TOWNSEND IS AFTER ESPEE

STRENUOUS GOVERNMENT PROSECUTOR TRANSFERS FIELD OF HIS ENDEAVOR TO SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA

United Press Service
LOS ANGELES, Aug. 6.—The first government suit against the Southern Pacific Railroad to regain title to valuable oil lands in California will be filed here within thirty days, according to Special United States Prosecutor B. D. Townsend, who arrived here from Portland today.

The first suit, Townsend said, will concern Railroads Patent No. 23, which conveyed 40,000 acres of land extending from the Coalinga to the Sunset districts. Forty thousand acres of this tract are said to be oil bearing, and to be worth from $5,000 to $8,000 per acre.
Townsend unofficially estimated the value of the entire holdings that will be concerned in the expected suits, to be worth $750,000,000.

SWISS CARRY ON HEALTH BATTLE

MORE CHILDREN THAN EVER ARE ENCAMPED IN HEALTHFUL RESORTS IN THE MOUNTAINOUS DISTRICTS

United Press Service
BERNE, Aug. 7.—The Swiss people are carrying on a determined fight against the great white plague. This summer more children than ever before are encamped in the holiday colonies of the mountain districts, from 4,000 to 5,000 feet above sea level. In the Jura tourists come upon these camps at an average of one a mile. The children sleep in tents, spending the rest of the time out of doors.

SAINT FOR THE STENOGRAPHERS

POPE IN CONSIDERING SELECTION OF ST. GENESIVUS OF ARLES FOR HONOR—PETITION IS RECEIVED

Special to The Herald
ROME, Aug. 7.—Official announcement was today made at the Vatican that the Congregation of Rites has undertaken the consideration of a petition presented some time ago, and signed by bishops in all parts of the world, asking that St. Genesivus of Arles be declared the patron saint of stenographers.

Reginald De Koven told at a musicale in Chicago a pretty story in praise of modesty.

"A group of tourists," he said, "visited Beethoven's house in Bonn. One of the tourists, a girl of twenty or so, sat down at Beethoven's piano and played the 'Moonlight Sonata,' none too well. Beethoven's own work, in his own room, on his own piano?"
"When the girl had finished she rose and said to the old carter:
"I suppose lots of famous musicians have been here and played on this instrument?"
"Well miss," the carter answered gravely, "Padayewski was here last year and his friends urged him to play, but he shook his head and said: 'No, I am not worthy.'"—Washington Star.

PEOPLE YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

WONDROUS NECKTIE ATTRACTS

A few mornings ago a man stopped in front of the postoffice and stood gazing intently.

"What's the matter Bill?" a man inquired.
There was a whispered conversation, and then the second man stood gazing just as Bill did. It was not long before a crowd had collected.

"What's the matter?" inquired some inquisitive person.
"Somebody's dropped dead in the postoffice," volunteered some one.

"No; there's some millionaire or something like that in there," said another man.
But they were both mistaken. K. Sugarman, wearing a necktie the like of which had never before been seen in these parts, had gone into the postoffice to get his mail, and it was this same necktie which had aroused the interest.

But leaving the necktie and getting down to cases, Mr. Sugarman, there is but little chance of mentioning the word "enterprise" without saying in the same breath "Sugarman," because the two have become so identified, the one with the other in Klamath Falls, that, in mentioning the clothing line, to say "enterprise" means "Sugarman," and vice versa.

Mr. Sugarman came here from Portland, Ore. He keeps a careful lookout for things calculated to please men. Without the above and heretofore mentioned necktie.
But Mr. Sugarman does not spend all of his time "tramping" up novelties. Right now he is engaged in enlarging his stock. He's looking for broader fields of endeavor.

Mix 'n' Up

By Joe Bush

B. D. Townsend, who has made a great reputation as government prosecutor of land fraud cases in the West and who, it has just been announced, will act for the government in a suit to recover valuable oil lands from the Southern Pacific, is known to a number of residents of Klamath Falls.

Mr. Townsend, or Bert, as he is known to his friends, first hung out his shingle in Devils Lake, North Dakota, after a strenuous law experience in the office of a leading St. Paul disciple of Blackstone. Soon after his arrival in the North Dakota town Bert was given a bull pup. From that time on, the young lawyer never went into court unless the dog accompanied him.

The first three cases he tried with the dog as a mascot he won, but after that he lost every one until the dog died. Then Mr. Townsend's successful career commenced. He has not lost a case since the last shovelful of dirt was thrown on poor Fido's grave.

Fortunately Judge Benson stepped in just in time to prevent any quarreling about the split-up of the city advertising graft.

Speaking about steam rollers, five councilmen formed a fairly well oiled and harmonious working majority at the council meeting Monday night.

Maybe the Northwestern needs the money.

There is always the chance of temporary restraining orders being made permanent.

And while the subject of circulation is up for discussion, it might be well to mention the fact that during the past three weeks the Herald has scored so many scoops on the Northwestern that about all that paper has been able to print has been history, and some of it pretty ancient.

"Why that Savidge expression on your countenance, James? It may not be true."

Wonder where all the capital "I's" came from to print Colonel Roosevelt's speech in Chicago yesterday?

Funny the Colonel doesn't settle that car workers' strike by way of relaxation while he is in Chicago.

Strike Seems Certain
United Press Service
CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Further conferences between the street railway employes and officials have been held, but there is little hope of a settlement.

NORMAL SCHOOL TO GET MONEY

SECRETARY OF STATE DISREGARDS ADVICE OF ATTORNEY GENERAL, AND WILL NOT SUBMIT QUESTION TO VOTE

SALEM, Aug. 7.—Disregarding the advice of Attorney General Crawford, and accepting instead that of his assistant, I. H. Van Winkle, Secretary of State Olcott has announced that he would not refer to a vote of the people a bill passed by the legislature appropriating $50,000 for the Monmouth normal school, and there will be no necessity of the board of regents for the Monmouth normal school commencing mandamus proceedings or any other proceedings to make the appropriation available, for it is that now.

FLOOD TOLL IS GROWING LARGE

UNFORTUNATES FOUND LIFELESS ON BANKS OF STREAM, AND IT IS FEARED THAT OTHER LIVES ARE LOST

UNION, Ore., Aug. 7.—As a result of the cloudburst last week the entire family of John Powell, near Huntington was lost in the flood waters, and others are reported lost, while the railroad grade was washed away and traffic suspended for a time.

The bodies of Mrs. Powell and one of her children were found in the burnt river. The other children are believed to have been covered by debris at the mouth of Bragg Creek. John Ferris, an aged prospector, is missing, and is thought to have been drowned in Jett Creek. No trace of the body has been found. William Centrell, aged 83, and his wife, aged 70, who took refuge in a cellar, were in water twelve hours before rescued.

Many Hunting Licenses
Although the exact figures are not available, more hunting licenses have been issued so far this year than ever before in the history of the county. County Clerk De Lap is authority for this statement. "We have issued almost 3,000 licenses this year, said Mr. De Lap.

The little maid gazed thoughtfully at her father. "Papa," she said, "do you know what I'm going to give you for your birthday?"
"No, dear," he answered. "Tell me."
"A nice new china shaving mug, with gold flowers all around," said the little maid.

"But, my dear," explained her mother, "papa has a nice one, just like that, already."
"No, he hasn't," the little one answered, thoughtfully, "'cos—'cos—I've just dropped it!"—Newark Star.

A Clean Scalp And Healthy Hair

Many of your friends have found that a lustrant growth of hair—soft and glossy—and a scalp free from dandruff, will result from the use of

NYAL'S HIRAUTONE

This is the procedure—Wash the hair with warm water and a pure soap—rinse thoroughly—rub the scalp with a stiff brush—apply Hirautone—rub it in well and dry the hair before combing.

Please understand that Hirautone is not merely a hair wash—it is a tonic—a food.

While it thoroughly cleanses, it also prevents bacterial action—nourishes and stimulates the roots of the hair—removes all dandruff—prevents its return—and preserves the natural beauty and color of the hair. Nyal's Hirautone should be on your dressing table. It sells at 50 cents and $1.00 the bottle.
