WELFARE OF CHILDREN IS PROBLEM BEFORE MEETING

Convention Under Auspices Oregon
Congress of Mothers Would Combine
With Other Organizations in Laudable Movement

Special to The Herald

PORTLAND, Oct. 30.—A child welfare conference and exhibit, the first such event ever held west of Chicago, will take place at the national guard armory in Portland on November 1, 2, 3 and 4. It will be held under the auspices of the Oregon Congress of Mothers.

Following the plan of similar exhibits throughout the Eastern states, the purpose will be to show what has been done, what is being done and what should be done for the welfare of childhood. Leading educational institutions of the city will be represented, and all phases of child life will be touched upon.

The conference will combine organizations which have for their purpose educational work and mental development. The conference will be free to all, and everyone interested in the development of children is invited to attend. Special rates of one and one-third fare are offered by the railroads from points in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and British Columbia. The Oregon Congress of Mothers has been energetically at work in the effort to make the first Western exhibit a success, and it is hoped that every district in the state will have delegates in attendance.

Among those especially interested in the work who are taking an active part in arranging the exhibit are: Dr. L. W. Hyde, Portland; Arthur Evan Wood of Reed Institute; R. L. Alderman, superintendent of public instruction; Dr. Bertha Stuart, University of Oregon; Mrs. Robert Tate, president Oregon Congress of Mothers; Mrs. Lora C. Little, Mrs. Millie Trumbull of the child labor department; Wm. Thurston Brown of the modern school and Dr. Philip Vauer of the state training school.

Special to The Herald

Sheriff Warner B. Snyder says the Herald erred in stating that a bailiff had been furnished to D. Biggarstaff, a party, who was indicted. The bailiff was Biggarstaff had put up $5,000 bond, and that he came to Snyder and asked him to swear in a guard so that the bondholders should feel at rest, as they were comparative strangers to him.

Another artesian well has been found at a depth of 150 feet on the A. H. Hammsley place, four miles from town, in Goose Lake Valley. The flow is strong enough, according to reports, to irrigate a large area from a comparatively small pipe. The well is a short distance from the other flows in the valley.

A fire on the West Side Thursday afternoon was the cause of considerable grass and a couple of hay stacks being burned. Quite a number of business men went from town in autos to fight the flames when it was thought that some of the ranches in the valley would be endangered.

Sam Dicks of Crooked Creek Valley is just completing a fine house on his ranch, and H. O. Kuhl, the well known painter and decorator, is giving it the last touch of art before turning it over to the owner as the finest ranch house in that part of the county.

Lafe Conn, the well known attorney was seen on the streets with a fine bunch of mailbags that had fallen victims to his trusty gun.

A FAIR OFFER.

Your Money Back If You're Not Satisfied.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obligated to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. That's a mighty broad statement, but we mean every word of it. Could anything be more fair for you?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. Their active principle is a recent scientific discovery that is odorless, colorless, and tasteless; very pronounced, yet gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping, or any inconvenience whatever. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

If you suffer from chronic or habitual constipation, or the associate or dependent chronic ailments, we urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Remember, you can get them only at our store. 12 tablets 10 cents; 30 tablets 25 cents; 60 tablets 50 cents. Sold only at our store. The Rexall Store, The Star Drug Store.
