CITY ATTORNEY'S OPINION

ANY unprejudiced person after a careful perusal and study of the opinion of the city charter in regard to the proposed amendment to the city charter providing for a commission form of government for Klamath Falls cannot help but be impressed with the evidence of bias on the part of the attorney against the charter amendment.

The city attorney was instructed to report on the legality of the submission of the petition, and while he admits that the law in this regard was followed, a great portion of his report is confined to a discussion of the merits of the proposed amendment. He intimates that the only objection to the present charter is that it does not provide for a sufficient bond issue. This may be the opinion of the mayor and city attorney, but we believe that there are several thousand voters in Klamath Falls who are opposed to any new charter that will enable the administration to further burden the people with additional debts. The opinion of the majority of voters in this respect is the only opinion necessary, and will have more force than the opinion of the city attorney.

The city attorney also intimates that the present charter is illegal. This is a matter that cannot be settled by any opinion, but is one for the supreme court to decide, but we would like to inquire, why is the mayor trying to amend an illegal charter, by drafting one of his own? Some men have a mania for spending money—other people's money—and it would seem that this is the trouble of the present administration. They have run out of money, and now want the people of this city to give them more to spend, but it is possible even in a city as rich as Klamath Falls, to pass the limit, and we believe that that time has now arrived and that the taxpayers of this city will not consent to continue being the "goat."

Mr. Sanderson cannot weaken the support of the proposed commission form of government, and if he thinks that the opinion, attempting to discredit the proposed amendment, by his city attorney, will gain any support for his own pet charter, he will find himself greatly mistaken. On the contrary, it will be the means of awakening the people to the necessity of a system of government that will recognize the rights of the voters to a say in all matters of public interest.

Mr. Sanderson has had prepared and is having printed a new charter, at a cost of several hundreds of dollars, and as a matter of curiosity it might well be asked, who is going to pay this expense? The city council, the representatives of the people, have not authorized this expense. Is Mr. Sanderson so sure of the future actions of his council that he feels safe that they will pay the bill, or does he intend to foot the bill himself? A man drawing a salary of $1,000 a year cannot afford to dig up $400 or $500 out of his own pocket for an expense of this kind unless he has some means of getting it back.

There are many interesting things about the conduct of the affairs of the city that may some time be revealed to the people, but on the matter of the proposed amendment for commission government, this petition, irrespective of the actions of the council, will be presented to the people to be voted upon at the next city election.

CHINESE EDITOR NOT TONG MAN, HIS EMPHATIC CLAIM
 Celestial Redactor in Golden Gate Hamlet Receives Telephone Message That He Is Doomed, Which Leads Him to Disclaim All Tong

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 9.—Wong Bock Yue, editor of the progressive Chinese daily paper, Young China, has covered Chinatown with handbills containing a halftone portrait of himself and the hieroglyphics necessary to make known that he is neither a Hop Sing nor a Sen Suey Ng tong man.

Wong, though editorially quite militant privately is a man of peace. He became visibly excited when he answered a telephone call to hear his doom pronounced by a mysterious Hop Sing, whose voice declared Wong belonged to the hated rival, Sen Suey Ng tong, and therefore must die, for the Hop Sings did not intend for an enemy to escape in the present war.

The editor immediately called up the headquarters of the Hop Sings, and entered an earnest disclaimer. To make doubly sure, he also apprised the Sen Suey Ng tong of the fact that he belonged to no tong at all. Still the fear persisted that he might be a marked man among the warring gunmen. Hence the handbills.

ABOLISH FEDERAL SENAT IS ASSEMBLYMAN'S IDEA

He Files Declaration of Intention to Run for Seat in Congress, Whose Upper Branch He Says is Like the English House of Lords, Useless

United Press Service
 SALEM, Feb. 9.—Abolition of the United States senate is the prominent plank contained in the platform of Ralph C. Clyde of Portland and member of the state house of representatives, who filed his declaration of intention of becoming a candidate on the republican ticket for congress from the Third Congressional district.

Clyde says the senate is like the house of lords, and is useless.

He declares himself in favor of government ownership of all public utilities and government ownership of Alaska coal mines.

A BALD-HEADED WOMAN.

Shorn of Her Crown of Beauty, Loss in Love and Marriage.
 Hair is certainly most necessary to woman. Who could love and marry a bald-headed woman? What charms could one array to offset such a disadvantage?

A woman's goal is usually love and marriage. Her crowning glory is her hair. The loss of her hair mars her beauty, happiness, and success. Yet there are thousands of women who are neglecting or injuring their hair to such an extent that it is only a matter of time when it will be utterly ruined.

Many women destroy the beauty of their hair through thoughtlessness or ignorance of certain facts. They use curling irons over-heated, or to excess, which destroys the natural oil of the hair, causing it to split, break, and come out. They do not shampoo their hair often enough, or too often. They use soaps or preparations which contain ingredients positively harmful to the scalp and hair.

As a result of such treatment, dandruff is created, the hair becomes, loses color, falls out, and baldness commences, unless proper and prompt precautions are taken in time. Then again, microbes and certain diseases bring about unhealthy scalp and hair conditions.

Almost any woman may rid herself of dandruff and diseased scalp and hair if she will but use the right remedy. We have that remedy, and we will positively guarantee that it will either relieve dandruff and baldness or it will not cost the user anything.

That's a pretty broad statement, but we will back it and prove it with our own money. We will return your money if you do not find that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is an entirely satisfactory remedy that will promote hair growth and overcome scalp and hair troubles; that it will grow hair even on bald heads, unless all life in the hair roots has been extinguished, the follicles closed, and the scalp is glazed and shiny. It gets its name from the fact that it grows hair in 93 out of 100 cases, where it received a thoroughly hard, impartial, and practical test.

We want you to try Rexall "93" Hair Tonic at our risk. You surely cannot lose anything by doing so, while you have everything to gain. You had better think this over, and then come in and see us about this offer. You will be well repaid for your visit to our store. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, Star Drug Store.
