SLOGAN AT ORIOLE CITY

Nearly a Third of a Million Folks
Have Come Abroad in Past Year, and Spent $200,000,000—Would Keep This Money Here

Special to The Herald

BALTIMORE, Oct. 24.—About 250,000 Americans went abroad during the last fiscal year, and spent fully $200,000,000 on passage across the Atlantic, hotel bills, railway transportation, amusements and for miscellaneous purposes, according to a statement specially prepared for Secretary Norman M. Parrott of the Greater Baltimore committee, by John Ball Osborne, chief of the bureau of trade relations, department of state, Washington. Of course this number of 250,000 were about equally divided between first and second cabin passengers, with an average expenditure of $800, and the balance were steerage. These figures do not include the large sum annually spent for jewelry, clothing and other articles.

The cost of running the municipal governments of sixteen of the larger cities during the calendar year 1908 was $274,000,000, according to a special report of the United States census, and it is safe to say, with figures available, they would show little difference in the comparative standing of the same cities at the present time. This included outlays for general and special service expenses such as police and fire protection, health, highways, charities, hospitals, education, recreation, etc., but does not take in public improvements. For general and special service expenses and in round numbers, according to the census figures, New York city spends $108,000,000, Chicago $36,000,000, Philadelphia $24,000,000, Boston $17,000,000, St. Louis $12,000,000, Pittsburgh $10,500,000, San Francisco $8,000,000, Washington $5,000,000, Baltimore $7,500,000, Cleveland $7,500,000, Buffalo $7,000,000, Detroit, $6,000,000, Cincinnati $6,000,000, Newark, N. J., $6,000,000, Milwaukee $5,000,000, New Orleans $4,500,000.

"A large part of this vast amount is undoubtedly spent in France, particularly in Paris," said Mr. Osborne. While I was in that city last summer I discussed this topic with an American citizen who is a keen observer, and has lived in Paris continuously many years. I suggested that American tourists spend annually at least $100,000,000 in France. He replied that he believed that sum was dropped by our compatriots in the little Rue de la Paix for jewelry on one side of the street and gowns on the other."

Just pause a minute and think if that $200,000,000 dollars was kept in this country it would buy 44 1/2-cent loaves of bread for each one of the 50,000,000 of men, women and children, or supply at least a half dozen shirts to every man over 18 years old.

While the primary object of the Greater Baltimore committee in launching the "See America First" movement and the committee of prominent Baltimoreans now in charge of it is educational, the ultimate result will be that many of the good American dollars that otherwise would be spent abroad will find their way into the various avenues of American trade. The convention will be held in Baltimore in May, 1912. "We want every American to know this country as well as the bright school boy knows his daily lesson," said Mr. Charles H. Dickey, chairman of the Greater Baltimore committee. "Let them realize that Christopher Columbus' discovery of America was the greatest thing that ever happened, and that we want them to just the very same thing that Columbus did. What will be the result? When any of our people go abroad they will put America on the 'talk map' of every foreign country they visit, and it will not be long until this country is filled with European touring parties." Mayor Preston has appointed a committee of fifteen to have general charge of the arrangements for the "See America First" convention and Governor Crothers has named a committee to arrange for a state exhibit. Both committees are made up of prominent men, and soon they intend to have the slogan "See America First in Baltimore Next May" on the tongue of everybody from ocean to ocean and from Maine to the Gulf for the benefit of the whole country. President Taft will open the convention, and governors of most of the states have already appointed delegates to arrange for their state exhibits.
