For your boy at this bank. It will take only $1.00 to do it, and it may be the making of him. When he sees how many dollars deposited in the bank makes more money in the shape of interest he will be very apt to save where he now spends—often foolishly. You can do no better service for your boy than to teach him the habit of saving.

FARMERS EXULT OVER GOOD WORK

CELEBRATION OF BOHEMIAN GRANGERS AT MALIN AS A RESULT OF ACCOMPLISHMENT WITH SOIL.

Bohemian farmers of the Malin colony have resumed their wonted habit of work after a short respite devoted to celebrating the fact of their success in developing the soil they took hold of in Klamath county.

One notable feature of the second anniversary of the coming to this region held Saturday and Sunday at Malin was the announcement of a new creamery to be built at Malin, and the willingness expressed by the farmers to contribute milk for use of the creamery.

L. O. Mills of Klamath Falls delivered an address, persuading the Bohemian farmers to go on in the dairy business, and himself promising to build a creamery at Malin. All the farmers present lifted hands, thus showing their willingness to keep cows for the creamery. Mr. Mills then announced he would immediately start with preparations to open a creamery at Malin when the spring opens in 1912.

Lou W. Douglas of Klamath Falls delivered the address of the day, after which the chairman of the meeting, M. Dobry, thanked the speakers, and declared that during his twenty-five years or so in the United States, he had heard many speeches, but none had moved him and touched his heart as the address of Mr. Douglas, who spoke on the hardships and rocky road of human life, and the power of will that secures the final victory.

Frank Ryner of San Francisco, who was delegated by the national committee of the Bohemian Turners Association of America to organize a lodge of the association at Malin, addressed the meeting, and the results of his strong plea for the organization he represents materialized the following day, when Lodge Malin, T. J. S., was organized, with sixteen charter members and the following officers: Wes. Worstschl president, V. Jelinek vice president, Jos. Otoman treasurer, Frank Zumpfe secretary, Chas. Vavricha instructor on physical culture, Jos. Smidt and Alois Kalina assistants.

Following came the program, including music and a children's drill. The celebration concluded in a dance that was attended not only by the Bohemians, but also by nearly all the population of the colony on the north shore of Tule Lake, as well as several Merrittites.

It is very pleasant to notice that the Bohemian citizens not only celebrate what they have already accomplished, but at the same time are laying a foundation for further development of the colony.

CONFIDENCE.

We Back Up Our Statements With Our Personal Reputation and Money. We are so positive that we can relieve constipation, no matter how chronic it may be, that we offer to furnish the medicine free of all cost if we fail.

We think that it is worse than useless to attempt to cure constipation with cathartic drugs. Cathartics may do much harm. They may cause a reaction, irritate and weaken the bowels, and make constipation more chronic.

Constipation is often accompanied and may be caused by weakness of the nerves and muscles of the large intestine or colon. To expect a cure you must therefore tone up and strengthen those parts and restore them to healthier activity.

The discovery of the active principle of our remedy involved the labor of skillful research chemists. This remedy produces results such as are expected from the best of the best-known intestinal tonics, and it is particularly prompt in its results.

We want you to try Bexall's Remedy on our guarantee. They are exceedingly pleasant to take and are ideal for children. They apparently act directly on the nerves and muscles of the bowels, having, it would seem, a neutral action on other organs or glands. They do not purge or cause inconvenience. If they do not positively cure chronic or habitual constipation and thus relieve the myriads of associate or dependent chronic ailments, your money will be refunded. Try Bexall's Remedy at our risk. Three sizes of packages, 10c, 25c, and 50c. Remember, you can obtain Bexall's Remedy in this community only at our store—The Bexall Store. STAR DRUG COMPANY

Idle Capital is An Extravagance

There's no satisfaction like that borne of the knowledge you own a home. Start it today and tomorrow you'll awaken with a feeling of independence like that of 1776.
