrested a few days ago on his return to Portland.

MEMORIAL DAY ARRANGEMENTS

CIVIC BODIES AND SCHOOL CHILDREN HAVE VERY WILLINGLY AGREED TO TAKE PART IN THE EXERCISES PLANNED

Following the call issued by County Judge Wm. S. Worden and Mayor Fred T. Sanderson, a meeting participated in by a number of citizens who filled the county court's room in the court house was held last evening, to concert measures for a proper observance of Memorial Day. County Judge Worden presided, and Albert E. Eldet was chosen secretary.

After some consultation a committee of citizens was appointed to confer and act with committees from the Grand Army and the Women's Relief Corps, already appointed, to make suitable arrangements for the various features of the occasion. The committee appointed consisted of Captain O. C. Applegate, A. E. Eldet and C. A. Howard, with power to appoint necessary sub-committees.

A general discussion followed, participated in generally, denoting an earnest desire to bring about a general observance of the day in the spirit of patriotism.

Prof. Dunbar of the high school gave assurances that the youth and children of the public schools would participate, including those who have been drilled by Mr. Eldet, and that the high school band would take part and furnish music. Mayor Sanderson was requested to issue a proclamation requesting the business men to close their houses, so that they and their help could take part in the exercises, and also to confer with the Klamath Falls Military band, and, if possible, secure their attendance throughout the ceremonies.

A general meeting of committees was arranged for Saturday evening at the county court's office in the court house, when further details will be talked over and arranged for.

As outlined, one of the members of the committee appointed by the Grand Army, said it was probable there will be a parade in the forenoon, followed by a march to the cemetery, where the graves of the departed soldiers and relatives will be decorated, the Grand Army ritual being followed, after which the procession will return to town.

In the afternoon a Memorial Day service will be held, probably in the court house yard, with addresses, songs, music and prayers. It will be in the nature of a solemn service, rather than a celebration.

TEACHERS' SCHOOL MAY BE HELD THIS SUMMER

County Superintendent Swan has just issued a circular letter to the teachers of the County in regard to a Summer School to be held preparatory to the June teachers' examination. A summer session was held at the County High School last year and such a session will be held this summer if there proves to be sufficient demand for it. Teachers interested in a summer school as well as eight grade pupils wishing to review for the September examination are urged to confer with Superintendent Swan or with W. E. Faught or C. A. Howard of the High School, in order that the extent of the demand for a summer course may be ascertained.

If the course is offered, work will begin May 29 and continue until June 21, on which date the teachers' examination will begin. By holding school on Saturday as well as on other week days, a full school month's work can be done before examination.

The summer school last year proved to be quite a success and, if the demand is sufficient to make a course advisable this year, it is expected that a summer school will become a permanent thing in Klamath county.

CALL OF CITIES THE STRONGEST

OREGON FARM POPULATION HAD A VERY POOR INCREASE DURING THE DECADE JUST ROLLED BY, AS SHOWN BY THE CENSUS

Portland, May 5.—Analysis of the recent census figures by the Commercial Club, as regards the growth of Oregon's rural population in the past decade, is not reassuring. The cities are attracting three people for every one that goes to the country. During the past ten years the cities have increased in population 101 per cent, while the rural districts show a gain of only 29 per cent.

The proportion between town and country population in this state has entirely changed in the past decade. Ten years ago Oregon's people were about evenly distributed between town and country, the latter leading by 31,573. This margin has not only been wiped out by the fast growing cities, but they have piled more than 100,000 on top of this gain, while the rural population has increased over the total of ten years ago by but 66,759.

The state as a whole has gained 260,229 people in the past ten-year period, an increase of over 62 per cent. Less than 66,000 of this new population has gone to the country, while almost 200,000 people have settled in the cities. Three people have gone to the cities for every one that has settled in the country.

"We are facing the gravest problem of the generation," said Manager C. C. Chapman of the Commercial Club, "for in we can get more people on the soil, many of our other troubles will settle themselves. How to get the landless man on the manless land is the great work to which the Oregon Development League and the Portland Commercial Club have set themselves. The figures show there is dire need of it. The man who can devise a way to offset the lure of the white lights of the city and get men to set their feet on the ground instead of treading asphalt all their lives, deserves well of his country."

SPOKANE MAY HAVE A STRIKE

BREWERS, BOTTLERS AND DRIVERS HAVE ASKED FOR A RAISE OF FROM TWO TO FOUR DOLLARS A WEEK.

SPOKANE, May 5.—Unless the increase in wages asked for by members of the local Brewers', Bottlers' and Drivers' unions are granted soon by the brewery and bottling owners a walkout which will effect over 200 men will be called. A three-year contract with the owners expired Monday, and at a meeting Sunday afternoon the employees decided upon a demand for an increase of $4 a week for the drivers, $3 a week for the brewery workers, and $2 a week for the bottlers.

The employees have expressed themselves as being willing to compromise with the men on their demands, but will not meet them in full, while the union men are equally decided that they must receive their requested raises in full.

Claude C. Rafter, as spokesman of an arbitration committee representing the unions, will go before the owners Monday afternoon, at which time an ultimatum will be delivered.

YES, THIS IS THE NIGHT FOR THE BAND CONCERT

Yesterday morning, the seat sale for the first concert to be given by the Klamath Military Band opened at the Bonboniere, and ever since that time the proprietor, Harry Richardson, has been on the jump attending to the unprecedented rush for seats. The sale of seats has been remarkable, and a crowded house is assured this evening, when the big program will be rendered. All of the members have been practicing faithfully to make this, their initial bow to the people of Klamath Falls an event long to be remembered, and the program that has been arranged convinces even the most skeptic that the concert cannot be missed by any lover of music.

Charles E. Drew, the Yonah Valley horse and cattle ranchman, was a business visitor in town yesterday.

22 THIS MORNING

ROOSEVELT, BY HIS EDITORIAL, HAS AROUSED THE ENMITY OF THE ENTIRE SOCIALISTIC PRESS—PROTEST PLANNED

United Press Service.
LOS ANGELES, May 5.—The grand jury reconvened at 10 o'clock to complete the work commenced yesterday. Judge Walter Bordwell, who, it is announced, will try the McNamara, is waiting here to be available.

Twenty-two indictments were returned by the grand jury at 11 o'clock today, twenty-one of which named victims of the Times explosion. The twenty-second indictment referred to the Llewellyn explosion. The names of those against whom they were returned were not given. It is believed that the first twenty-one are against the McNamara brothers, and the twenty-second against James McNamara and Orce McManigal.

Roosevelt Arouses Ire
CHICAGO, May 5.—Socialists are aroused at Roosevelt's editorial on the McNamara case. The entire socialistic press of the country is to inaugurate a campaign of protest. The Daily Socialist, in an editorial, says: "Roosevelt butted into the Moyer-Haywood case, and became infamous, referring to the kidnaped miners as 'undesirable citizens.' He is now butting into the McNamara case, trying to 'shoo' the workers away from their bounden duty to rescue their imprisoned fellow-workers."

Defense to Use Alibi
LOS ANGELES, May 5.—Volleys of alibi will be the defense used by Jas. McNamara's attorneys, who are bending all efforts to show that it was impossible for him to have been here within twelve hours of the time when the Times building was blown up. The Burns men are making efforts to combat this. They are keeping a close watch on the witnesses supposed to have seen McNamara the night of the explosion or immediately prior to it.

UNCLE SAM HAS AN EVEN CHANCE; NO MORE

WASHINGTON, May 5.—Officials of the department of the interior say that the government has an even chance, no more, of retaining the $50,000 worth of lands comprised in the Alaskan Cunningham claims. It is stated that the onus of proof of fraud in connection with the claims is on the government, and it may be impossible to show definite collusion.

Turkish Perjury Syndicate Knocks Department of Justice to Pieces

CONSTANTINOPLE, May 5.—The authorities are trying to get at the truth concerning the operations of a regularly organized perjury syndicate which, under both the Hamidian and the present regime, has made Turkish justice a joke for years past. Investigators of the organization are not troubled by too little but too much evidence. Every member of the society is ready to turn state's evidence. Being professional perjurers, however, there is naturally considerable hesitancy concerning the acceptance of their testimony. The syndicate consisted of pensioned officials of the Constantinople courts. Having had extensive experience in posts of trust the members are able to furnish, not unintelligent perjury, but just the right kind for any particular case and of a nature appropriate to the peculiarities of different juries and trial judges. The business was so extensive that the management was able to offer very reasonable rates. Divorce testimony costs the most, two medjidsims, or $1.60, being charged for each witness in such case, and sometimes more, according to the testimony. The syndicate's disruption resulted from a quarrel among the members concerning a division of the profits.

Hotel Hygienist Discusses The Many Virtues of Course Dinner

LONDON, May 5.—The Institute of hygiene met at a banquet recently. It was quite a formal banquet, and the result was that several of the hygienists present inclined somewhat to criticize it, as not exactly the kind of banquet that hygienists ought to eat. So many courses, they argued, were unnecessary, and put a premium on over-consumption. "Whereas, at the close of the meal, up rose Dr. J. Strickland Goodall, and told the banqueters some plain truths. "Course dinners," he said, "are not unhygienic—they are scientific demonstrations. The hors d'oeuvres," the doctor continued, "stimulate the gustatory mechanism and start the secretion of saliva and gastric and pancreatic juices. Olives clean the mouth. Soup has little nutritive value, but is rich in gastric esters. A free flow of juices is thus insured for the fish, a food rich in proteid. The entree, by name, appearance and taste, secures a flow of juices to digest the joint and game—true foods. The savory maintains the flow. Greens and dessert, with their pleasant taste and attractive appearance, are taken after actual hunger has been appeased. "And coffee is drunk at the conclusion because it produces hypotension of the gastric mucous membrane," the word was said about midnight.
