LOS ANGELES BOMB MEN ARRESTED IN NORTHWEST

Persistent Rumor that Schmidt and Kaplan Have Been Detained by the Peace Officers in Some City in the Northwest

PORTLAND, Dec. 7.—Are David Kaplan and M. A. Schmidt, wanted in Los Angeles for complicity in the dynamiting of the Times building, under arrest in Portland or some other Northwest city? The Burns detective agency denied that it has any knowledge of their capture, but admitted that the men are being looked for. In the manager's opinion they are in the Middle West under surveillance.

Persistent, however, is the rumor that the men have been arrested under assumed names to hide their identity for the time being. It is well known that Kaplan used Portland as his headquarters previous to the Los Angeles explosion, and was employed here by a dairy company during the Lewis and Clark expedition. It was to Portland that members of the Burns agency hurried immediately after the Southern tragedy, and the city was scoured in an effort to locate Kaplan. Kaplan, if he did come here, covered his tracks cleverly, and escaped detection, although the police, two private detective agencies and the sheriff's office were hunting him.

Less is known concerning Schmidt except that he was a comrade of Kaplan's led those intimate with the case to believe that the men will be found in company with each other.

Various rumors have placed Kaplan and Schmidt in the Middle West, New York and London. In London, it was said, Kaplan had started a small mercantile store, but the hunt there proved fruitless.

It has been the policy of the Burns agency to hesitate giving information concerning arrests, and it is the belief that if Kaplan and Schmidt are under arrest their detention will not be made public until extradition proceedings have been commenced.

It is known, however, that several men answering the description of the fugitives have been arrested here and at Seattle and Tacoma since the confession of the McNamara. Some of them are now in custody, while others have proved their identity and effected their release. Whether any of these under surveillance now are Kaplan and Schmidt is not known.

LAUGH ON DETECTIVES PENPED IN BY CHINESE

Portland Snickers Over Dilemma of Couple of Municipal Hawkshaws, Who Walk Into Mantrap Set for Them by Celestial Gamblers.

United Press Service

PORTLAND, Dec. 8.—All Portland is snickering today over her intelligent detectives, two of whom walked into a mantrap set by wily Chinese gamblers.

For half an hour they pounded on the iron, electrically worked, locked doors trying to get out of a narrow room in which they found themselves.

Finally they gave up and prepared to die horrible deaths by starvation and possible torture at the hands of the Chinese. Then they thought to use a telephone hanging on the wall. They were released at midnight by brother officers.
