Capital and Labor Must Be Kept Busy

In the right channels to keep the nation prosperous. National prosperity is the collective result of local prosperity and "confidence" is the mysterious thing back of both. Confidence is necessary in all walks of life to bring success, for without it there can be no future. Our own town needs the confidence of her people. A town is known by its works just as a man is known by his deeds. There's no better way to show your confidence in the town than to be known as a home owner and no quicker way to gain your share of the independence for which our Revolutionary fathers fought than to own a home. Better start today —come in and talk it over with us—we can give you a good idea of the total cost as well as the kind of timber you'll need.

Accidents will happen, but the best regulated families keep Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil for such emergencies. It subdues the pain and heals the hurts.

Sportsmen report that there are many wild swan to be found on Goose Lake, and that they are making their long flights at this time of the year.

A Western Oregon man has purchased the property owned for many years by the Widow Vernon at Crane Creek. D. A. Howell, the new owner, has a fine property, and will try to establish crop records next year.

Charles Wallace has been engaged in making extensive improvements on the Brewery saloon, of which Gus Schlagel is the manager.

W. C. Buick and George Small were Silver Lake residents that found Lakeview attractive the last few days.

Tom Sullivan, the well known Plush business man, was a Lakeview visitor this week. He says things are looking up a lot in Warner for next year, and that indications for a boom along mining lines in the Coyote hills is not at all improbable. New changes there would seem to prophesy large developments.

C. E. McCleary of the Mountain Sheep mine in the Hoag district says that men are needed on the Sunshine claim to work all winter to develop that property. He looks for some large investments of capital in the spring, and says that the camp looks to be the equal of many that have caused people to go wild during the past few years.

The Lakeview Commercial Club is having some estimates made on some new literature that the organization hopes to get out in the near future.
 The great need has been to have something that people can see and understand in that line, and the new work will try to cover the field thoroughly.

Palsley people are to have electric lights this week. Another step in enterprise.

W. Roche Fick, J. C. King and Mrs.
 Clive Grayce were visitors down the valley Sunday last, viewing New Pine Creek, Willow Ranch and the Pine Creek section of the county.

The settlers in Rye Grass Valley want a postoffice, and the name will be either "Moss" or "Butte," the former being the most appropriate, and honoring Lute B. Moss, the well known stockman and rancher. The nearest postoffice to the settlement is about ten miles distant, at Egli, Harney county.

F. Fetsch left for Grants Pass on business for a few days. Mr. Fetsch is one of the new merchants who have started in business in Lakeview.

Owing to the large number of witnesses to be examined in the A. E.
 Pollett murder case, Judge Henry L.
 Benson has cautioned all that have been subpoenaed to remain within the court house grounds while court is in session, so as not to delay the trial.
 There are some thirty or forty witnesses to be examined.

The name of E. H. Patch has been prominently mentioned for the office of town recorder, and the indications are that there will be a close race between Recorder William Wallace and Mr. Patch at today's election. None of the other offices are being fought for. It is conceded that A. Bieber will be re-elected treasurer.

George Ede, the artesian well driller, is suffering from a well-directed kick that a horse made at him, though no bones were broken. Mr.
 Ede has taken contracts for many new wells in the valley, and is so busy that he has refused some three or four applications for wells in Warner Valley.

Manuel Sanders, the well known sheep man, who owns the famous $1,000 sheep dog "Maggie," has returned to town from a trip inspecting his various bands of sheep.

V. L. Snelling, F. P. Lane, Wm.
 Showers, S. P. Moss, George Harrow, C. E. McCleary and William Moss were Lakeviewites that took a trip to New Pine Creek Saturday.

The Central Fremont Cattle and Horse Association will meet in Palsley November 20th. All members of the organization are requested to attend, as many matters of interest will be discussed.

George Conn of Palsley is a Lakeview visitor on business connected with the final disposition of his large holdings that were sold to the Northwest Townsite company.

The members of the Robekan Teacup Club left in autos for New Pine Creek, where they were entertained by Mrs. Felix Greene. Refreshments were served, and a most enjoyable time was spent by all present.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gilt of Klamath Falls are here on business. Mr.
 Gilt was amazed at what a fine town it is. He believes that it has a future that will compare favorably with any small town that he has ever seen, and prophesies that it will multiply in population within the next few years.

The steeple and cross on the new Catholic church have been completed and the cross painted with gold and the roof covered with a preservative by William Barragy, the artist. The interior work on the building is to be rushed with all speed, now that the scaffolding is to be removed. The acoustics of the building are very good, and it is easy to hear words spoken in an ordinary tone throughout the interior.

The finishing touches have been made to the new home of George Whorton by Wm. Barragy, and the only thing remaining is the hanging of the front door, which has been delayed because of the non-arrival of the fittings. This is one of the best residences in town, and is a credit to the owner and the town.

The Lakeview Commercial Club meets next Monday, when business of importance will come before the members. An earnest desire is expressed to have every resident of the county take part in the work of the organization and become members.

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

THE HOME PAPER OF KLAMATH AND LAKE COUNTIES

It has been estimated that half a million dollars was spent by the farmers of this section last year with mail order houses. A little money spent in judicious advertising would secure this trade to the Klamath Falls business man.
 Can any merchant afford to neglect this opportunity?

The KLAMATH REPUBLICAN covers every section of Klamath and Lake
 Counties

It already has the circulation. The farmers want to know what inducements you have to offer them to trade with you. If you do not tell them you alone are to blame for their patronage of mail order houses.
