WHY NOT PELICAN BAY FOR HARRIMAN UNIVERSITY?

Editor Evening Herald—

In your issue of Monday evening I noticed a dispatch to the effect that Mrs. E. H. Harriman contemplates the founding of a great university, which will bear the name of the Edward H.
Harriman University; and that it is to be located on the Pacific Coast, either in California or Nevada. After reading the article it occurred to me that on all of the Pacific Coast there is but one logical location for such an institution—and that is on the site selected by Mr. Harriman himself, Pelican Bay. I recall a statement made to me by Mr. Harriman following his sojourn there some two or three years ago, in which he said:
"It is one of the most beautiful places in all of the world. I will return there next summer, to enjoy it to the fullest extent."

Much to the regret of the people of this county, Mr. Harriman was never able to carry out his wish, for the hand of death reached out and summoned him to that last long sleep which removed him from the activities of this life.

Pelican Bay is the natural place for such an institution as that contemplated by Mrs. Harriman. It combines all of the advantages to be found anywhere on the Coast, and many to be found nowhere else in the world.
It is beginning to be admitted by the leading educators of the world that the location of educational institutions in close proximity to the large cities is a grave mistake, for the reason the many attractions to be found there have a demoralizing influence on the students. In this respect Pelican Bay is free from such environments. It is surrounded by all of nature's ennobling elements. It has the great lake for the sports of the students, the forests for the outdoor exercises that are today playing such an important part in the physical development of the young men and women attending the universities, the scenic grandeur that is unsurpassed in all of the world, and a climate that is second to none on the American continent.

I would suggest that a Harriman University promotion committee be selected, whose duty it shall be to bring Pelican Bay to the attention of Mrs. Harriman. This is a work in which the papers of the city may play an important part. It is an enterprise great enough to bring these media of public opinion closely together, and it would be eminently proper if all three of these papers in this city should join hands in the carrying to a successful conclusion this great project.

There is much that I might say on this subject, but I will leave it to you and the other papers of the city, as well as to the members of the committee which I hope to see appointed at an early day. I firmly believe that if the right kind of an effort is made it will result in the bringing to Pelican Bay this great educational institution.

and treasurer. In addition the directorate includes Jacob Mortenson of Chicago, and S. M. Hauptman of San Francisco.

Albert E. Gilbert, formerly of Portland, is the superintendent of the plant. Mr. Gilbert has been connected with the Hauptman interests in their plant at Aberdeen, Wash., and is a practical lumberman from well known to Bala. He will have charge of the operations of the company. The management of the business will be divided between Mr. Mortenson and Mr.

Hauptman, as on account of other heavy interests they both will not be able to be here all the time.

In addition to the Pelican Bay Lumber company, Mr. Hauptman, who is here at the present time, is heavily interested in something like six other big lumber concerns, operating in Nureks and San Francisco, Cal., Portland, Ore.; South Bend and Seattle, Wash. He was first educated in the lumber business in Saginaw, Mich., his former home, and is well known in the lumber world of Chicago, St.
Paul, Minneapolis, Kansas City and the large cities on the coast.

SEEKS SPECIALIST FOR DAMAGING EYESIGHT

EUENE, May 29.—E. M. Douglas, a local capitalist, formerly a farmer living east of Springfield, has begun suit in the state circuit court here against Dr. C. W. Edmunds, a Euene eye specialist, for $10,000 damages for the loss of the sight of his left eye, which he alleges was caused by an operation performed by Dr. Edmunds.

He stated that he consulted the doctor, who pronounced his affliction a stoppage of the tear duct, and performed an operation. He alleges that immediately after that he became blind in that eye, and that the member is totally disabled.

The alleged operation was performed two or three months ago, and since then Mr. Douglas has consulted specialists in Portland, who have informed him that he will never regain his sight in that eye.

EAGLES PREPARING FOR THEIR ALL-NIGHT DANCE

At last night's meeting of Crater Aerie No. 1616, Fraternal Order of Eagles, final plans were made for the big all-night dance to be given by the feathered folk tomorrow night in Sparks theater, and Henry Low was named as floor director. The floor committee that will assist him consists of Lloyd Low, Tom Jackson, C.
A. Smith, Charles Riley, Al Crystal and E. Walsh.

The Eagles have determined to "do themselves proud" with this affair, and the dance promises to be one of the biggest successes of the season.
Great interest is being taken in the event, and a large crowd is assured.

Among the features arranged for are a $5 prize for the best lady waiter and some "ladies' choice" dances.
Special music will be rendered for the occasion by the orchestra.

FINDS $50,000 CHECK; GETS REWARD OF $1

NEW YORK, May 29.—Jimmy Mc-Carthy was going up Broadway, and owing to his "profession" Jimmy was not in any particular hurry. He is a messenger boy for the United District Service company of 42 Broadway. At any rate, Jimmy wasn't in such a hurry that when he saw a strip of paper being trampled underfoot in front of 111 Broadway he could not stop to pick it up. It was a certified check for $55,000.

It was a certified check for $55,000 Jimmy made a bee line for the office of his company and gave up the paper.

The check was made out on the Hansover National bank by the brokerage firm of F. E. Smithers & Co., of 44 Exchange place. A runner for the bank had dropped it.

Jimmy received $1 as a reward.

"WHITE PELICAN" CARRIES QUITE A PARTY ON LAKE

(Special Correspondence)

To say the Klamath Development people are slow in a travesty on Klamath Falls. They have been identified with our industries about a year, and today are more than fore-ful in the upbuilding of our town into a real city. The old joke "Buena Vista" has been remodeled into an up-to-date gasoline yacht and christened "White Pelican," and on Saturday morning, by the kindness of W. P. Johnson, Dr. Hamilton pressed it into service for a trip to the Masten landing to bring in the man who was seriously stabbed on Friday night.

Upon the return to the Buena Vista landing Mr. Johnson was waiting with a party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C.
W. Doe, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Hughes, Mr. G. O.
Johnson, Miss Louise Bargent and Mrs. W. P. Johnson, to not only extend the hospitality of Klamath Falls, but to show them the one and only Upper Klamath Lake.

Saturday night the party spent at the Eagle Ridge Tavern, of which there is no peer, and on Sunday morning the White Pelican was headed on an indeterminate trip of discovery.
The boat bungalow was viewed in the distance, a landing in Odessa Creek and a drink of the famous Budd Springs, then on the Lodge, where, through the courtesy of the present keeper, Mr. Frank Courtrade, was viewed the scenes where Mr. Harriman, even in this remoteness, was not immune from the telegraph's call, and made many a chapter of history.

Then a trip to Rocky Point and up Short Creek till commerce, in the shape of a boom of logs, barred the way, and up Crystal Creek to Blah-on's. Now, mine friend Bishop is a living example of what a little man with a little vim can do in a score of places in Klamath county, and that was just the idea which Mr. Johnson wished to convey to his guests. That it was convincing is without doubt, as evidenced by the many expressions of the desire of the whole party to come again.

That the Klamath Development people are entertainers royal goes without comment, and also by their acts: the bringing in of much needed capital and their dissemination of much needed push for the betterment of Klamath county in general and Klamath Falls in particular, can only end in the making of a city right here.

TOM STEPHENS HAS NEW LOCATION AND A PARTNER

Tom Stephens, the well known insurance and realty man, has moved from the Spink building opposite the court house to the building on Main street formerly occupied by the P. C.
Lavey company, and more recently by Major Worden. A neat sign on the window tells the public that the office is occupied by the Stephens-Hunter Realty Company.

The new member of the firm is O.
H. Hunter, the energetic young business man who came here from the Middle West last July, and entered the employ of Mr. Stephens. Since coming to Klamath Falls Mr. Hunter has made a host of friends, who are glad to hear of his success.

ALBANY CHAUTAUQUANS ORDER AN AUDITORIUM

ALBANY, Ore., May 29.—At a meeting of the Albany Chautauqua board the building committee was instructed to secure plans for the new Chautauqua auditorium in Bryant's park. The Chautauqua board is trying to have Governor West make an address on the opening day, July 7th.
July 14th will be temperance day, and Mrs. Edith Smith Davis, a prominent eastern temperance lecturer, will speak. Dr. Calvin White of Cleveland will deliver an address during the meeting on "The Dangerous House Fly."

SPORTING WRITER GETS HIS FOOT IN IT

United Press Service.
LONDON, May 29.—At the Epsom derby today Special Commissioner Allison, a well known sportsman and leading turf writer, was charged with being concerned in a plot to prevent the favorite, Joel's Sunstar, from winning. It is estimated that Sunstar was backed by a million pounds.

Graves Goes to Lakeview

S. C. Graves, proprietor of the American Cigar Store, left this morning for Lakeview, where he will spend some time working on the Lake County Examiner. Monday "Chap" received a telephone call from the Lake county metropolis, stating that Fred Cronmiller, the editor of the Examiner, was sick, and Chap was urgently requested to come over and help run the shop. Now, Chap is an old time newspaper man and printer, and has known the Cronmiller boys for many years, besides he would never leave a paper in distress, so—well, he went over to Lakeview this morning. During his absence the cigar store is being conducted by Murrie Graves.
