Tomorrow is circus day, and the small boy's star will be in its ascendancy. The coming of the Al G.
Barnes big three ring wild animal circus is eliciting a great deal of interest, not only among the small boys, but among the grown ups, too.
For of course papa and mamma will go along just to carry the little ones and "show" them the animals.

The Al G. Barnes circus is the only tenting aggregation that has ever spread its white tops in Klamath Falls. All other circuses while in this neighborhood have passed up the city because of the excessive charges of the railroads to haul the heavy circus trains into the city. So large were the crowds last year that three separate and complete performances were necessary to accommodate the people. This year the seating capacity of the big top has been doubled, and the circus management assures the public that there will be ample accommodations for everyone.

Three circus trains bearing thirty-two specially constructed railroad cars, 70 feet long, will arrive in Klamath Falls early Saturday morning. Aboard will be the paraphernalia of the Al G. Barnes circus. As quickly as the cars are parked on the railroad siding in the Southern Pacific yards the work of unloading will begin.

Few people are familiar with the scope and magnitude of a great circus. With the Al G. Barnes shows there are carried 400 working men, trainers, performers and members of the executive staff.

With the show is carried a regular ordained minister of the gospel, the Rev. Cadesmas Pope, who looks after the spiritual wants of the circus people. There are also two veterinary surgeons, a physician, a dentist, a lawyer, a mail man, four blacksmiths and half a dozen carpenters.

To the ordinary person the big cook tent of the Al G. Barnes circus probably interests most. Every day 1,200 meals are served to the 400 employees of the show. For the dinner machine is carried with the show that slices bread. The operator simply inserts a loaf and then turns a crank.

The Al G. Barnes circus is today one of the largest tented aggregations in the world. Its growth has been prodigious. About the show is no graft in any form. Honesty was the word on which the show was founded. Over them is a skilled chef, who at one time attended the culinary department of a metropolitan hotel. In preparing the meals the showmen must use all haste possible. Every time saving device known is utilized. For instance, a founded some twenty odd years ago.
Today it is the peer of all shows.

Skilled detectives are carried to see that the patrons of the show do not fall prey to sharks and crooks. With some circuses, even several years ago, the ticket sellers were paid no salaries. All they got was what they sweated the patrons out of, and that was a plenty.

There is a popular misapprehension regarding the profits of the circus business. The expenses of the Al G. Barnes circus for a single day total $2,200. A moment's calculation shows how important it is that both the afternoon and night house is well attended, or there will be a deficit. Many times the sole profit of a circus is derived from the sale of peanuts, balloons, lemonade and other knickknacks.

Headed by four trumpeting military bands, the monster pageant of the Al G. Barnes circus will leave the show grounds at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning. All the principal downtown streets will be passed through. The parade of the Al G.
Barnes circus, like everything else, is all new this year. Hundreds of thousands of dollars were expended during the past winter in building costly parade chariots and dens to house the animals.

Following the parade a series of free exhibitions will be given on the show grounds. The doors to the big show will be opened at 1 and 7 p. m., the performances will be given one hour later. One price of admission will carry the bearer all the way through the big show. The Al G.
Barnes circus is the only tented aggregation that will be in the neighborhood this season.

United Press Service PORTLAND, April 19.—At the state primaries today the voters of Oregon will decide whether a man can be elected United States senator without appealing to the voters of his state, or even going within its borders before election, in the case of Jonathan Bourne Jr., who seeks re-election without having made any attempt at a campaign either in person or by proxy. Bourne's opponent is putting up a hot fight, and a close vote is predicted.

ist, is searching for the thieves who "borrowed" his beautiful new $2,500

IT GROWS HAIR.

Here Are Facts We Want You to Know
at Our Risk.
Marvelous as it may seem, Rexall "88" Hair Tonic has grown hair on heads that were once bald. Of course, in none of these cases were the hair roots dead, nor had the scalp taken on a glazed, shiny appearance.
Rexall "88" Hair Tonic acts scientifically, destroying the germs which are usually responsible for baldness.
It penetrates to the roots of the hair, stimulating and nourishing them. It is a most pleasant toilet requisite, is delicately perfumed, and will not gum or permanently stain the hair.

We want you to get a bottle of Rex all "88" Hair Tonic and use it as directed. If it does not relieve scalp irritation, remove dandruff, prevent the hair from falling out and promote an increased growth of hair, and inevitably give entire satisfaction, simply come back and tell us, and without question or hesitancy we will hand back to you every penny you paid us for it. Two sizes, 50c and $1.00. Sold only at our store—the Rexall Store The Star Drug Store.
