A Fine Display 30 Head Steers

Charles and the same of the sa

As fine as ever trod the sweet alfalfa of this glorious Klamath Basin are now being led, lamb-like, to the sacrifice pen to feed the good people of Klamath Falls for the holidays. These cattle were secured over two months ago for this especial occasion.

An extra line line of milk-fed vest and lambs. Harley-fed pork, torkeys, chickens, ordery, cranberries, cysters galore.

Take a walk up. I will show you on fine and artistic line of means as you ever seen.

Take a walk up. I will show you as fine and artistic Display of meats as you ever cast a critical eye over, and we have put them up from New York to San Francisco and from Alaska to Mexico.

BILL SAYS that business is good. The fact is, business is usually good with "Bill". He does not wait for business to come to him, he goes out and gets it. He has a habit of finding out what people want and getting it for them at the time they want it. He anticipates the needs of his customers, and is always on the job, ready to accommodate the people. His store is open all the time, holidays and all, and he is busy every minute.

The Fulton Market has furnished the supplies for every big banquet given this winter in Klamath Falls. $1200 worth was sold for banquets the past ten days. No one was disappointed as everything was of the very choicest. You can depend on "Bill" always having the best that there is.

It may be winter here but that does not prev at you from securing for your table the ch icest of the southern fruits, and fish, oysters and those thousands o' thing; that put the finishing touch on and make the dinner just a little different. If you like to see people bus, just visit the Fulton Market, it will do you good. "Bill" wishes everyone a Happy and Prosperous New Year,
