Money Invested In Home Brings You Real Rewards

that cannot be measured alone in dollars and cents. There's satisfaction in knowing you have a home when possibly all other investments fail—it gives you a feeling of security and demands the recognition of your fellow townsmen, because by building you show your faith in the future of the community. And every community is known by its deeds. You can help and at the same time help yourself. A home investment is always the most meritorious, and loss is less likely because you are dealing in values you understand and with people you know. We have supplied the lumber for the homes of many of your friends who are now on the road to success, and want to talk with you whenever you are ready.

LORELLA LOCALS

The quarterly meeting of the Lorella Methodist church will be held at the Lorella school house on the evening of April 12th, the district superintendent presiding.

Mrs. B. F. Abaloose left recently for Phoenix, Ariz., to remain for a period with relatives at that place. Mrs. Abaloose has been in ill health for some time, and it is hoped the change will be of benefit to her.

An event of great theatrical interest was the dramatic production of the Noah's Ark episode presented by Winnard & Fleet recently in the large duck natatorium here, sometimes known as the swamp. In the absence of an ark a load of hay and six horses were used, and although the flood waters only reached waist deep on a horse, the play was well staged and considerable talent displayed. Following is the cast of characters and synopsis of the play:

Noah H. E. Winnard
Ham F. E. Fleet
Japheth J. Findley
(There was no "Sham" about it.)

Act I—Launching of Ark with Noah at the helm. Adhering of Ark to mud. Recitation of last Sunday's golden text in nine languages by Noah; curtain is drawn hastily over first act.

Act II—Sudden inspiration of lead team to act as Noah's ravens and fly in search of land. Masterly imitation of a frog, pelican and Marathon racer by Ham in recovery of team.

Act III—Water polo scene between Noah, Ham and Japheth in attaching power to stern of Ark and getting back to starting point—a three hour act.

Act IV—Relaunching of Ark and safe voyage to Mt. Ararat.
Act V—Tableau: Dream scene of Noah and cast of good graded road across swamp.

Judge Worden was in the valley April 9th, and held a road meeting at the Lorella school house. As several new roads are under discussion there was a good number of ranchers present, and a great deal of interest manifested.

M. L. Anderson has just finished seeding quite a large tract to alfalfa. This, though comparatively a new crop for this locality, gives promise of becoming the staple crop. T. F. Foggs also has prepared a fine seed bed for the purpose of sowing alfalfa.

Miss Lou Bussey and Douglas Bussey visited Pine Grove last Saturday to attend a social at that place.

Mr. Henry Haines is slowly recovering from his severe illness.
