

WOMAN SUFFRAGE SPLIT IN BRITISH CABINET SEVERE

President Asquith, Opposed to Feminism, or Lloyd George, Chancellor, Who Favors Who Favors It, May Have to Give Up Job.

United Press Service

LONDON, Feb. 2.—The split in the British cabinet over the woman suffrage question has become so serious that predictions are freely made here today that Premier Asquith will be compelled either to resign or force his opponent, Lloyd George, chancellor of the exchequer, out of office. George favors the ballot for women.

England is now beholding the unprecedented spectacle of a ministry not only divided against itself on one of the most important issues of the day but its members actually taking the stump to combat each other's views.

Asquith personally opposes woman suffrage in principle, but he is in favor of a referendum on the subject. George opposes the referendum on the ground that once the precedent is established all important measures in future would have to be subjected to this process.

His objection to the referendum is believed generally to have the support of the liberal party, although it is understood that on this phase of the question Winston Churchill sides with the premier. On the question of suffrage itself eight members of the cabinet are against and ten for.

Asquith's followers include Home Secretary McKenna, Colonial Secretary Harcourt, Postmaster General Samuel and Lord Secretary Loreburg. Lloyd George's supporters include Naval Secretary Churchill, Foreign Secretary Grey, a Mr. Secretary Hal-dane, Irish Secretary Birrell and President John Burns of the government board.

In view of the approaching session of parliament the crisis is especially acute, for according to invariable custom in the past the cabinet must either be a unit for, or at least acquiesce in all legislation introduced or supported by its members.

Oh, You Little Comma!

There is a little familiar anecdote going the rounds of the press that goes to show the importance of even such a little thing as a comma, when misplaced. The wife of a mariner wrote to the clergyman of the parish intending to say, "A husband, going to sea, his wife desires the prayers of the congregation." But she misplaced comma made her say: A husband, going to see his wife, desires the prayers of the congregation.

STOMACH UNRULY BUT IS FOREGOING SOCIAL "EATS"

President's Military Aide on Auster Diet Because of Nervous Affection Caused by Poison From Eating Rich Viands

United Press Service

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2.—"Food, food, everywhere, and not a bite to eat." This is the wall of Maj. "Archie" Butt, military aide to President Taft. His is the saddest plight of all Washington diners—because of an unruly stomach, backed up by a doctor's orders.

Banquets, dinners, luncheons, teas, and feeding "feasts" galore, Major Butt must attend—and not eat a bite or drink a drop. It is his business, as social attendant of the president, to attend the functions, sometimes three or four in an evening.

With all the rare viands and wines offered, Major Butt is a total abstainer. He can't take a mouthful of the "grub" nor drink a drop of the ancient vintages. Doctor's orders.

For Major Butt has been sick and is on a diet. It is a most austere diet, too, and the major is sticking to it rigorously. Because of his illness and operation, for a nervous affection caused by poison resulting from rich viands, Major Butt eats only the very plainest of food. Here is the entire Butt bill of fare:

White meat of chicken, without the skin; dryest of dry toast; potatoes without butter; no meat; no beverages except water; a few vegetables, without butter; poached eggs, without condiments.

As a result the major does not banquet at banquets. His menu is not included at most Washington functions.

CONDEMN FREE SEED GRAFT, ASKING ITS ABANDONMENT

Kennewick, Wash., Farmers' Institute Denounces Practice of Distribution Grants, and Begs La Follette to Desist From It

United Press Service

KENNEWICK, Wash., Feb. 2.—Denunciation of the practice of free seed distribution is contained in a letter forwarded to Congressman William La Follette of Washington by the Kennewick Farmers' Institute.

The letter, which was unanimously endorsed by the organization, "begs" La Follette "not to burden them with seeds and such folly."

"You know," continues the letter, "that this is a graft which benefits no one but the seed man who grows worthless seeds. You are not performing your duty in sending them or taking part in a fraud too patent to deceive anyone any longer. The only duty you have is to introduce and support a bill to put an end to this foolish attempt to deceive the farmer. If you do not introduce such a bill we will not vote for you again."

The letter was mailed in reply to a communication from Congressman La Follette saying that he was mailing seeds to each farmer in his district.

United Press Service

It is also provided that women shall be allowed to practice any profession for which their university training may fit them.

"FORGET IT"

If you see a tall fellow ahead of a crowd, A leader of men, marching fearless and proud, And you know of a tale whose mere telling aloud Would cause his proud head to in anguish be bowed, It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a skeleton hidden away In a closet, and guarded and kept from the day In the dark; and whose showing, whose sudden display, Would cause grief and sorrow and lifelong dismay, It's a pretty good plan to forget it.

If you know of a thing that will darken the joy Of a man or a woman, a girl or a boy, That will wipe out a smile or the least way annoy A fellow, or cause any gladness to cloy, It's a pretty good plan to forget it. —Exchange.

She Is Arrested, While Her Husband, Also Indicted on Charge of Being Coy About Paying Duties, Is Being Searched for

United Press Service

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 2.—Mrs. Ethel Hall, declared by the police to be "Queen of the Smuggling Ring," and her husband, Ed Hall, are today named in a federal grand jury indictment, charging smuggling. Federal officers are searching for Hall. The woman is held here.

Mrs. Hall is charged with having been the leader of a band that operated between Mexico, on the west coast, and San Diego and San Francisco. Hundreds of Chinese are declared to have been illicitly brought across the border by her band.

ITALIAN CENSORS RELAX THEIR RIGOR DECIDEDLY

News Allowed to Circulate of Unique Cattle Swindle Worked on Government by Making Stock Drink Heavily Before Being Weighed

United Press Service

LONDON, Feb. 2.—That the Italian censorship has been considerably relaxed is evident from the following message which the representative of a well known European news agency was permitted to send from Rome: "The minister of war has just been informed of the completion of an investigation into a number of cases of clever swindling, by which $40,000 was extracted from the state by a firm of cattle dealers.

The firm had contracted to supply the government with oxen, to be butchered for shipment to Tripoli. Before being delivered, the animals were fed with salted hay which gave them a terrible thirst, so that on being taken to a water trough each drank unnaturally. As they were sold by weight immediately after the dealers got the benefit."

"Clean Up the Bowels and Keep Them Clean"

There are many remedies to be had for constipation, but the difficulty is to procure one that acts without violence. A remedy that does not perform by force what should be accomplished by persuasion is Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets. After using them, Mr. N. A. Waddell, 315 Washington St., Waco, Tex., says: "Almost all my life I have been troubled with constipation, and have tried many remedies, all of which seemed to cause pain without giving much relief. I finally tried Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets and found them excellent. Their action is pleasant and mild, and their chocolate taste makes them easy to take. I am more than glad to recommend them."

"Clean up the bowels and keep them clean," is the advice of all physicians, because they realize the danger resulting from habitual constipation. Do not delay too long, but begin proper curative measures. Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are a new remedy for this old complaint, and a great improvement over the cathartics you have been using in the past. They taste like candy and work like a charm. A trial will convince you.

Dr. Miles' Laxative Tablets are sold by all druggists, at 25 cents a box containing 25 doses. If not found satisfactory after trial, return the box to your druggist and he will return your money.

FRUIT QUARANTINE IRKS GROWERS, WHO PROTEST

Nurserymen in Group of California Counties, Hard Put Because of Alleged Infection by Peach Borer, Declare Pest is Not Local

United Press Service

SACRAMENTO, Feb. 2.—A protest is on file at the governor's office from Santa Cruz, San Mateo, Santa Clara and Alameda county nurserymen against the quarantine declared recently against fruit trees from the territory embraced by those counties. The protest, which is signed by Leonard Coates of Morgan Hill, recites that the quarantine prohibits shipping trees bearing fruit that contains pits on grounds that they are infected with peach borer, and declares that the pest is not peculiar to the territory quarantined, but is general.

Horticultural A. J. Jook denies this. He says he probably will invite the protesting nurserymen to appear before him today.
