

The Evening Herald.

SUPPLIED BY THE UNITED PRESS NEWS SERVICE

EVENING NEWSPAPER PRINT THE NEWS, NOT HISTORY

Fifth Year—No. 1,587

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1911

Price, Five Cents

BEET TESTS WILL SOON BE HAD HERE

CORVALLIS TO HELP

STATE EXPERIMENT STATION WILL SEND CHEMIST WITH NECESSARY EQUIPMENT TO GIVE RESULTS OF NEW CROP

Within a fortnight, probably, there will be a testing station established here under the direction of the Oregon experiment station at Corvallis...

William H. Helleman, of the reclamation service at this point, had taken up the matter with the state authorities...

Dr. James Withycombe, director of the experimental station, wrote to Mr. Helleman that one of the assistant chemists could come for the work...

Owing to transportation of beets, some times resulting in a considerable loss of moisture, the promoters of the industry are particularly pleased at the prospect of getting quick tests on the ground here...

As an index of the number of farmers in this vicinity who have, through the instrumentality of Mr. Helleman, been made to see the importance of sugar beets to this vicinity...

LAKE COUNTY RESOURCES IMPRESS NEW YORK MAN

Comes on Visit to Daughter, and Finds That Situation Appears Favorable to Filling on a Big Homestead—Will Act Accordingly

Philip R. Sinnott, former city editor of the Klamath Falls Evening Herald, came to the city last night to take the "sit" on the Pioneer Press vacated by J. Scott Taylor...

Special to The Herald LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Upon a trip of inspection to Lake county, J. C. Wing of Binghamton, N. Y., is visiting his daughter, Mrs. Olive Grayce...

MILITIA MAY BE FORMED IN CITY

ALMOST ENOUGH APPLICANTS NOW ENROLLED TO MAKE UP NECESSARY ROSTER OF MEN FOR A COMPANY

Dr. Warren C. Hunt is blazing the trail here for a military company to be organized in this city, and the effort up to this time looks strongly as though the company would soon be a reality.

The company would consist of 55 privates, while half a dozen additional would be enough, probably, to fill in the staff of officers.

Colonel George O. Moran of Eugene, commanding the Fourth regiment has written to Wesley O. Smith of this city, promising any assistance to the local undertaking that he can render...

FREE CARRIAGE FOR SHOW GOODS

SOUTHERN PACIFIC TO ASSIST KLAMATH FALLS TO GET ITS FARM PRODUCTS TO NEW YORK FOR LAND SHOW

Secretary C. T. Oliver of the Klamath Falls Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from the Southern Pacific road, which practically guarantees that Klamath Falls will be represented at the great land show shortly to be held in New York...

TIE TRAMP DIES VICTIM OF TRAIN

HE AND COMPANION, DRUNK, MET BY TRAIN BELOW MIDLAND, AND ONE TRIES TO SAVE OTHER, BUT FAILS

Two drunken track walkers were making their way toward Weed along the Southern Pacific's ties last night when, just beyond Midland, they encountered passenger train No. 40, headed for this city...

When the train stopped after killing Kelly Milburn was lying by the track. The train crew put both the survivor and the victim aboard and brought them to Klamath Falls...

VAUDEVILLE ACTS AT OPERA HOUSE

HOUSTON'S TEMPLE OF THESEPIA TO HAVE VARIED PROGRAM OF TALENT FOOT BOARDS THREE NIGHTS NEXT WEEK

At Houston's opera house on Monday evening a three night's engagement of the J. W. Flood company will begin. This company is a vaudeville attraction, and has been highly recommended as a strong aggregation of talent.

PLACE GIRL IN JUDGE'S CUSTODY

YOUNG HIGH SCHOOL MISS IS ADMJUDGED DELINQUENT, AND WILL PROBABLY LATER BE PLACED IN PRIVATE FAMILY

Alice Gray, aged 17 years, who has been living with Miss Tuttle, a teacher in the Klamath Falls high school, and who has been a pupil in the school, was adjudged a delinquent yesterday.

RAIN STILL INTERFERES WITH BASEBALL GAMES

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 21.—Torrential rains have made Shibe park a veritable lake, so that there can be no game today between the Athletics and the New York Giants...

Dr. C. P. Mason and Albert M. Worden have returned from a hunting trip.

SCHOOL TEACHERS HOLD CONVENTION

ANNUAL INSTITUTE SCHOOLS HAVE HOLIDAY THREE DAYS OF NEXT WEEK TO GIVE TEACHERS CHANCE TO STORE KNOWLEDGE

Last night was the coldest for a week at least so far as the minimum drop of the mercury is concerned. The thermometer reached freezing, 32 degrees, at 6 a. m., 3 degrees lower than the record for low the previous night...

Program for Monday morning: "Course of Study," E. F. Carleton; "Teachers' Opportunity for Improvement," Miss Hastings; High School section topic, Mr. Carleton; "Composition in Upper Grades," Miss Hastings; "Primary Reading, How to Begin," Miss Laughton.

REV. STUBBLEFIELD COMES TO PRESBYTERIAN PULPIT

Rev. J. S. Stubblefield, who has been in the pulpit of the Immanuel Presbyterian church, Kansas City, arrived last evening in Klamath Falls to supply the pastorate of the Linkville Presbyterian church for a few weeks...

THREE WEEKS BY COUNTY TAX MEN

Three weeks more the board of equalization will sit in the county court room to hear the reasons assigned by property owners why their assessment is burdensome and excessive...

COOKE LECTURE WILL BE PRECEDED BY DR. SMITH

This is the night for the opening of the Lyceum course at the Houston opera house, when Edmund Vance Cooke will lecture. As Mr. Cooke's train will arrive at 8 o'clock, and it is desired to give him ample time to get to the hall, Dr. Andrew C. Smith, of the state board of health, Portland, who is president of the good roads association of this state, will make a

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

This was when three out of four of the proprietresses of the resorts were arrested on the strength of warrants sworn out by Chief of Police Samuel L. Walker, and appeared before Police Judge T. F. Nicholas. The warrants charged the women with selling liquor as opposed to the law, and City Attorney E. L. Smith and Assistant City Attorney W. E. Sharp appeared for the city.

The women pleaded guilty, and were each fined $100, which they paid. It is understood that they had been informed by the city legal adviser that if they wished to fight the two other charges would be against each of them, which in their meeting the single laws were subjoined.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

A Little "Campaign" Of Want Advertising in The Evening Herald Will Awaken the Interest of a Money-Owning Man in Your Plan

You couldn't be more eager to find "backing" in that enterprise of yours than is someone to find the right thing to "back." If your proposition will stand analysis, you can find the man who wants to find you.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

This was when three out of four of the proprietresses of the resorts were arrested on the strength of warrants sworn out by Chief of Police Samuel L. Walker, and appeared before Police Judge T. F. Nicholas. The warrants charged the women with selling liquor as opposed to the law, and City Attorney E. L. Smith and Assistant City Attorney W. E. Sharp appeared for the city.

The women pleaded guilty, and were each fined $100, which they paid. It is understood that they had been informed by the city legal adviser that if they wished to fight the two other charges would be against each of them, which in their meeting the single laws were subjoined.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

A Little "Campaign" Of Want Advertising in The Evening Herald Will Awaken the Interest of a Money-Owning Man in Your Plan

You couldn't be more eager to find "backing" in that enterprise of yours than is someone to find the right thing to "back." If your proposition will stand analysis, you can find the man who wants to find you.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

A Little "Campaign" Of Want Advertising in The Evening Herald Will Awaken the Interest of a Money-Owning Man in Your Plan

You couldn't be more eager to find "backing" in that enterprise of yours than is someone to find the right thing to "back." If your proposition will stand analysis, you can find the man who wants to find you.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

This was when three out of four of the proprietresses of the resorts were arrested on the strength of warrants sworn out by Chief of Police Samuel L. Walker, and appeared before Police Judge T. F. Nicholas. The warrants charged the women with selling liquor as opposed to the law, and City Attorney E. L. Smith and Assistant City Attorney W. E. Sharp appeared for the city.

The women pleaded guilty, and were each fined $100, which they paid. It is understood that they had been informed by the city legal adviser that if they wished to fight the two other charges would be against each of them, which in their meeting the single laws were subjoined.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

A Little "Campaign" Of Want Advertising in The Evening Herald Will Awaken the Interest of a Money-Owning Man in Your Plan

You couldn't be more eager to find "backing" in that enterprise of yours than is someone to find the right thing to "back." If your proposition will stand analysis, you can find the man who wants to find you.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.

A Little "Campaign" Of Want Advertising in The Evening Herald Will Awaken the Interest of a Money-Owning Man in Your Plan

You couldn't be more eager to find "backing" in that enterprise of yours than is someone to find the right thing to "back." If your proposition will stand analysis, you can find the man who wants to find you.

Disorderly Resort Women Are Fined Heavily For Breaking Liquor Law

As an echo of last Monday night's council meeting, when Mayor Fred T. Sanderson promised, at the instance of Councilman E. S. Grigsby and G. W. White, to look into alleged maintenance of disorderly houses and the sale of liquor illegally in such places, was audible yesterday.

Ingram Leaves After Getting Bailed Out Of Jail, Following Saloon Row

LAKEVIEW, Oct. 21.—Former Forest Supervisor Guy M. Ingram, after creating much excitement and nearly firing a shot at a man in a saloon with whom he had become engaged in a quarrel, upon being bailed out of the town jail, where he had been placed to cool off, left for other points Monday.