SCHUMANN-HEINKE DENIES CHARGES HUSBAND MADE

Elderly Cantatrice Whose Inferior and Younger Friction Is Discontinued With His Domestic Arrangement Says "He's Another"

CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Jan. 20.—"Even if you produced a millionaire willing to have me I would say, 'No more wedding bells for me.'"

Madame Schumann-Heinke stopped eating a meal that would have delighted an epicure to deny the report from New York that there is a "millionaire in the case." She also made a few additional denials concerning statements made by William Rapp, her young husband, whom she is suing for divorce. He said that he had practically made the diva's fortune as her manager, and had received nothing in return but the title of "Madame Schumann-Heinke's husband."

The German nightingale said Rapp was paid handsomely for his services.

"At the right time and in the right place I will prove it, and tell just how much he received," she said, between bites. "He never was my manager. He was my husband and secretary. My manager is connected with a New York musical organization."

"As for the other man in the case—there is none. If there is I never heard of him. Here I am, all alone out here, eating my supper. Do you see any millionaires about?"

GOVERNOR WEST IS SORE OVER ATTACK OF PAPERS

His Prison Policy Has Been So Criticized That Prisoners' Escapes Hereafter Will Be Made Public at the Option of Wardens

United Press Service
SALEM, Jan. 20.—Governor West is apparently determined to protect his prison policy from bitter attacks launched against it by a number of Oregon newspapers. He has unofficially announced that hereafter he would leave it to the discretion of prison officials as to whether the escape of convicts should be made public or not.

KLAMATH REPUBLICAN

THE HOME PAPER OF KLAMATH AND LAKE COUNTIES

It has been estimated that half a million dollars was spent by the farmers of this section last year with mail order houses. A little money spent in judicious advertising would secure this trade to the Klamath Falls business man. Can any merchant afford to neglect this opportunity?

The KLAMATH REPUBLICAN covers every section of Klamath and Lake Counties

It already has the circulation. The farmers want to know what inducements you have to offer them to trade with you. If you do not tell them you alone are to blame for their patronage of mail order houses.
