Oregon's Official State Booth Makes Excellent Showing at Northwestern Land Products Show

Oregon's official state booth attracted much attention at the Northwestern Land Products show recently held in St. Paul. Of all the big shows in 1911 this was the most important, as Northwestern products alone were shown, without fear or favor.

The official state booth of Oregon occupied an equal amount of space with the other state exhibits, which was subscribed for by the business men of the Twin Cities and Duluth. Similar space was also furnished free to all the other states in the Northwest Development League.

The official state booth of Oregon was designed and put up by the Great Northern railway for the state of Oregon. It was handsomely decorated, and the apples and other fruits from Hood River, Willamette Valley, the Umpqua and Rogue River valleys made a splendid showing. In addition to fruit growing, the chances for diversified farming, dairying, hog and cattle raising, which are of much interest to the mid-Western and the Eastern farmers, were emphasized. The interest manifested in Oregon was such that the Great Northern officials are well satisfied that the state will benefit much from this comprehensive exhibit.

NEW YORK CHURCH WILL START GROCERY

By That Method Big Parish in That City Will Endeavor to Cut Down the Cost of Living Among Poor People of Its Charge

NEW YORK, Jan. 29.—Rev Madison C. Peters, pastor of the big Pulgrin Congregational church on Madison avenue, will start a grocery store as a part of the church's work among the poor. It is the beginning of a campaign against the high cost of living. Other stores are to be opened later if this one proves successful. "I would like," he said, "to start a store where the people could come and buy as they would if the farmer's wagons were lined up for them in a market—where they could escape the cheating grocer and the rapacious middleman."

Out of the pastor's own pocket will come the initial cost of laying in a stock. For the present the store will be open only from 10 o'clock to noon on Wednesday and Saturday.
