PRESIDENT'S WORK TOO LITTLE KNOWN

Study of Taft Administration Shows Much of Value Has Been Done.

Savagely attacked by members of his own party as no president has been since Cleveland, President Taft has held the belief that his work in constructive statesmanship should speak for itself as a complete refutation of these charges and that no explanations were necessary. In the long run wrongs right themselves, but in the past year the attacks of extremists in both parties have been so unreasonable that the administration side must be considered before any fair man can form his opinion of President Taft's work.

He could have accomplished much more beneficial legislation had it not room house, large lot, one block been for factions in his own party from Catholic church.
