LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

[Communications sent to the Herald for publication in this department should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender.]

Editor Herald:

I have read with interest Mr. Austad's articles on socialism which have appeared in your paper from time to time, and I must say they are plain and to the point. I will say, too, that I am not a socialist. I am a logger by trade—am out of work and nearly broke, besides—but that is no fault of the system, for I believe that if all workmen would let "hoose" alone and save their money they would be all right and never need to be hard up. I have always voted the republican ticket, and, for all I know now, will continue to do so. For all that, I am not prejudiced against socialism or anything else. I am not hidebound to any creed, political or religious, and while I don't know much about socialism, I cannot help saying there seems to be some good points about it. It is true, as Mr. Austad has pointed out, that there are some wrongs growing out of present society which work a hardship on the part of the people, but I think that can be remedied without going to such extremes as to establish a new system. Mr. Austad seems to think there is no other way, and he also says that it will be done in the near future—at least such is the trend of his articles.

Now, I would like to ask Mr. Austad, if he is so sure that socialism is coming, then why does he work for it? If it is coming any way, even if there were no socialists to tell us how much better time we could have if we were all partners with Rockefeller and Morgan, then why not let it alone to come when the time is ripe for it? It seems to me that such a stand is very inconsistent, and hoping he will explain his position through the columns of your paper. I am, for the survival of the fittest, yours,

J. C. D.

MEN ARE HELPLESS AS CHILDREN.

When Taken Suddenly Ill—Here is a Common-sense Safeguard.

Big, strong man is as a helpless infant when he is suddenly ill.

The sturdiest chap in town usually loses his self-control, and is utterly unable to regard his condition with the common sense that characterizes his every-day actions.

For example: He comes home tired, eats a heavy dinner and sits down to read and smoke away a quiet evening.

Suddenly he notices a weight on his stomach; then sharp pains around his heart, and a feeling of suffocation. Thoughts of "heart disease" rush over him, and in his agony he fears the worst.

His trouble was acute indigestion, brought on by overloading his tired stomach.

A couple of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets might have given him relief—might have saved him hours of suffering.

Carry a package of Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets in your vest pocket or keep them in your room. Take one after each heavy meal, and ward off indigestion.

Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets relieve stomach troubles by aiding nature to supply those elements, the absence of which in the gastric juices, causes indigestion and dyspepsia. They tend to aid the stomach to digest all kinds of food and to quickly convert it into rich red blood.

We know what Rexall Dyspepsia Tablets are and what they will do. We guarantee them to relieve indigestion and dyspepsia. If they fail, we will refund your money.

Three sizes, 25 cents, 50 cents, and $1.00. Sold only at our stores or by mail. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, The Star Drug Store.
