CITY COUNCIL HAS RATHER BUSY SESSION

Councilman Underwood was the only absentee at the regular meeting held last night.

Herman Force of the Warren Construction company informed the council that his company had been awarded the bonds in the amount of $16,000 for the deficits on the first, second and third paving units, and that they were ready to take the bonds, and requested that the council either order the bonds printed or authorize the company to have them printed. The council voted to authorize the company to have the bonds printed at the expense of the city.

A petition was read from James H. Wheeler and I. P. Taber, asking the transfer of the liquor license to the latter, which had previously been transferred from Arthur Livermore to J. H. Wheeler. The petition was granted.

C. C. Low, who has been mounted police for the past several years, tendered his resignation on account of private business. The resignation was accepted. Mr. Low is the republican candidate for sheriff.

Mayor Nicholas stated that he had temporarily appointed C. E. Meldrum as electrical inspector, and that he would make the appointment permanent if it was satisfactory to the council. On motion of Councilman Crisler, the appointment was confirmed. The electrical inspector receives his compensation in fees.

Councilman Savidge called up the petition, which was filed at a previous meeting, of the property owners of Shippington, asking for permission to resurvey the addition. A committee consisting of Savidge, Alford and Doty had been appointed to investigate the matter, and they reported in favor of permitting the survey and having the plats turned over to the city engineer for inspection and report to the council. Mayor Nicholas, with the advice of the city attorney, suggested that the records should show a written report from the committee, and asked them to make their report at the next meeting.

A petition was filed from the property owners on Esplanade, Bond and Broad streets, asking the appointment of E. C. Meyer as paving inspector. Mr. Meyer was appointed by the council.

A petition was received from residents of the Second ward, asking for a sidewalk on the southerly side of Washington street between Second and Fourth streets. It was referred to the street committee with power to act. Before the sidewalk can be ordered to be built an ordinance will have to be passed.

Another petition was also received from residents of the Second ward asking for the construction of a sewer from Third to Fourth streets, between High and Washington, so that they would be enabled to make connection. The petition was referred to the city engineer.

The petition of James M. Malone for appointment as plumbing and sewer inspector was placed on file.

An ordinance was introduced by Councilman Underwood for the purchase of a lot on Second street for the purpose of widening the street. It was referred to the street committee.

Harris & Co. have been awarded a contract for the construction of a sewer from Third to Fourth streets, between High and Washington, so that they would be enabled to make connection. The petition was referred to the city engineer.

The council voted to instruct the chief of police to order the filling of the canal on Second street stopped. This work is being done by the committee of citizens in charge of the Second street extension.

Cavalry Commandary U. D., will convene in special conclave Wednesday evening, July 17th, for the purpose of conferring the Order of the temple. All sojourning Knights Templars are cordially invited.

L. F. WILLITS, Recorder.
GEO. A. WALTON, N. C.

PEOPLE YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

MAYOR CAN'T SIDE-STEP SPEECH

Not the least of the worries of the reception committee having in charge the arrangements for the entertainment of the Portland Pathfinders' party is the fear that Mayor T. F. Nicholas will take to the woods and not be on hand to make a speech at the banquet, which has been arranged.

The mayor is one of the best single-handed talkers in this region, and gets along fine when discussing matters with friends and acquaintances, but the idea of making a speech to a number of outside talent has been particularly distasteful to him.

He was seen standing on the street this morning gazing longingly in the general direction of a shady spot on a shady creek, where it is known that the mayor knows that he are biting right now very freely.

But there are three men on the committee, and one of them happened to notice that expression on the city executive's genial countenance.

A hurry call was sent out, and the committee held a meeting. It was decided not to allow the mayor out of sight for a single instant until he was safely placed at the festive board at the White Pelican Hotel.

At a late hour this afternoon it was reported that the mayor had become resigned to his fate, and had composed a speech for the occasion which is calculated to make the visitors sit up and pay attention.

Mixing-Up

By Joe Bush

A well known business man, who requires a certain amount of spirits each day to remove the cobwebs from his thinking machinery, stepped into a Main street barroom the other day and spoke to the white frocked man behind the mahogany:

"I understand that this saloon is noted for the excellence of the Holland gin served," he said.

"Yes, sir," was the reply. "We have some very fine old Holland gin."

"Serve me a portion, please."

With apparent relish the business man consumed the drink.

"I understand that the saloon men of the city have agreed upon a uniform price of two drinks for 25 cents," said the customer.

"You are quite right."

"That being the case, you will accept this 10-cent piece in payment. I just paid the bartender at the White Pelican 15 cents for a drink."

Interlocutor—Gentlemen, be seated.

Ta-ta-tata.

Interlocutor—Good evening, Mr. Bones.

Bones—'Even', boss.

Interlocutor—How are you feeling this evening?

Bones—Ah's heerd how dem white folks carries on up dere in Portlan', an' now deys tryin' to fin' a path to die here place. Huh, who wouldn't be skeart?

BIRTH DECREASE BRINGS CONCERN TO GERMANS

United Press Service
BERLIN, July 16.—The German government is greatly concerned over the rapidly falling birthrates in Germany. The government report of France showing that the birth rate in France dropped over 34,000 last year caused somewhat of a shock to the Germans, and set them at work examining their own figures.

The ministry of the interior has just issued a circular to various authorities urging them to make a thorough investigation of the causes that are leading to the declining birth rate in Germany, and report to the ministry. The socialist organs attribute the decline to labor and industrial conditions, and the high cost of living and heavy taxes.

The declining birth rate is also causing the government to look more closely into the very high death rate among infants under one year, which prevails particularly in those sections of Germany where women are largely engaged in industrial and heavy farm labor.

CHINA IS REDUCING SIZE OF HER ARMY

United Press Service
PEKIN, July 16.—The government is engaged at present in reducing the Chinese army to four-tenths the number of men in arms at the height of the revolutionary struggle.

At the time they decided on the extent of the reduction the cabinet members did not know definitely, as no one in China knows anything definitely, what was the size of the military establishment to be reduced. It is estimated, however, that it totaled about 1,000,000 soldiers, and 600,000 are accordingly being discharged in batches of 10,000.

The number of troops from time to time, as the country is able to pay them, until a system of universal military service prevails.

The Ladies' Aid of the M.E. church will give a lawn social at the home of Dr. W. A. Leonard Thursday, July 18th.
