These eight young people discussed house-keeping in all its detail, over the joys of the chafing dish, and decided that two could keep house not only much more economically, but much, much more happily than one.

Friday proved a busy day. The Art Needlework Club accepted an invitation extended by Mrs. Phillips to spend the afternoon at her ranch on the Merrill road. The very word ranch breathes hospitality, as was fully emphasized when some eighteen ladies sat down at a table laden with the good things of a farm. After luncheon there was fancy work and chat, and much to see of farm life. A few mere men slipped into this party as necessary chauffeurs. Mr. G. W. White driving his machine with Mrs. White, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Slough and Mrs. Campbell. Mr. J. F. Goeller drove Mrs. Goeller, Mrs. Cummings, Mrs. Wattenburg and Mrs. Newnam. Mr. S. T. Summers drove Mrs. Summers, Mrs. Hogue, Mrs. Mason and Mrs. Stubblefield. Mrs. Dunbar, with Mrs. Wirtz and Mrs. Faught with Mrs. Wilson, drove their own horses.

The 1912 Needle Club met at the home of Mrs. John Schallack the same afternoon. Refreshments were served to the following members: Mesdames Fred Melhale, W. T. Shives, Frank Ward, Ida Fink and J. J. Parker, Miss Wheeler and Miss Vernon.

The White Pelican hotel was the scene of an enjoyable dancing party on Friday evening, given by the Jiu-Yei Club, and under the able management of a committee composed of Mrs. I. Jay Knapp, Mrs. A. D. Miller, Mrs. Silas Obenchain and Mrs. C. O. Morgan. The party was admirably arranged in all its appointments, the music and the floor being excellent, the punch delectable and the company itself was of our best.

This afternoon Mrs. Geo. Noland entertains the Bridge Club. Her guests will be Mesdames F. W. Jennings, Helen Marks, E. R. Reames, W. O. Smith, E. J. Murray, D. J. Zumwalt, C. F. Stone, W. S. Fish, Hopkins, C. H. Underwood, F. H. Mills and C. Goodell.

Mrs. C. Goodell, whose home is in Seaside, Oregon, is here for the summer, visiting her daughter, Mrs. Geo. Noland.

Mrs. Frank Jennings reached Klamath Falls Thursday evening, and was welcomed by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Reames, as well as by a large circle of warm friends. Mrs. Jennings enjoyed a fine voyage, covering seven days, from her home in Maui, Hawaiian Islands, to San Francisco, and her purpose is to remain here till late summer.

On Monday morning last Mr. and Mrs. Fred Sanderson and little daughter, Dorothy, left for Ashland, to pay a visit to Mr. Sanderson's brother. Mrs. Sanderson expects to return home in a few days, but will depart shortly for a later visit in Portland, where Mr. Sanderson will join her.

Miss Gertrude Vernon is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Fred Schallack, for the summer. Miss Vernon's home is in Lakeview.

Mr. Claude Coseboom reached his 24th birthday last Monday, the 17th, which happy event was celebrated by a dinner given at his father's home.

One of the most attractive of our summer visitors is Miss Beatrice Cummings, who came from Alameda to visit her aunt, Mrs. E. B. Hall. She is having a beautiful visit, with jaunts to Fort Klamath and the Upper Lake, and parties and other social joys in town.

For Wednesday afternoon, coming, Mrs. C. E. Hogue has invited a swimming party to meet at the White Pelican hotel and enjoy the luxurious pool of the Hamman baths.

Miss Josephine Donegan has resigned as teacher of the summer school at Dorris, and has accepted a position in the assessor's office in this city.

Mrs. W. S. Wiley is enjoying the visit of her mother, who has come from Waskia, D. C., to spend the summer.

Mrs. W. H. North gave a shower at her home, Fifth and Washington streets Saturday afternoon, June 15, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. R. A. Atherton, who was the recipient of many dainty and appropriate gifts. The home was tastefully decorated with potted plants and flowers.
