ANNOUNCEMENT

Owing to the scarcity and high price of livestock, and to the fact that we have to purchase and feed stock as much as three months in advance to be sure of a supply, and to the further fact that we have to pay spot cash at the time of purchase for all stock, we find it absolutely necessary to sell meats for cash only on and after August 1, 1912.

Hoping our meatstresses will appreciate our position in this matter, and thanking you for past patronage, hoping for a continuation of the same under the new order of business, we remain, yours,

Peevish Children Suffer With Worms

Don't be angry with your child because he or she is continually irritable. In ninety nine out of one hundred cases you will find that the trouble is worms. Among the common symptoms of the presence of round worms are nervousness, which often leads to epileptic form attacks—dizziness, vertigo, constipation, vomiting, itching of the eyes and nose, nausea and other symptoms. Round worms are often taken in from the soil, but in this case the child has no appetite. Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge is recommended as removing worms. Not only will it destroy them, but its tonic effects will restore the strength to healthy activity. As Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge seldom purges, the medicinal effects will be the improved condition of the person using it.

Millions of parents have praised this medicine for more than eighty years. Based upon Jayne's Tonic Vermifuge, and accept no other. Sold by druggists everywhere. Dr. J. Jayne & Son, Philadelphia, Pa.

CRATER LAKE IS SENATOR'S HOBBY

CHAMBERLAIN HAS ATTRACTED ATTENTION TO OREGON BY HIS ENTHUSIASM FOR WONDERFUL LAKE

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30.—One of the hobbies of Senator Chamberlain for many years past has been the improvement of Crater Lake National Park. He, with other loyal and enthusiastic Oregonians, worked for the creation of a national park, for the better preservation of the wonderful lake, which has no counterpart anywhere in the known world.

Largely through Senator Chamberlain's efforts, aided materially, he it knows, by those of his colleagues in the Oregon delegation in congress as well as by many of the "folks at home," congress gave substantial recognition to the Crater Lake park.

In congress Senator Chamberlain took up the cudgels for the national parks against the attacks of Senators Reed, Bacon and others, alleging that the "see America first" movement would be greatly aided if congress made the parks easier of access and provided reasonable accommodations for travelers who went to see the wonders they contained.

The fame of Crater Lake has spread over the land of late years, and now popular lectures are given with this wonder of nature as the subject. From a Washington paper of recent date this notice is reprinted:

"The Crater Lake of Crater Lake National Park and the cliff dwelling of Colorado were described by E. P. Cowell of the Franklin Institute of Philadelphia in a free illustrated lecture at the Pastime theater. Several of the adult spectators declared it was one of the best lectures and most beautifully illustrate that has yet been given at the theater in the free educational campaign for school children, which is being conducted jointly there by the manager, A. J. Bachrach, and Mr. Cowell. The audience attending the session was unusually large and representative.

"Besides Mr. Cowell's lecture, Maj. James McLaughlin, Indian inspector for the interior department, spoke briefly describing the regions which were the subject of his lecture, and told of a few of his travels in that part of the country.

"Mr. Cowell told the children that Crater Lake was about five miles in diameter, and was formed in the crater of an extinct volcano. It was first discovered by white men, he said, in 1853, although the Indians were aware of its existence for generations. The story of the cliff dwellers and something of their manner of living was also imparted to the children.

"The views of Crater Lake were shown in the natural colors, many of them showing the deep blue of the water and the cloudlessness of the sky called forth applause.

PEOPLE YOU OUGHT TO KNOW PROSECUTING ATTORNEY IS SPRINTER

With a record of having secured more convictions during his term of office than any of his predecessors, D. V. Kuykendall is fortunate in being a natural born sprinter. This, his friends argue, may stand him in good stead in the event of any of the convicted men returning to this section seeking revenge. Not that the prosecuting attorney would be inclined to run in the face of danger, but a good pair of fast legs are pretty handy to have around in any sort of an emergency, and Mr. Kuykendall is thickly equipped.

In his college days at the University of Oregon, he was never mentioned in the foot races as among those who also ran. In fact the records will show that he stood well up in the front.

For the past few days Mr. Kuykendall has been engaged in trying to send a man to the penitentiary on a charge of horse stealing. It has been a difficult case, but has been conducted in his usual thorough manner. It was Mr. Kuykendall who made the closing argument to the jury this afternoon. It was forceful and impressive, although lacking in any pyrotechnical display. This sort of oratory has never appealed to the prosecuting attorney, and his friends attribute a great deal of his success before juries to this fact.

They argue that "Crows of Gold and Crown of Thorns" speeches do not make much of a hit with the Klamath county folks who go in more for the plain statement of facts without any gingerbread effects.

Mix 'n' Up

By Joe Bush

A commercial traveler at a railway station in one of our Southern towns included in his order for breakfast two boiled eggs. The old darkey who served him brought him three.

"Uncle," said the traveling man, "why in the world did you bring me three boiled eggs? I only ordered two."

"Yes, sir," said the old darkey, bowing and smiling, "I know you did order two, sir, but I brought three because I jes naturally felt dat one of dem might fall you, sir."—Harper's Weekly.

Doris was radiant over a recent addition to the family, and rushed out of the house to tell the news to a passing neighbor.
"Oh, you don't know what we've got upstairs!"
"What is it?"
"It's a new baby brother!" and she settled back upon her heels and folded her hands to watch the effect.
"You don't say so! Is he going to stay?"
"I guess so"—very thoughtfully.
"He's got his things off."—Everybody's Magazine.

FORT KLAMATH IS PROSPEROUS

NEW CREAMERY IN OPERATION.
MORE HERDS OF MILCH COWS
BEING BOUGHT—TWO NEW SCHOOLS BEING ERECTED

FORT KLAMATH, July 30.—The new creamery started operations on Friday, with an output of 450 pounds of butter for the first churning. People in this section are very enthusiastic, and are looking everywhere for cows, and are anxious to get the very best to be had. Wm. Nicholson has returned from Jackson county, where he succeeded in securing a herd of fifty head of fine milch cows, which are to be delivered the first of September. The directors of the association have $7,000 with which to purchase cows, but want to get the very best for their money at as early a date as possible.

The grain crop this year is far better than has ever been produced before in this section, both in quality and acreage.

Two new school houses are to be built as soon as possible. Plans and specifications have been drawn and approved by Superintendent Swan. Material is being hauled and work will start at once under the direction of M. B. Looney. Both buildings are small, but will be well equipped and up-to-date in every way.

Mr. A. Weed is erecting a large modern cow barn on his dairy ranch. It will have concrete floors, latest standard stanchions, and be equipped for 200 cows. Mr. Weed's dairy is now under the management of Frank Hartley, who is a competent man in that line.

Many of your friends have found that a beautiful growth of hair—soft and glossy—and a scalp free from dandruff, will result from the use of

NYAL'S HIRUTON

This is the procedure—Wash the hair with warm water and a pure soap—rinse thoroughly—rub the scalp with a stiff brush—apply Hirsutons—rub it in well and dry the hair before combing. Please understand that Hirsutons is not merely a hair wash—it is a tonic—a food.

While it thoroughly cleanses, it also prevents bacterial action—nourishes and stimulates the roots of the hair—removes all dandruff—prevents its return—and preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair. Nyal's Hirsutons should be on your dressing table. It sells at 50 cents and $1.00 the bottle.
