NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION
 (Not coal lands)
 Department of the Interior, United States Land Office at Lakeview, Oregon, October 11, 1911.
 Notice is hereby given that Oscar L. Carter, whose postoffice address is Klamath Falls, Oregon, did on the 29th day of May, 1911, file in this office sworn statement and application No. 64680, to purchase lot 1, Section 4, township 37 S, range 16 E, Williamette Meridian, and the timber thereon, under the provisions of the act of June 3, 1878, and acts amendatory, known as the "Timber and Stone Law," at such value as might be fixed by appraisal, and that, pursuant to such application, the land and timber thereon have been appraised at a total of $465, the timber estimated at $20,000 board feet, at 75 cents per M., and the land nothing; that said applicant will offer final proof in support of his application and sworn statement on the 27th day of December, 1911, before R. M. Richardson, United States Commissioner, at Klamath Falls, Oregon.
 Any person is at liberty to protest this purchase before entry, or initiate a contest at any time before patent issues, by filing a corroborated affidavit in this office, alleging facts which would defeat the entry.
A. W. ORTON,
 Register.

TURKEY WITH CRANBERRIES

PRESIDENT WILLIAM HOWARD
TAFT has issued a Thanksgiving proclamation in which he has set apart Thursday, November 30, as Thanksgiving Day, and a national holiday.
 This means that everybody should take a rest on that particular day, and devote the time to acknowledging the good things that have been coming their way. It is not merely to be an occasion for rendering acknowledgment of the blessings received, but for collecting particular matters incident to that celebration.
 This collection consists of turkey, cranberry sauce, celery, mince pie and other trimmings that are appropriate to Thanksgiving Day, and without which the day would hardly be complete. Many a turkey which is now running about in blissful ignorance of the fate he is to meet just a few days prior to the national holiday, will find himself "cabin'd, cribb'd, confined" and trussed up for the festal board of the hungry horde.
 It will be no use for him to rebel against fate. He will have to give in and take his dose. Turkeys were made to be eaten, and eaten they will be, no matter how much they may feel chagrined or discomfited by the fact. If any one of them escapes the headman, it will be for purposes of propagation, or because the owner can neither eat him nor sell him at a profit.
 The cranberries, celery, mince meat and other items on the bill will not feel so badly over the matter, as their feelings are not so tender as the turkey's. Human beings only hope that their feeling of the turkey meat with their teeth will prove it as tender as the bird's nerves when he ponders over his dire end.
 Let everybody eat all the turkey—white, dark, wing or leg—that they want, with trimmings of other good things. It's a good chance to fill up on a square meal.
 Chances are that nobody who is a true American needs the tip, and that many a person will get up from the Thanksgiving dinner table so full of good things that he can scarcely shake his dorsal fin.
 Go to it, folks!

TON OF DYNAMITE STIRS PEOPLE LIVING NEAR BY

It is Claimed That Dangerous Explosive Is Within Two Hundred Feet of Lake County Court House, and Folks Don't Like It

Special to The Herald
LAKEVIEW, Oct. 30.—The alleged storing of about 2,000 pounds of dynamite in a warehouse within three hundred feet of the court house and within fifty feet of a residence here, is to be brought to the attention of the city council by one of the residents who lives within two blocks of the supply, and who owns property half a block away that might be wiped off the map if this amount of the explosive should happen to explode at any time.
Notice to Our Patrons
 Owing to the many accounts and expense attached to collecting the same, after November 1, 1911, all bills will be collected for on delivery. Kindly make arrangements to pay for same when they are delivered.

KLAMATH-LAKE SETTLERS NOT AWARDED EXTENSION

The Claim Is Made That Congressman Hawley Slipped Up in Failing to Get for Them the Same Privilege Extended to Others

Special to The Herald.
LAKEVIEW, Oct. 30.—Comment throughout the county indicates that Congressman Hawley was "sleeping at the switch" when the bills were passed at the last session of congress allowing homestead settlers until next April to take up their residence in certain land districts if they filed previous to a certain date. The bill covers other land office districts in Oregon, but neglects the portion of the state covered by the Lakeview land district, which includes Klamath and Lake counties and a portion of Crook county. This places the settlers in the district at a disadvantage, and denies them privileges that are accorded to others. While it is believed that the lands in this district are better than those of many other portions of the state, they feel that every settler should be accorded the same rights.

SPECIAL VENUE OF FIFTY MEN IN FOLLETTE CASE

Believed Most of the Jurymen in Lake County Matter Must Be Drawn From the Upper Part of the County—Regular Panel Exhausted

Special to The Herald
LAKEVIEW, Oct. 30.—A special venire of fifty men has been called in the A. E. (Pete) Follette murder case, and it is believed that the most of the jurymen will have to be drawn from the northern part of the county in order to try the case. The regular panel was exhausted without anything having been done in the matter.

SACRAMENTAN'S TEMPER MAKES WIFE GET DIVORCE

Testimony Given That He Could Not Control Emotions, Tore Up Playing Cards When Heated, and Called His Wife Names

United Press Service
SAN DIEGO, Calif., Oct. 30.—May Kohlenbach is today divorced from Nicholas Kohlenbach, clerk of the superior court at Sacramento, because testimony was given that he had an ungovernable temper, and when beaten at cards, tore them up and called his wife names.

SUMMONS
 In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for the County of Klamath.
 Mary L. McGuire, Plaintiff.
 William H. McGuire, Defendant.
 To William H. McGuire, the above named defendant:
 In the name of the state of Oregon: You are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint of plaintiff filed against you in the above entitled suit on or before Saturday, the 2d day of December, 1911, that being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication of this summons the first publication thereof being on the 21st day of October, 1911. And if you fail to so appear and answer, for want thereof, the plaintiff will apply to the court for the relief demanded in the complaint, to-wit: For a decree dissolving the bonds of matrimony now existing between plaintiff and defendant, and for such other and further relief as to the court may seem equitable. This summons is served by publication thereof in the Evening Herald, a daily newspaper of general circulation in Klamath county, Oregon, by order of Hon. W. S. Worden, county judge of Klamath county, Oregon, made, dated and filed in said suit at Klamath Falls, Oregon, October 20th, 1911, which said order requires that summons in said suit be published each day, Sundays excepted, for a period of six weeks, commencing with the issue of said paper, published on the 21st day of October, 1911.

A Little Money Judiciously Spent Will Start a Home

Probably not a pretentious one, but if it is properly planned it can be added to from time to time and the money you save in rent will fast accumulate. In beginning, there are lots of frills that can be dispensed with, and you would be surprised if you knew on how little capital some of your friends started their homes. A little debt to work for will do wonders in setting you and your family on the road to prosperity.
 Lumber now is as cheap as it is likely ever to be, because every year our supply of timber is growing less and the demand is rapidly increasing. In the face of these conditions we say "build now." Come in and let us talk over a plan that will fit you—our lowest grades start at good and go up.

NOTICE INVITING BIDS FOR SEWER CONSTRUCTION
 Sealed proposals will be received by the undersigned police judge of the city of Klamath Falls, Oregon, at his office in city hall, up to and including Monday, October 30th, 1911, at the hour of 8 p. m. of said day, at which time and place said bids will be opened and considered in accordance with Ordinances 143, 239 and 241, according to the plans and specifications on file in the office of police judge. Bids will be received under schedule A for furnishing sewer pipe; under schedule B for laying sewer pipe, constructing manholes and furnishing all labor and materials not included in schedule A. Bids will be received for the entire work, including schedules A and B under schedule C.
 All bids must be accompanied by a certified check by some reputable bank payable to the city of Klamath Falls for 5 per cent of amount of bid as a guarantee that the successful bidder will duly enter into contract and bond and contract to be entered into within five days from date of its award.
 Dated at Klamath Falls, Oregon, this 18th day of October, 1911.
T. F. NICHOLAS,
 10-18-20 Police Judge.

Is MARRIAGE A FAILURE

Matrimony is described by a prominent writer as being a "test cure." Be that as it may, if you want to see one of the brightest and most refined comedies of the year, don't fail to witness the production of "Is Marriage a Failure?" to be given at Houston's Opera House, October 30 and 31.
 Someone said that people wanted to laugh, even if they didn't know what they were laughing at. This play is said to be one of the best laugh provokers of the present time. As its title indicates, the story is written around this question, and although it greatly amuses the plot is still a sensible one. J. G. & Glen Harper, Inc., have organized an unusually good company of artists to present this comedy. The scenery is appropriate and the wardrobe handsome, completing one of the most pleasing productions of the season.
