LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE

[Communications sent to the Herald for publication in this department should not exceed 300 words in length and must be accompanied by the name and address of the sender.]

Editor Herald:

In Wednesday's issue of your paper I see an article signed J. C. D., in which the writer asks me for some explanations, which, of course, I am always glad to give.

First, I want to make a few remarks about J. C. D.'s statement that "if the working people would only let 'boozers' alone, and saved their money, they would be all right, and never need to be hard up."

True, temperance and thrift are admirable virtues, whether found among working people or others, but if they were practiced ever so rigidly I do not think they would improve the conditions of the workers to any great extent. Of course, the sober and industrious worker will often get advantages from the employer. If there is a position of trust he is most likely to get it, but in that case it is just as much the shiftness of others as his own virtues which gave him the advantage, for had they all been steady and sober the one would not have had any advantage over the rest. I think J. C. D. will agree with me that the number of unemployed is constantly increasing, and the competition for jobs will in time compel wage upon which they can live and keep their labor power. If it was possible for the workers of today to save half their wages it would not be long before their wages would be decreased one-half. So it seems to me hardly worth while to recommend temperance and saving as a solution of the economic and social problem of today.

J. C. D. asks me why I work for socialism, knowing it is coming and would come even if there was no socialists to pave the way for it. Yes, such is my opinion, although I have not said it in so many words in any of my articles to the Herald. There are two things taken in connection which prompts me in the work:

First, that I know it will be a blessing to the whole of the human race; and second, because I feel sure we will get it, and that in a comparatively short time. If either one of these convictions was lacking—if, for instance, I thought it would be a good thing, but that it might take 100 years before we would get it—then I should very likely be putting in my spare time shooting crap or playing solo. As it is, I believe that those of us who are alive and well today stand a pretty fair show of seeing the co-operative commonwealth ushered in, and as far as I know, such is the belief of all active socialists. But while I know that socialism is coming, I am also sure that it will come in much shorter time if we work hard for it, for it is only by being posted—knowing what we want and how to get it—that we can hope to solve the problems of the future. If you put a man to do a piece of work, would he not go at it with more vim and courage if you told him it was easy than if you told him it would be a very difficult job, perhaps impossible. He surely would, and after all a person will find his greatest happiness by exercising his activities, and the only true rest is found in working for a worthy purpose.

I believe it was Ben Hanford who said that next to the glory of living in the co-operative commonwealth is the joy of working for it. I hope J. C. D. will test the truth of that saying by joining the socialist movement. I will assure him that he will find plenty of chances to exercise his activities, and plenty of sport, too. I am glad J. C. D. is taking interest in economic questions. Such interest among working people is so rare that it is a pleasure when one meets with it, no matter what party the interested person clings to. It is a sure thing that if working people will investigate along political lines they will arrive at the correct conclusion some day. I hope I have now answered J. C. D. satisfactorily. If not, I hope he will tell us about it through the columns of the Herald. If I can ever write anything that will start someone thinking along the right lines, I shall feel that I have not lived in vain. I don't like to live in vain. I like much better to live in Klamath Falls and write socialist articles for the Evening Herald.

AEROPLANE SQUADRONS MAY BATTLE UP IN SKY

Aerial Conflict Between Air Scrappers of Italian and Turkish Armies Seems Imminent Since Turkey's Heavy Buy of Machines

United Press Service

PARIS, Jan. 13.—Aerial battles between two great rival aeroplane squadrons of the Italian and Turkish armies is imminent. Turkey has just bought between 50 and 100 French flying machines, which are already on their way to Tripoli for use against the Italians. It will be the first genuine engagement between aeroplanes.

A Word With Women

Valuable Advice for Klamath Falls Readers

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." When the kidneys get congested and inflamed, there are many such aches and pains, and the whole body suffers.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment; the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. They can't get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have brought sound backs and new life and strength to thousands of suffering women. They are endorsed right in this locality. Read this woman's convincing statement.

Mrs. F. W. Longwill, 323 West J street, Grants Pass, Ore., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills have been used in my family with excellent results. I know what this remedy will do in cases of kidney trouble, and can therefore give it my hearty endorsement."

IT GROWS HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Prove at Our Risk.

Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "G" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.

Rexall "G" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness. It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet requisite, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rexall "G" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and in every way give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or formality we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c. and $1.00. Sold only at our stores—The Rexall Store, Star Drug Store.
