ACT QUICKLY

Delay Has Been Dangerous in Klamath Falls

Do the right thing at the right time. Act quickly in time of danger. Backache is kidney danger. Doan's Kidney Pills act quickly. Plenty of evidence to prove this. J. B. Shafer, 968 E. Main street, Ashland, Ore., says: "I was in a bad way from kidney trouble, and despite all my efforts I seemed unable to get relief. The kidney secretions were unnatural and my back was extremely lame and painful. At night I was restless, and if I caught cold it settled in my kidneys, causing my trouble to become worse. Being told of Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a box, and before I had used them long I felt better. I am now well and my kidneys no longer bother me. My advice to everyone afflicted in a similar way is to give Doan's Kidney Pills a trial."

Confirmed Proof

When Mr. Shafer was interviewed on October 23, 1909, he said: "My former endorsement of Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. I am now in excellent health, and my kidneys give me little or no trouble."

For sale by all druggists. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

PEOPLE YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

∴ JOB OF CHIEF IS NO SNAP ∴

What with the curfew ordinance to enforce, the sanitation of the city to look after, and the watching for infringements of the state law regarding automobiles, the job of being chief of police in Klamath Falls is no particular snap these days. Yet J. C. Smith is getting along very nicely in the place, thank you.

The other day the chief accompanied Dr. Truax, city physician, on a trip of inspection. For three hours they were scraped around the ways and byways of the city, and to say that their olefactories were somewhat offended is expressing it mildly. To cap the climax, and as a fitting finish of three hours' work, the two city officials arrived at a back yard where the stench was simply "limburgeresque."

A citizen was watching them, and, as each one of the city's hired men quickly but firmly grabbed his own nose, the citizen smiled disdainfully:

"Huh, come on up to my neighborhood and you'll have to wear a clothespin on your nose," he said.

And because both the chief and the physician refused to go that day, the citizen complained that they were neglecting their duty.

But the youths are causing as much trouble as anybody. This idea of being tucked away in their humble cots at the hour of 8 p. m. is particularly objectionable. Of course, the chief of police is blamed for it all, and his appearance on the street at any time after the hour of the curfew is the signal for a scampering under cover.

The chief recommended a sound thrashing for one youngster the other day, but the boy's mother refused to accept the advice.

"Lick him yourself," she said to the chief. "I ain't sore at him."

Mix'ng=Up SWISS SETTLERS MAY COME HERE

—By Joe Bush

Two cattlemen from Lake county, partners in a large ranch, were discussing the labor situation so far as it pertains to their business. Both agreed that the ranch hands of today were not as efficient as those of by-gone days. The partner who was the loudest in his complaint against the workmen had, it appeared from the conversation, a natural antipathy himself for hard work of any kind. His name, apparently, was Tom.

"Honestly, Tom, would you work yourself?" asked his partner.

"Well, now, I'll tell you," was the halting reply. "If something congenial was offered, if the hours were satisfactory, and the work was not distasteful to me, if I could enjoy leisure when the spirit moved me, and not work when the fishing was good, or when there was good hunting, I might work. Yes, I might work then."

And now comes word of the death of a man who had discovered a process for aging liquor. He died without making known his secret, and there are those who compare his untimely demise as a blow to humanity such as the 'Frisco fire, or the floods in Mexico.
