LOS ANGELES, May 27.—Judge Bordwell today extended the time set for the McNamara's pleading from June 1st to July 5th. Both of the McNamaras were in court at the time but took no part in the proceedings.

This continuance was granted after much bickering on the part of District Attorney Fredericks and the counsel for the defense. Fredericks said he thought ten days was sufficient delay.

The motion for delay was made by Leconte Davis, who was yesterday retained as associate counsel for the defense. He said Darrow needed at least a month to familiarize himself with the California code. When Fredericks objected Darrow addressed the court, and said he thought he needed time to study transcript evidence, so he might intelligently file a demurrer or motion to set aside the indictment. He intimated that this might be done at the time of pleading.

In granting the continuance Judge Bordwell said that there must be no further delay. Darrow replied that there would be no delay on the part of the defense. Fredericks remained silent.

The hearing was scheduled for 9 o'clock, but Darrow was delayed three quarters of an hour by going to the wrong court room.

The McNamaras appeared much at ease in the court room. James has taken on flesh since his confinement, and was more cheerful than at his first appearance. John was neatly attired in a gray business suit, smiled during the proceedings, and chatted cheerfully with his counsel.

After the proceedings ended, Darrow said that he planned to spend every minute of time from now on to the closest study of the case.

SOME LIVE NEWS FROM MILLS SECOND ADDITION

Zeas D. Shipman, who commenced building here last fall and sold his first house to Mr. Graham, is now living in his own new residence opposite the McCabe store. Mr. Shipman anticipates building two or three more houses on lots owned by him, adjoining his present home. Mr. Shipman is building these houses to sell on very easy terms. Shipman was fortunate in securing property at reasonable rates last year, as there is sure to be a raise in realty values here with the coming of electric lights, water and probably a street railway.

M. W. Low is building a one-story, two-room house for T. J. Bellamy, which will soon be completed. Mr. Low has been in this city since last fall, and has found work most of the time. At present he says things are coming his way in jumps. He is a man of great reliability, and a good workman.

ROCK CRUSHER IS IN RUNNING ORDER AGAIN

After much tribulation and vexatious delays, the Stramaguirre company's big rock crusher has finally been put fully into commission on the hill southwest of town, and is breaking the big rock into sizes suitable for covering the street preparatory to paving.

The untried can form but a poor estimate of the rapidity of the crusher's work except by taking into account the fact that twelve heavy teams and wagons are kept busy taking the crushed material from the spillways and hauling it to Main street, where it is dumped, ready for use. The rattle and clatter and roar of the machine while in operation is almost deafening, and a vast amount of power is exerted in crushing the great boulders which drop into its hopper.

Unless the machine breaks down it is quite apparent that there will be no delay in completing the paving.

MUCH INTEREST SHOWN IN THE BAND EXCURSION

The excursion to be given tomorrow in Upper Klamath Lake is all the talk of the town today, and indications are that a great many people will take advantage of this opportunity to see the many beauties of the scenic lake. The boat will leave the Shippington pier at 8:30 tomorrow morning, and will steam up the lake to Rocky Point, the far-famed summer resort, where a stop will be made for meals, and where the band will render an open air concert. In addition to this, the band will play while the steamer is journeying over the waters of the lake.

The Senior Play

Seats for the Senior play are on the sale at the Bonbonniere. This will be one of the strongest plays ever given by the high school, and there will undoubtedly be a large attendance, so if you want a good seat you would better secure it at once. "The Devil's Disciple" is one of the best plays of Bernard Shaw, the greatest living English dramatist. The plot is laid in New England, and the time is shortly before the Revolutionary War.

Mail Will Be Distributed In the Evening Instead of the Morning

Beginning on Monday the people of Klamath Falls will be able to get their mail in the evening, instead of the following morning, as at present. The delivery window at the postoffice will be opened each evening following the distribution of the letter mail, and remain open until 8 o'clock.

Beginning Sunday, when the extra train service is put on, the mail will be carried on trains Nos. 41 and 42, and the service on trains Nos. 39 and 40 will be discontinued. This will enable the patrons of the postoffice to receive their mail about fourteen hours earlier than they have been doing in the past.

Tomorrow morning the delivery window will be open at the usual time between 10 and 11 o'clock a. m., but Postmaster Emmitt is considering the advisability of changing this time on Sundays and holidays, and opening the window for one hour in the evening. In this way, it is believed, better service can be secured for the patrons of the office, as they will all have an opportunity of receiving their mail Saturday evening, and there will be no mail to deliver in the forenoon and until the afternoon train has arrived.

FIGHT MAY HAVE A FATAL ENDING

AS A RESULT OF A CUTTING AFFRAY LAST NIGHT ONE MAN IS IN JAIL, AND ANOTHER IS IN A BAD CONDITION

As a result of trouble arising at the Masten logging camp on the Upper Lake last night a man, whose name cannot be learned, lay at the point of death and the man who cut him, Pemberton, is in the county jail.

According to the story told by Pemberton, he was scraping harness when the other man, whom he does not know, came up to him, kicked him in the stomach, and after abusing him started another attack on him. Pemberton says that to protect himself he struck down with his right arm, forgetting in the heat of the moment that he had the knife in his hand.

Pemberton came in and gave himself up to the officers, and Dr. Hamilton and Sheriff Barnes went to the scene of the trouble. They returned at 2 o'clock this morning, and said the victim was in a grave condition.

Sheriff Barnes and Attorney Chas. J. Ferguson, representing the District Attorney's office, went out to the camp today to make a complete investigation. No action will be taken in the case until it is learned whether or not the injured man will recover.

INNES-CLARKE LOGGING CAMP A BUSY PLACE

Walter Innes of the Innes-Clarke lumber company has just returned to Klamath Falls from a visit of inspection to the lumber company's logging camps on the Upper lake. This camp is in charge of Dick Breitenstein, and at present thirty men are employed in the work.

At the camp in the woods there are a million feet of logs to be taken to the water at Woodbine, where they are held in a boom awaiting transportation to the lumber mill on the west side of the river. Mr. Innes says that there is about half a million feet of logs in the water at this time, and the logs are being hauled from the camp to the lake at the rate of about fifty thousand feet a day. He says that the men will be employed all summer and winter in the camp.

CONEY ISLAND IS VISITED BY FIRE

LIBERATED WILD ANIMALS, MADDENED BY THE HEAT, MADE THE WORK OF THE FIRE DEPARTMENT MOST PERILOUS

United Press Service.

NEW YORK, May 27.—Fire starting from crossed wires or cigarettes started at 2 o'clock this morning in one of the Dreamland side shows on Coney Island, and raged fiercely. The blaze was controlled at 8 o'clock this morning, after a loss of over $2,000,000.

The fire was rife with exciting incidents. One hundred and forty-six animals were cremated, and the lives of a thousand people were endangered, as trainers and caretakers, in their excitement, opened cages, permitting lions, tigers, leopards and baboons, maddened by burns, to race through the streets.

A fireman shot a leopard and a deer a block from where they were liberated. The police chased a lion for blocks, and split his head with an axe after emptying their revolvers into him. A baboon, with his fur afire, was slain as he rose to battle the firemen.

Six babies in the incubators, who were at first reported killed, were rescued. Dreamland tower was destroyed completely. Thousands of small caliber cartridges in the shooting galleries exploded during the fire.

FAST GAME SET FOR TOMORROW

OLIVER'S NINE AND THE MERRILL HILL SCHOOL WILL CROSS BATS ON DIAMOND AT THE LATTER TOWN.

There will be things doing tomorrow afternoon at the Merrill baseball grounds, when the Klamath nine backs up against the Merrill high school baseball aggregation, and a game chock full of excitement is expected by the fans. A large number have signified their intention of running over from this city if automobiles.

The Merrill high school team is one of the fastest bunch of youngsters to be found anywhere in the sagebrush belt. They are in the game from the start, never quitting till the last inning is finished. Last Sunday they defeated Bonanza's hopefuls by a lopsided shutout score of 9 to 0. The Bonanzites were completely whitewashed, and the worst of it was that the game was played at Bonanza.

Young Blodgett, the Merrill speed demon, who scored sixteen Bonanza players last Sunday, will go on the firing line against Klamath Falls. This youngster, who is a descendant from an old leaguer, has speed aplenty and curves galore. Powers will be at the receiving end of the battery. Jess Siemens, the old reliable, will do the twirling for Klamath Falls, and French will be behind the bat. County Commissioner Guy Merrill has consented to umpire the game.

FRISCO REALTY MEN VISIT KLAMATH FALLS

B. P. Oliver, who is, perhaps, the largest real estate man in San Francisco, accompanied by F. R. Houston, another Bay City man who has speculated to a great extent in land, have been in this city for several days to look over the town and making personal investigations as to its future possibilities. They left Friday morning for their home, having stopped at the Baldwin while here.

Mr. Oliver's holdings consist to a certain extent of the rich Glenn county farm lands. He and Mr. Houston were here last November, and they seem to be impressed with the town.

The skeletons were wrapped in gunny sack. The belief prevails here that double murder was committed.

FATS VS. SLIMS THE BIG EVENT

ANTLERS CLUB IS ARRANGING FOR GAME TO BE PLAYED ON JUNE 11TH BETWEEN LOCAL BUSINESS MEN

With W. H. Dolbeer and Bob Baldwin heading the fats, and Elmer E. Johnson and Charles J. Ferguson leading the slims, a baseball game is being arranged for June 11th through the instrumentality of the Antlers Club. While neither side has yet announced its line up, the captain of each of the opposing forces smiles and says he was just beginning to realize that all the timber in the big leagues is built on the same lines as himself, and that he will have no trouble at all in raking up a nine that will just wipe the other layout off the face of the earth.

A meeting will be held this evening, at which time the magnates will get down to actual work and decide upon the technical points. There is some discussion as to whether or not the cork center ball, which is just now causing such a commotion in big league circles, will be used as the official sphere, as many think that the high ball should not be passed up.

LAKE CITY WAGON ROAD NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION

GAIN OF LONDON'S POPULATION 671,561

LONDON, May 27.—Provisional figures returned by the census office gives the population of England and Wales this year as 36,975,269, compared with 35,527,843 in 1901.

While most of the cities and counties show an increase, there were many cases, particularly in Wales, where there has been an actual decrease.

Greater London's population has increased to 7,252,963 from 6,881,492 in 1901. This increase is entirely in what is known as the outer ring, showing that the people are moving from the more crowded centers. In fact many of the old metropolitan boroughs and the city of London proper have lost their population to the suburbs. The county of London, including the city of London and the boroughs immediately above it, shows a decrease from 4,526,267 in 1901, to 4,522,961 in 1911.

Guy Merrill Journeys Into the Lava Beds In His Buick Car

Auto owners all over this and adjoining counties will have a lively interest in the feat in automobile daring accomplished by County Commissioner C. G. Merrill last Friday. Mr. Merrill drove his new Buick model 14 from this place last Friday to and into the lava beds of Modoc county, California, to a point known as Gold-Diggers' pass, a distance of twenty-two miles, and made the return trip the same day. For the first twelve miles there is a comparatively good wagon road, but after leaving this road there was only a trail through the lava rocks over which horses have been taken in and out of the lava.

Commissioner Merrill had one of his horse foremen in the machine with him, and went in to superintend the gathering of the stock sold to Mr. Michler. The machine climbed rocks and squeezed through tight places where no one would believe an auto could go, and was one of the severest tests a machine could be put to, and came through without a break of any kind.

None but a thoroughly experienced driver, however, should attempt to follow Commissioner Merrill's lead, for the lava rock is a hard bed to sleep on, and it would be mighty inconvenient to have to pull a machine to pieces and pack it back to dirt road on muleback. Now that it has been proved that the trip can be successfully made with an auto so far into the lava beds, no doubt a number of crack drivers will include this exciting trip in their auto experiences.—Merrill Record.

John I. Winkersham, of Portland and Curtis Wright, Jr. of San Francisco arrived in this city last night and registered at the Livermore. This morning they left for Spring Creek, where they will enjoy the splendid fishing in that stream. Each is well known in business circles in his home city.
