Society

The "500" Club, which was to have met with Mrs. Hall today, has been postponed out of respect to Mrs. Noland.

Mrs. Wm. Fish left Thursday morning for Spokane, Wash., for several months' visit with friends and relatives.

Miss Louise Lee, who has been in San Francisco for several weeks, will remain the rest of the winter to continue her vocal studies.

Mrs. Clarence Underwood, who was to entertain the Bridge Club today, has postponed the party, in respect to Mrs. Noland, who is a member.

Sunday morning Mrs. Chas. Eberline left for San Francisco to join Mr. Eberline, where they will probably remain several weeks, when they will go to New York to spend the holidays with relatives.

In honor of the twelfth anniversary of her natal day, Miss Fern Hoagland pleasantly entertained some of her youthful friends at her home on Klamath avenue last evening. A delightful time was spent by the little ones in the playing of games dear to childhood, and after refreshments were served they departed, wishing Miss Fernie many happy returns of the occasion. The guests at the affair were: Misses Erma Bamber, Mildred Lenz, Madge Shive, Meta Chastain, Karle Montgomery, Reita Low, Grace Hoagland, Fern Hoagland, and Masters Cyril Benson, Lester Sparks, Floyd Sparks, Willie McMillan, Edwin Driscoll, Glenn Parker, Claud Hill, Harold Morine, Louis Hoagland.

One of the musical treats of the season was the concert on Thursday evening at the opera house, when Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt presented Mrs. William Wagner in song recital, assisted by Miss Faye Hogue, piano. Mrs. Zumwalt can justly feel proud of the success scored by her pupil, and nothing but the highest praise was heard on all sides. Mrs. Wagner certainly is gifted with a most pleasing voice, and her careful training and perfect control was shown in all of her selections. Klamath Falls audiences can always feel assured of a delightful evening whenever she is on the program. Miss Hogue's selections on the piano added greatly to the pleasure of the evening's entertainment.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Geo. Merryman and Mrs. C. P. Chastain were hostesses of a delightful "500" party at the home of Mrs. L. Gerber. The first prize was awarded to Mrs. Zim Baldwin for highest score and Mrs. W. P. Hughes received the consolation prize. The invited guests were: Mrs. E. R. Reames, Mrs. E. J. Murray, Mrs. C. Underwood, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. W. S. Wiley, Mrs. J. D. Cochran, Mrs. W. P. Johnson, Mrs. Geo. Wright, Mrs. J. D. Church, Mrs. C. P. Mason, Mrs. G. W. White, Mrs. Burge Mason, Mrs. W.
