WILLIAM CASTLE, Feb. 25.—Mrs. Wynter finds that the "Papier" was the first to come out of the first National bank and drew $500 from the vault for $1,000. The draw took place for activities only, and was, of course, returned unused. But the deal that Mrs. Wynter's bank carried, which was to get a receipt from the bank which he could show to prospective customers, took place on the Campbell and Leslie building. A painter has been arrested, and if Wynter can be trusted will very properly be sent over the road. William Wynter is about to get in height, weighs about 100 pounds, has red hair, black eyes and smooth shave.
