

Social Events of the Week

AN INNOVATION WAS THE AFFAIR OF MRS. C. E. HOGUE. THE WHITE PELICAN IS THE SCENE OF SEVERAL INTERESTING SOCIAL EVENTS

"And what is so rare as a day in June? Then, if ever, come perfect days."

Mr. Lowell must have had in mind Massachusetts June days where at sea level the sun sheds rays over a land green with the tender green of early summer, warming the fruit trees with their yield of swelling fruit and yellowing the fields with the harvest soon to be. And these June days of which he sings are not unrelated to those that are given us, albeit that with our 4,200 feet there is often a chill that rightly belongs to May—but Nature daily smiles and our little world is glad.

Mrs. Fred Schallack gave pleasure to a party of friends on Monday evening, when she welcomed them to her home for a game of whist. Five card tables were arranged in her spacious rooms, and at the close of the evening refreshments were served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Maehl, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Melhase, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mr. and Mrs. John Schallack, Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Clarke, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, Mrs. Mary Jackson, Mrs. Wm. Whitlock, Miss Vernon, Mr. Hunter Savidge and Mr. Johnson.

Tuesday, the second of the "Tuesday Evening" dances was given at the White Pelican hotel. This was one of the most successful parties ever given under the management. The dancing floor was crowded up to a late hour, and the lobby was animated with a large number of visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Paul Johnson gave a delightful dinner the same evening to a little coterie of young people, who afterwards adjourned to the dance. Miss Dee, Miss Marshall, Miss Stowe, Mr. Innes, Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Mickle were the diners.

The White Pelican was also the scene of a party on Wednesday afternoon, when Mrs. C. E. Hogue invited her friends for a little innovation. The guests assembled in the pool room of the Hamman baths, and there enjoyed a swim in the fine warm water from the hot springs. Following this there was a game of "500" in the club room adjoining, and then all partook of an excellent Dutch lunch. Those participating were: Mrs. Cole, Mrs. Mack, Mrs. W. O. Smith, Mrs. Voorhees, Mrs. Zumwalt, Mrs. Will Baldwin, Mrs. Burge Mason, Mrs. Underwood.

Complimenting Mrs. H. St. Geo. Bishop, a number of her old friends were invited by Mrs. George Noland for a cup of tea and reminiscences on Tuesday afternoon.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church met at the home of Mrs. W. A. Delsel on Crescent avenue on Thursday afternoon at 2:30. Some eighteen members were in attendance and business of importance was discussed during the early part of the meeting. It was decided to continue the work of the society during the summer months, and various social as well as remunerative projects were given consideration. Ice cream and cake were served before the meeting adjourned.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall issued invitations for a Friday evening dance at the Baldwin hotel, Miss Beatrice Cummings, Mrs. Hall's niece, being the inspiration for the occasion. The large lobby, with its excellent floor, made an ideal place for dancing, and the music rendered by the orchestra of the Hall hotel was all that could be asked. Miss Cummings was the belle of the evening. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Percy Matt, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Galarneau, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Coseboom, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hamaker, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Willey, Mr. and Mrs. Whitman, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henry, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hurn, and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Farrell. Mrs. Frank Jennings, Mrs. Helen Marks, Mrs. C. E. Hogue, Mrs. L. Martin, Misses Beatrice Cummings, Mildred Wilson, French, Eckman, McLaughlin, Baldwin, Virgil, Wampler, Barnes and Williams, Messrs. Chas. Coombs, Joe Britt, Phil Sunnot, Walter Drenkel, H. W. Drenkel, Paul Drenkel, Chas. Baldwin, J. V. Johnson, W. B. Johnson, Herbert Barry, A. Stein, E. D. Ward, Arnold, Downing, Mehaffey, Galarneau, John Siemens, Loewe and Louis Meyers.

Mrs. Frank Ward opened her home this afternoon to an equal suffrage meeting. A large number of invitations have been sent out, and all women interested in the cause have been earnestly requested to attend.

Tonight at the rooms of the Jericho Club an open meeting will be held of all Odd Fellows and Rebekahs and their friends. Each member is privileged to ask two guests, and there will be ample entertainment offered in the way of cards, bowling and billiards.

Mrs. W. O. Smith will entertain this evening a group of friends whose husbands are attending lodge. These informal gatherings have come to be most enjoyable affairs, and tonight there will be the game of "500," a Dutch lunch and much gaiety.

On Sunday morning at a bright and early hour Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Shive, Miss Ruth White, Mr. Kirk White and Mr. Claude Coseboom will start by auto for a two days' fishing trip. Their destination is Spencer Creek, where the water is clear and fine, and the sunny tribe rises to any bait. They are taking with them only a light camp outfit, and will return some time Monday.

Invitations for cards in the names of Mrs. C. C. Hogue, Mrs. C. E. Hogue and Miss Faye Hogue, have been issued for Tuesday afternoon next, at half past two.

Miss Marian Doe from California has been visiting her sister, Mrs. W. Paul Johnson, for the past ten days.

Mr. and Mrs. Montgomery and two children from San Diego, Calif., have arrived in Klamath Falls. Mr. Montgomery is superintendent of the city schools in his home city. Mrs. Montgomery is a cousin of J. A. Maddox, and they will all spend the summer on Mr. Maddox's farm below Merrill.

Mrs. W. S. Fish is enjoying a visit from her sister, Miss Stowe, whose home is in Racine, Wis. Mrs. Hopkins, from the same city, is also a guest of Mrs. Fish.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hovey were registered at the White Pelican this week, and while here enjoyed the dance at the hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Griffith, from their charming inn at Eagle Ridge, have been spending a few days in town.

Mrs. R. I. Hammond, who has been in Portland for many months under medical treatment, returned to her home last Monday, much improved in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Moore, who have been temporarily domiciled at the White Pelican hotel, moved into their home on the West Side last week.

Mrs. F. M. White and two children will leave tomorrow morning for a summer visit with her parents near Coos Bay.

Mr. and Mrs. B. St. Geo. Bishop, who have been at the White Pelican for a weeks visit, have left for their country home, "The Cedars," on the Upper Lake.

A woman in the galleries almost put the convention out of business last night by throwing her shawl over the rails and completely covering the clock on the outside of the balcony. The convention literally "marked time" until a sergeant-at-arms uncovered the time piece.

Samuel Gompers, labor leader, objects strenuously to being touched by police or other officials. He was roughly shoved back from the door of the resolutions committee and told to "move on."

"Take your hands off!" yelled Gompers, in strident indignation. "Don't touch me! I'll move on, but you keep your hands off!"

"L" is the lettered designation of the room assigned to the resolutions committee.

"This sure is 'L,'" remarked a distinguished committeeman yesterday afternoon, as he mopped the perspiration and panted for air. The room is directly off the main floor, poorly ventilated, close and stuffy. Then, too, the committee has to shut the doors when the bands play.

Spring Creek Resort

OPENED FOR THE SEASON 1912

Spink's Camp on Spring Creek is now open. The camp is a complete tent city. It is furnished with all conveniences for pleasant camp life

This is the Only Resort on This Famous Trout Stream

To be assured accommodations at this camp, I advise early reservations. The camp is prepared to accommodate a limited number this season only.

This famous trout stream is so well known, especially among the expert fishermen of the Pacific Coast, I will not go into detail as to its many advantages. I will say the fishing, the water and its ideal location for a camp is unsurpassed in the United States.

Mosquitos are few and far between compared to other places of like nature in Oregon.

If you are undecided where to go to spend your outing or vacation, go to you will not regret it. Fine fishing and a good table guaranteed all.

To reach Spring Creek go via S. P. to Chiloquin which is 5 miles to Camp or the Upper Klamath Lake, Mail boat to Agency landing, from this point, six miles to camp.
