

SKATING PARTY PROVES SUCCESS

NOVELTY AT PAVILION IN SHAPES OF INSTRUCTRESS PROVES SUCCESSFUL AND HELPFUL TO NOVICES

The skating party at the Pavilion last night was a success in every way. Many roller skate devotees were on hand to whirl around on the little rollers. The instructresses were quite a novelty on the program and the manner in which they handled the crowd was rather surprising to many. Those who were not able to guide themselves were ably assisted in every way.

A grand march took place during the course of the evening and proved enjoyable to participants and onlookers. In fact, the skating party was a pronounced success in every respect. A number of other such affairs will probably be arranged for in the near future.

SINGING CLASS IN HIGH SCHOOL

A chorus class is being organized at the high school to encourage familiarity with songs that are to be rendered on different occasions. It will also give those who are willing and have good voices a chance to show what they can do. A large number have volunteered to join, and it is hoped to make it a strong body. There has not been any chance heretofore this year to organize a musical club as many other school activities have taken up the time of the students. Principal Faught is the prime mover in the effort.

Fish and game licenses were issued to the following from County Clerk Charles R. De Lap's office: Joe O'Brien, Aldo West, E. Hardenbrook, C. L. Harvey, A. A. Jamison, Steve Hetro, F. D. Goinbach, Chris Connolly, J. C. North, Earl Walker, J. W. Hilton and W. J. Evans.

Ladies' Aid Society of M. E. church meets at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow with Mrs. C. V. Fisher, and members are urged to take their fancy work with them.

DISCUSS ALL CANDIDATES IS PLAN OF LA FOLLETTE

Does Not Intend Personal Attack, Saying Issue Is Not Whether He Is to Be an Aspirant, But Rights of Men to Evade Oppression

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Flat declaration that he will discuss the records of all presidential candidates, including President Taft and Theodore Roosevelt, was made here today by Senator Robert La Follette of Wisconsin in answer to a report that he planned a direct attack on Roosevelt. After asserting that a discussion of the record of the candidate could not be distorted into meaning an attack, the Wisconsin senator said:

"It is not important to the public whether I become a candidate. The issue of the campaign is the right of every individual, of the farmer, the worker and every man paying tribute to free himself lawfully from unjust exactions of the tariff, railroads, trusts and the money power controlling capital and credit and from every other form of oppression by special privilege. "In the presence of these problems, personal attacks on candidates have no place. But the exact record of each candidate is just as important as it may be more important than his present declarations. Therefore it is necessary during the campaign to discuss the records of all candidates as well as the remedies they propose with which to correct existing social and political evils. But such a discussion cannot be distorted into meaning a personal attack on the candidate."

POLSON IS FINED FOR CONTEMPT

Joseph Polson was fined $25 in circuit court this afternoon by Judge Henry L. Benson for contempt of court. Polson was in charge of the Erickson & Peterson Camp No. 5 during the winter, and was wanted as a witness for the state in the Faulder murder case. According to the evidence adduced the subpoena was served on him March 5, although he did not get to court until March 9, after the evidence in the case was closed and Assistant District Attorney Chas. J. Ferguson was making the closing address to the jury.

Polson said today that he could not get here any sooner. He paid the fine. He was arrested by Sheriff William B. Barnes on a bench warrant issued by Judge Benson when he failed to show up after being subpoenaed. The place where he was located was forty-four miles above the city and in the neighborhood of the Williamson River.

PERPETUAL PEACE FIXED AMONG CHINESE TONGS

How Which Has Existed Among the Celestial Societies in Golden Gate Cities Forced to Close by Consul-General in Unique Manner

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—Notices bearing the seals of all the tongs and declaring that a perpetual peace agreement had been made between them have been posted on the walls of Chinatown, thus bringing to an end the recent murderous fight between the Hip Sing, Hop Sing, Sin Suey Ying and Suey Sing societies.

While a truce has been in effect during the recent Chinese new year's celebration, every indication pointed to a renewal of hostilities until the consul general took a hand.

The mass of residents in the Oriental quarter, especially the merchants, wanted peace. The ultimatum of Chief White that a police barricade would be thrown around the disturbed section and all fighters caught brandishing pistols would be shot on sight, also had its effect on the tong leaders.

Calling representatives of the warring tongs to a conference in the meeting room of the Six Companies, the consul announced that none would leave the place until peace had been signed. At his direction a cordon of police was thrown about the building. At the end of three hours the highbinders gave in.

An equitable settlement of the dispute will be formulated by the consul.

INSPEK FILES TARIFF BUT NOT VERY SMILINGLY

Order of Railroad Commission for Fifth Reduction for Long Distance Hauls in State Obeyed by Company, Which Will Contest

SALEM, March 13.—By filing a long distance tariff under protest today the Southern Pacific signified its intention of contesting the order recently made by the railroad commission making the deduction of 20 per cent for the long distance tariff on all railroads in the state. The company failed to show any inclination to file any tariff, and the present tariff was filed only after the commission served notice to begin action against the company unless it was filed at once.

The Oregon-Washington railroad company, through filing a new tariff in compliance with the order, has asked for a rehearing. The only road not objecting is the Corvallis & Eastern, where the passenger rates were reduced.

A. G. Cotton of Portland complained to the commission that the trains from the East on the Oregon-Washington lines are from one to five hours late, and the commission will investigate.

SKIN GAME OFFICIALLY APPROVED BY UNCLE SAM

Government, in Back-to-Farm Tract, Tells that Striped Kitty Is Profitable If Raised on Farms as Business Enterprise

WASHINGTON, March 13.—Uncle Sam is backing a "skin game," the Department of Agriculture announced today.

Raising skunk skins on exclusive skunk "farms" is suggested by the government in a bulletin boasting the "back-to-the-farm" movement. It says there is a profit in black skunk skins.

"Skunk" is the official name given by the department. It includes "pole-cat" and "striped kitty" in telling how to be a boss skunk farmer. How to make a most thorough process of skunk farming is explained in detail in the official bulletin. It says "antipathy of neighbors" has caused failure in raising skunks in the past. The department only regrets to tell what uniform a skunk farmer should wear and what he should do with his clothes after raising his crop of skunks.

Skunks are natural cannibals, the department experts say. So skunk farmers are advised to feed the animals meat, and also green corn, clover, bread and tomatoes. Salt should not be given the skunks.

Every 50 skunks should have an acre of ground, the department bulletin avers. The farm should also be isolated far from neighbors. Wire netting should fence the farm and be buried underground several feet, with a "hang-over" of wire on top to prevent the animals escaping by digging out or crawling over. The federal skunk experts say the animals breed once a year in the spring and mature in December.
