

DRYAN DIFFERS WITH ROOSEVELT

imperialism. I am opposed to imperialism, and believe that the holding of colonies is antagonistic to the principles of a republic.

Sixth—Mr. Roosevelt is Hamiltonian in his ideas on government, believing in a highly centralized organization. I am Jeffersonian, believing that the reserved rights of the states should be preserved and protected, on the theory that the people can decide best those questions with which they are most familiar, and in which they have largest interests.

Questions Upon Which Mr. Roosevelt and I Now Agree

There are a number of questions upon which Mr. Roosevelt and I have differed in the past, but upon which we now agree.

First—We have differed upon the election of senators by the people. I began this reform twenty-two years ago, and secured an endorsement of it in our national platform in 1900. Mr. Roosevelt, though president for seven and a half years after 1900, never referred to the popular election of senators in a message to congress or in a public speech until about two years ago.

Second—I have been advocating an income tax for many years. He began towards the close of his second administration.

Third—I have for a number of years advocated publicity before election as to campaign contributions, and I secured the endorsement of the reform in the Denver platform of 1908. Mr. Roosevelt, at that time, opposed publicity before the election. He has since come around to the advocacy of publicity before election.

Fourth—I have favored the initiative and referendum for sixteen years. He has opposed both until within the last two years.

Fifth—We both believe in the primary. I cannot fix the date when he first began to advocate it. I have been advocating it for a number of years.

Sixth—We both believe that there is a "Wall street influence," and that there are subsidized newspapers, but I discovered both many years before he did.

In differing from men I do not often find it necessary to question their motives. Differences of opinion on political questions can usually be accounted for by differences in bias, except when accounted for by difference in information and interest. The most fundamental bias found in man is the bias toward aristocracy on the one hand, towards democracy on the other. Hamilton had the aristocratic bias, Jefferson the democratic bias. They were equally honest, Hamilton in distrusting the people, Jefferson in trusting them.

Until within a few years there has been nothing in Mr. Roosevelt's speeches to indicate agreement with Jefferson in this respect. I have lately been gratified to note some change in him, but I am not yet able to judge how complete it is or how extensive an application he would not be willing to make of Jeffersonian principles.

Dezell Cannot Accept
Since the report of the meeting of the Chautauqua Association was given to the Herald and the proceedings put in type, Mr. Dezell who was elected president of the association, has found that it will be impossible for him to serve in that capacity, and another presiding officer will necessarily have to be elected.

Social Events of the Week

CHAUTAUQUA LENDS CHARMS TO SOCIAL DOINGS FOR THE WEEK—CARDS AND TEAS PLAY THEIR PART, AND THE CIVIC LEAGUE COMES OUT AS ENTERTAINER

Chautauqua has filled the week with music and lectures. Education and diversions have walked hand in hand, and while society has sipped at the one and smiled at the other, the allurements of cards, teas and dancing have lain mostly in abeyance.

Our most youthful members of society took their inning on Tuesday afternoon from 2 to 5, at the home of Mrs. Leslie Rogers. Just three years ago on the 4th of June, Miss Zepha Rogers first opened her eyes to this bright world, and little did she think at that tender age that when the world had traveled only three times fifty-two weeks, it would find her on the lawn singing "Ring-around-a-Rosey" and "Marching Under London Bridge," or asking her tiny neighbor "Who has the thimble," and yet this is exactly what happened. Mrs. Rogers and her sister, Mrs. Cofer, assisted in these charming games, and later, when the party-clothes were snugly tied, in napkins, everybody had ice cream and dear little cakes and candy, and such other good things as are craved by baby appetites. Margaret Cummings, Ethel Carlston, Ruth De Lap, Helen North, Catherine Hamaker, Constance Schallock, Dorothy Dunham, Jean Rogers, John Dunham, Rollen Cofer, Innes Roberts, Wilbur Harris, Ballard and Charles Stahlman, Freddy Goeller, all these were at the party.

The White Pelican hotel was the scene of delightful social functions on both Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The first was an entertainment partaking of music and literature, offered by the members of the Chautauqua organization now here. Every number bespoke a high order of excellence and ability, as was fully attested by the enthusiasm and applause, and also by the expressed wish that these admirable entertainers would again visit Klamath Falls.

The following evening the guests and management of the hotel threw open its doors to a gay dancing party. The spacious dining room was cleared, and on its excellent floor, to the inspiring strains of the White Pelican orchestra, many nimble feet kept time. So great was the success of this party that the management has decided on semi-monthly dances during the remainder of the summer.

This afternoon Mrs. Geo. I. Wright was hostess to the "500" Club, who, however, have turned their affections, for the time being, to bridge. A collation will be served and a prize offered to the holder of the highest score, who will be one among the following: Mesdames C. P. Mason, Oscar Shive, Chas. Roberts, G. W. White, Clay Beattie, E. B. Hall, H. F. Murdock, F. J. Williams and Geo. Merryman.

On Friday afternoon Mrs. Rufus Moore entertained in honor of Mrs. Charles S. Moore, who has just returned home from a winter in Southern California. Sixteen of Mrs. Moore's friends gathered for a game of "500," Mrs. Zumwalt winning the first prize and Mrs. Hampton the consolation. Mrs. Moore was presented with the guest prize. Refreshments were served after the game. The following were among the bidden: Mes-

James C. S. Moore, E. J. Murray, Silas Obenchain, D. J. Zumwalt, E. W. Gowen, E. R. Reames, Helen Marks, R. M. Richardson, I. Jay Knapp, Geo. T. Baldwin, I. D. Applegate, C. F. Stone, W. O. Smith, W. S. Wiley, L. Gerber, White, F. Ward, J. T. Henley, H. F. Murdock, F. E. Ankeny, R. E. Cantrall, Thos. Hampton, L. F. Willis, H. L. Benson, W. E. Faught, McClure, Miss McCurdy, Miss Baldwin and Miss McClure.

Mrs. R. C. Spink was hostess to the Sewing Circle on Wednesday afternoon from 2:30 to 5. The usual needlework with light talk and refreshments filled the intervening hours.

Word has come from San Francisco that Miss Opal Brown, who numbers so many in our city as her friends, was married at her mother's home on June 4. The happy groom is Mr. Frank Rogers of Portland, where the couple will make their future home.

The Ladies Bridge Club was entertained this afternoon by Mrs. W. O. Smith at her home on Conger avenue. The rooms were decorated with native wild flowers. Refreshments were served to the following: Mesdames E. R. Reames, Marks, D. J. Zumwalt, E. J. Murray, C. H. Underwood, F. H. Mills, C. E. Hogue, C. F. Stone, Geo. Noland, R. St. Geo. Bishop, W. S. Fish and Miss Baldwin.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Rounsevell and daughters left by auto on Thursday for New Pine Creek, where they will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Maguire and children have reached Klamath Falls to make it their home. For the summer they will be settled in the Rounsevell home on the corner of 8th and Lincoln.

Mrs. R. C. Spink and family expect to leave the middle of the coming week for "Idlerest" on Spring Creek. They have before them the prospects of a lovely summer, and to that end they are taking Miss Margaret Worden as their guest.

The Civic League has issued invitations for a whist party, to be given at the Hotel Baldwin on next Wednesday evening. Under the auspices of the committee in charge, with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall as hosts, it cannot be other than an assured success. With the knowledge that our city is going to be not only the most beautiful, but also the most healthful and attractive place in Oregon, the work will appeal to all lovers of beauty and health. Several other entertainments will be offered from time to time, and any whose invitations may have been lost in the mail will confer a favor by sending their names to Mrs. E. B. Hall at the Baldwin hotel.

Mrs. B. St. Geo. Bishop and children have returned from Globe, Ariz., where they spent the winter months with relatives. They have gone to their summer home at "The Cedars," near Pelican Bay.

The Christian Woman's Board of Missions of the Christian church held an open air meeting at the home of Mrs. Sheets, west of the river, Friday afternoon, June 7. Several very interesting papers and talks on Canada Missions were enjoyed. A special feature of the program was a talk on Chinese Missions by Mrs. Shaw, a returned missionary. After the program dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Those present were Mesdames Finnell, A. Bainter, John Sandern, Davenport, Frank Clark, Seehorn, Chas. House, Miller, Willis, Shaw, Geo. Wirts, R. H. Dunbar, Donaldson, Kanatser, Misner, E. M. Flinn, E. L. Elliott, Stearns, Bice and Sheets.

YOU, MR. BUYER

-Would you buy a 640 acre ranch with 320 inches of free water at thirty one dollars and twenty five cents per acre, a small cash payment and balance on very long time at 6 per cent.

-This place is only one half mile from side track on the Southern Pacific. Three miles from store, school and depot. A saw mill on the place takes everything raised. Five acres of bearing apples and small fruit. Two hundred acres of timothy and clover meadow. New eight room house, new bunk house and root cellar.

-This is one of the grandest places in this neck of the woods and is for sale for the reason that the owner is getting along in years and having made a fortune on this very ranch, wishes to retire. As he has a comfortable bank balance he is not particular about a large cash payment..
