

SUPPLIED BY THE UNITED PRESS NEWS SERVICE

EVENING NEWSPAPERS PRINT THE NEWS, NOT HISTORY

Sixth Year—No. 1,698

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON, FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 16, 1912

Price, Five Cents

ALL ODD FELLOWS TO HAVE GOOD TIME

HONOR DEDICATION

CELEBRATE THE ANNIVERSARY OF REMOVAL TO NEW TEMPLE BY BANQUET AND PROGRAM ON SATURDAY NIGHT

At the Odd Fellows Temple tomorrow evening the members of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge No. 194, Klamath Lodge No. 127 and Ewauna Encampment No. 194, I. O. O. F., will celebrate the first anniversary of the dedication of their temple, which took place February 18, 1911, under the most impressive ceremonies ever held in this section for a similar occasion.

banquet, and those who are acquainted with their skill in this respect, as shown by the monthly banquets given by that lodge, need no guarantee for the success of that part of the evening's entertainment. Their regular banquets have received so much praise in the past that it is almost an impossibility for this poor scribe to prophesy what the coming feed will resemble, unless it be a small boy's dream of a Thanksgiving dinner.

The regular banquet room has been deemed too small to accommodate the diners of tomorrow evening, and tables will be set in the west hall, where the 300 guests will be accommodated at two tables.

MARCHO REMAINS FOR TREATMENT

MAN WHO HAD MERRY TIME WITH MOORE TWINS DOCTORING FOR KNIFE WOUNDS AND BLOOD POISONING

William Marcho, who had an encounter with the twin Moore brothers on Main street a couple of weeks ago, has been unable to return to his tent, owing to the need of staying here under a doctor's care for the wounds to his left arm inflicted by a knife used by one of his assailants.

HILL ROAD IN CALIFORNIA SEEMS LIKELY FROM THIS

Line From Los Angeles to San Francisco Files Incorporation Articles, Capital Being Placed at Twenty Million Dollars

LOS ANGELES, Feb. 16.—Articles of incorporation of the California Air Line railway, capitalized at $20,000,000, are on file here. The expressed object of the corporation is the construction of a railroad between Los Angeles and San Francisco. The incorporators are C. Elliott Craig, Glen Behymer and L. Gelfron, attorney; Ralph S. Twombly, a Pasadena capitalist, and Mrs. Leonora M. Thompson. A half million dollars of the capital stock has been paid in for immediate expenses.

NEWMAN FOLTZ CO. PLAYS HERE WEEK

WELL KNOWN WESTERN DRAMATIC ORGANIZATION TO APPEAR IN KLAMATH FALLS FOR ENGAGEMENT

A coming attraction at the Houston opera house the week commencing February 24 is the Newman-Foltz company, which is one of the best known and most popular dramatic organizations in the West. This is the fifth season for the big favorites, and they have built up a clientele of play-goers on the coast who look forward to the coming of the Newman-Foltz company with the most pleasurable anticipation.

BUILDINGS WILL BE CONSTRUCTED

THREE PROPOSED BY APPLICANTS TO COUNCIL FOR PERMITS, WHICH ARE GRANTED AND REQUESTED

Building permits were allowed by the council last night as follows: S. E. Owens, two green houses, 15 x 32 feet, both to cost about $600, on lots 11 and 12, block 58, Hot Springs addition.

BINGHAM'S SUIT AGAINST MAYOR GAYNOR COMING UP

Police Commissioner of New York City Alleges That Present Cudl of Metropolis Said Things About Him Unkind and Untrue

United Press Service
NEW YORK, Feb. 16.—General Theodore A. Bingham's $100,000 suit against Mayor Gaynor for alleged libel committed in a letter to Mayor McClellan is set for hearing today in the supreme court. General Bingham, at the time of the letter episode, was police commissioner of New York Mayor Gaynor, then a justice, is said to have criticized him severely for his action in the celebrated Duffy case.

VARIETY PEOPLE CHANGE DATES

TRAINED RAT SHOW AND COBRA DANSEUSE GO TO MERRILL AND MILKAN MAN LEAVES FALLS CITY

Cameron's entertainer did not finish the week at the Houston opera house, but concluded their engagement there Wednesday night, the show not being of sufficient merit to suit Manager John V. Houston. The trained animal exhibit of 48 mice and rats, mostly invisible, and Miss Albertine, Cleopatra cobra dancer, who dallied with live snakes during her teraphorean diversion, went to Merrill to play a short engagement, while Guerin, the man who slips from the milk can without revealing the means, slipped from Klamath Falls for other parts.

VISCOUNT CHINDA LANDS ON CHINYO MARU CRAFT

United Press Service SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 16.—Viscount Chinda, the new Japanese ambassador, has arrived here on the Chinyo Maru. He remains here a couple of days. He will be privately entertained.

FIRE ON OLD GLORY IS CHARGED AGAINST CHINESE

Woman Missionary Returned From Celestial Empire Declares That Brigands in Interior of Chinese Empire Shot at American Flag

SAN BERNARDINO, Calif., Feb. 16.—Mrs. Roy R. Service, who is in San Bernardino after two years as a missionary in China with her husband, who was famous as a California university athlete, declares that the Chinese brigands in the interior on several occasions fired on the American flag when her party was fleeing to the coast.

Odd Fellows Tonight

Klamath Lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting tonight. Candidates are to be initiated into the mysteries of the second degree, and some nice work is promised by the team by Captain Sholl.

Christian Women's Apron Sale

The ladies of the Christian church will conduct an apron sale with their regular cooking sale tomorrow at the Kandy Kitchen.

WATER REFORMS CONGRESS ASKS

IRRIGATION CONVENTION INDUCED TO REPORT FAVORABLY ON PROPOSITIONS WATER USERS WANT

When Abel Ady, president of the Klamath Water Users' Association, went to Chicago in December as the delegate to the Federated Water Users convention from that body, at its expense, he stayed a week overtime at his own expense in order to do some missionary work for reformed methods in irrigation matters at the Nineteenth National Irrigation congress.

CITY SAFE FROM SUIT OVER CANAL

GIVES GOVERNMENT ASSURANCE THAT IT WILL NOT AGAIN TRIFLE WITH CALM COURSE OF ANKENY STREAM

No suit against the city will result from the obstruction placed in the Ankeny canal when the city council health committee was making its crusade for a cleaner city to keep down typhoid fever. The municipality has promised to be good, and not offend in the same way again, so that the government lawyers will not go ahead with proceedings. Official notice of the removal of the construction, which was done by stealth a month or more since, was sent by City Attorney Horace M. Manning to the Portland legal representatives of the government.

CITY ATTORNEY WILL MEND TITLE

TO COMMISSION FORM OF CHARTER IN ORDINANCE, AND THEN PRESENT IT TO COUNCIL FOR ACTION

Advocates of the commission form of government last night at the council meeting were present in considerable force. W. O. Smith, speaking for them, asked Mayor Fred T. Sanderson and the members of the city administrative body what action, if any, the council desired to take, in view of the title being faulty. It appears that the title appears in the petition, but not in the body of the proposed charter amendment.

ONE MONTH OF WORK IS NEEDED ON CANAL

THAT MUCH WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE FULL FLOW FROM LOST TO KLAMATH CAN BE CARED FOR

It will be about a month's work under fairly favorable conditions in order to get into shape the canal which will carry water from Lost River to the Klamath River. The contractor at work on the east end of the canal is J. W. Jory, who has but a comparatively small stretch of digging to finish. Near the west end, about a mile and a half of finishing work remains to be done by Contractor W. H. Mason. Mason is not doing much work just now on account of the weather, and would like fairly well to see a respite from rain and dampness, so he might more readily get his work in shape.

ANNIVERSARY OF MAINE DISASTER OBSERVED

Start of Funeral Cortage Bringing Bodies of Victims From Cuban Capital to Be Buried in Arlington National Cemetery.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 16.—Yesterday was the fourteenth anniversary of the destruction of the battleship Maine in Havana harbor. The anniversary was marked by the starting of a funeral cortage from the Cuban capital, bringing the bodies recovered from the wreck to Washington for burial in Arlington National cemetery.

BEETS POTATOES AND OTHER "EATS"

THAT FARMS GROW WILL BE DISCUSSED BY MEETING OF FARMERS AND COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERS

This is to be a meeting for farmers, to meet with the membership of the club and exchange views as to the best means of promoting a better growth of potatoes, beets, grains and other agricultural products in Klamath county.

RIGHTS OF WAY ARE APPROVED

FOR SECOND UNIT LATERALS, SAVE FIVE—CHANCES SEEM GOOD FOR EARLY ADVERTISING FOR BIDS

About thirty of the thirty-five rights of way contracts for the second unit laterals in the reclamation work in Poe Valley, Nuss Lake and Griffiths lateral region have been approved at Washington and recorded. Project Engineer W. W. Patch of the local project stated this morning that as soon as the other five are sanctioned by the Washington officials advertising for bids for the work would be printed.

ENGINEER AWAY FROM COUNCIL

MEETING, WHICH FORMS BASIS OF VERBAL REMONSTRANCE BY FIRST WARD MEMBER, WHO WANTS HIM ON HAND

When Councilman G. W. White brought up last night before the city's governors the question of the city's need of a cement tester, City Engineer Don J. Zumwalt was not present to give an explanation of what should be had.

BOOSTERS ARRIVE AND POSSES BURG

EUGENE DELEGATION COMES, SINGS IN RAIN FOR PURE JOY OF LIVING, RATH BANQUET AND HAS A GENERAL GOOD TIME

When the Eugene Boosters arrived here about 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday they stood in the rain at the depot to sing a boost for Klamath Falls and themselves, a sort of outburst of felicitation over the assurance of the N-tion-Klamath Falls cutoff. At the station they were met by Secretary Caleb T. Oliver of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce and others, and in the evening they were tendered a banquet at the White Pelican hotel, which was presided over by Judge Henry L. Benson. President M. J. Durvae of the Eugene Commercial Club responded to the toastmaster's welcoming remarks, after which the Eugene quartet sang. E. S. Rolfe spoke on Eugene as a distributing center, while others who spoke briefly included Dell V. Kuykendall, W. A. Deisell, Samuel Evans, C. S. Williams, L. L. Lewis and Alexander Martin Jr.

BOOSTERS ARRIVE AND POSSES BURG

M. G. Wilkins. "I am in favor of letting every man, woman and child vote for the commission form of government, if they want to, for the greatest good to the greatest number. The will of the people must and shall prevail."

Councilman G. W. White made a motion that the city attorney be instructed to draft the ordinance correcting the title defect and present it to the council, which motion prevailed without a dissenting vote.

BEETS POTATOES AND OTHER "EATS"

THAT FARMS GROW WILL BE DISCUSSED BY MEETING OF FARMERS AND COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERS

Tomorrow at 2 o'clock in the old First National banking room, at Fourth and Main streets, there will be held a meeting under the auspices of the Klamath Falls Commercial Club, for which a call has been issued by Secretary C. P. Stewart.

ENGINEER AWAY FROM COUNCIL

MEETING, WHICH FORMS BASIS OF VERBAL REMONSTRANCE BY FIRST WARD MEMBER, WHO WANTS HIM ON HAND

The city engineer's salary is $2,000 per year, the contract to run until June 1st.

ONE MONTH OF WORK IS NEEDED ON CANAL

THAT MUCH WILL BE NECESSARY BEFORE FULL FLOW FROM LOST TO KLAMATH CAN BE CARED FOR

Water has been flowing over the dam since a month ago yesterday.

BOOSTERS ARRIVE AND POSSES BURG

EUGENE DELEGATION COMES, SINGS IN RAIN FOR PURE JOY OF LIVING, RATH BANQUET AND HAS A GENERAL GOOD TIME

When the Eugene Boosters arrived here about 5 o'clock p. m. yesterday they stood in the rain at the depot to sing a boost for Klamath Falls and themselves, a sort of outburst of felicitation over the assurance of the N-tion-Klamath Falls cutoff. At the station they were met by Secretary Caleb T. Oliver of the Klamath Chamber of Commerce and others, and in the evening they were tendered a banquet at the White Pelican hotel, which was presided over by Judge Henry L. Benson. President M. J. Durvae of the Eugene Commercial Club responded to the toastmaster's welcoming remarks, after which the Eugene quartet sang. E. S. Rolfe spoke on Eugene as a distributing center, while others who spoke briefly included Dell V. Kuykendall, W. A. Deisell, Samuel Evans, C. S. Williams, L. L. Lewis and Alexander Martin Jr.

BEETS POTATOES AND OTHER "EATS"

THAT FARMS GROW WILL BE DISCUSSED BY MEETING OF FARMERS AND COMMERCIAL CLUB MEMBERS

Water has been flowing over the dam since a month ago yesterday.

RIGHTS OF WAY ARE APPROVED

FOR SECOND UNIT LATERALS, SAVE FIVE—CHANCES SEEM GOOD FOR EARLY ADVERTISING FOR BIDS

This work is an important part of that which is planned to be undertaken by the reclamation service here this summer.

ENGINEER AWAY FROM COUNCIL

MEETING, WHICH FORMS BASIS OF VERBAL REMONSTRANCE BY FIRST WARD MEMBER, WHO WANTS HIM ON HAND

The city engineer's salary is $2,000 per year, the contract to run until June 1st.

BOOSTERS ARRIVE AND POSSES BURG

EUGENE DELEGATION COMES, SINGS IN RAIN FOR PURE JOY OF LIVING, RATH BANQUET AND HAS A GENERAL GOOD TIME

Water has been flowing over the dam since a month ago yesterday.