

"HANFORD COCKTAIL" IS WELL KNOWN HERE

LOCAL BARTENDER TELLS OF HAVING SERVED FEDERAL JUDGE WITH FAVORITE DRINK, AN ONION AND OTHER THINGS

There is one man in the city who will not hear for the first time of a "Hanford cocktail," as told by a witness today in the congressional hearing in Seattle concerning the qualifications of the federal judge to continue in office. He is George Kinsey, a bartender at the White Pelican hotel.

For about three years Mr. Kinsey wore the white apron behind the mahogany at the Mecca Bar, one of the well known resorts of the Puget Sound city, where politicians were wont to congregate.

The Herald reporter knew the ingredients of the "Hanford" concoction because a wire received from the United Press today told about it. So when he asked Mr. Kinsey the question he was surprised to hear the answer.

"It's nothing but a dry Martini with an onion instead of an olive for decoration," promptly responded Mr. Kinsey. "I have served Judge Hanford many times, but I do not recall whether it was this drink or a lemonade that he was particularly fond of."

It immediately became apparent that Mr. Kinsey did not desire to "tell tales out of school."

A local hotel has for some months made a specialty of the "Hanford cocktail," but has given it a different name, in fact, the name of the hotel.

Notice is hereby given that from and after this date said ordinance will be enforced.

J. C. SMITH, Chief of Police.

Returns From Ashland

Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Summers returned at noon today from Ashland, where they went Saturday after their daughter, Miss Hazel. They made the return trip by auto in five hours. Mr. Summers states that the Klamath Falls end of the road is in excellent shape, but that very little improvements have been made on the other end, and that there some bad pieces of road.

C. G. Merrill is in the city today attending the meeting of the county commissioners court. He will probably return home this evening, but will return for the banquet to the Pathfinder party tomorrow evening. He will also arrange for the entertainment of the excursionists in Merrill Thursday morning.

YOUTHS MUST BE OFF STREETS EARLY NOW

CHIEF OF POLICE SMITH ANNOUNCES THAT THE CURFEW ORDINANCE WILL BE ENFORCED HEREINAFTER

Chief of Police Smith today served notice that the curfew ordinance will be enforced hereafter.

This measure provides that young people under the age of 18 years must not play or loiter on the streets after 8 p. m. during the months of June, July and August.

"Children whose parents cannot control them are almost beyond the control of the police," said the chief this afternoon. "Nevertheless, we will do what we can."

The ordinance is not only not entirely popular with a number of the children, but some of the parents in the city complain that it will work a hardship to attempt to require the youngsters to get under cover so early in the hot summer months.

Repeated requests have come to the chief of police from those who favor the enforcement of the measure, and it is the consensus of opinion that the measure will be enforced by the chief with his usual consideration.

The following composed a party registered at the White Pelican, and who arrived here last night from Yreka: Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Churchill, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Churchill, Miss Louise Huntley, Miss Dorothy Churchill, P. W. Churchill and Master Irvine Churchill.

The Ladies' Aid of the M.E. church will give a lawn social at the home of Dr. W. A. Leonard Thursday, July 18th.
