

MEMBERS OF BAR TO GET ACTIVE

ASSOCIATION OF LAWYERS IN KLAMATH COUNTY EXPECTED SOON TO SHOW SIGNS OF LIFE. COMMITTEES AND MEMBERS

When the lawyers who are away on their vacations return to the city the Klamath County Bar Association is expected to hold a meeting and get under way. One of the matters which will be taken up at an early date will be the getting of quarters in the new county court house, and it is possible that a room for a library will also be asked of the county court. The attorneys believe that prospects for a flourishing organization are good, and that much benefit may result from an active association of the men at the bar.

Some time since a constitution and by-laws were drawn up by Attorney Joseph S. Kent, and following this officers were chosen as follows:

President—Thomas Drake.
Vice president—D. V. Kuykendall.
Secretary—James C. Rutenic.

Carnahan, Herbert S. Crane, Thos. Drake, E. L. Elliott, John Irwin, H. W. Keese, Dell V. Kuykendall, H. C. Merryman, Horace M. Manning, Fred H. Mills, George Noland, C. M. Oneill, James C. ## THREE YEARS AGO, TOWN HAS CHANGED

Pioneer Returns to the City, and Has to Engage a Guide—Thinks That Klamath Falls is a Most Wonderful Place Now

Although a pioneer resident of the Klamath country, and interested in the development of this section, John Smart is in the metropolis today for the first time in three years. He arrived by auto last night from his home in Fort Klamath, and had to secure a guide to show him about.

Charles Low was one of the first to greet Mr. Smart, and he was forthwith plied with questions concerning the location of different places of business. Mr. Smart could recognize but few of them.

"My, but things have changed," he exclaimed. "Klamath Falls looks like a real city now."

Mr. Smart has been engaged extensively in sheep raising until a short time ago, when he sold most of his flock, retaining only about 100 for old time's sake.

FISHING BEST AT THIS TIME

REPORTS FROM RESORTS INDICATE BEST SPORT HAS JUST STARTED—FINNY ONES ARE GETTING HUNGRY, IS REPORT

According to reports from the upper lakes, fishing is better right now than at any time, this season, and a number of fishing parties will go out this afternoon and tomorrow.

The steamer Winema will carry an excursion tomorrow to Pelican Bay and Rocky Point, leaving at 9 o'clock and returning in the evening. It is expected that many will take advantage of this excursion. Some fishermen will leave the city in autos, while others will go in launches.

The low rate offered by the Southern Pacific to Chiloquin tomorrow will probably also draw many people to the fishing resorts.

A special rate of one way fare, $1.10 for the round trip was made by the railroad officials. The train leaves the local depot at 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, and will leave Chiloquin at 6 o'clock in the evening. This will give the entire day at this resort. Ample provisions have been made by local Southern Pacific officials to accommodate the large crowd that is expected to go.

Agent Bailey announced this afternoon that in the event of rain, or in any event, the train would be located near the fishing ground, so that passengers will be able to get under cover without delay.

SKATING ON ICE IS GOOD IN SUMMER

LAVA BEDS NEAR MERRILL AFFORD UNUSUAL SPORT—ROAD TO WONDERLAND WILL SOON BE IN GOOD CONDITION

If you are going to visit the lava beds near Merrill, take along your ice skates. You will need them, if the stories that have been brought here recently are to be credited.

It is said that even on the warmest days there is good ice skating in one of the famous caves in that little known wonderland.

The trip to the beds will soon be an easy one to make from this city. Charles Merrill and two men have been engaged for some time on improving the road to the lava beds, and it is expected that in a few days it will be possible to reach there in an automobile from this city without difficulty or danger to the machine.

Another of our band has been called across the Great Divide; a worthy sister of our association has passed from among the thinning ranks of Klamath Pioneers, and, as a fitting tribute of our respect, every member of the association is requested to attend the ceremonies paid as a last tribute to the earthly form of our departed comrade, wearing the badge of the association.

DRAMA IS TO BE HERE, WITH ILES

STAR FAMILIAR TO THIS COMMUNITY TO APPEAR ONE NIGHT AT OPERA HOUSE—SIDE ATTRACTION, GEORGE LUCKY

Tonight at Houston's opera house the Margaret Iles company will appear in an engagement limited to one evening. The Iles company is well known in this city and vicinity, having played here and elsewhere in this neighborhood many times to interested and satisfied spectators.

Miss Iles, as is well known, heads the organization which bears her name, and which includes some of the old members as well as some new ones to strengthen it. The bill for the evening is to be "The Show Girl," according to a message received by Manager John Houston, and advance notices give it as a comedy drama of the most entertaining order.

As an added attraction of the engagement there will be vaudeville between the regular acts of the play, in which George Lucky is to be featured. He is an eccentric singer and dancer who is soon to go on the Orpheum circuit. He is to appear in a stunt terpsichorean, a la Texas Tommy.

JURY USES BUT LITTLE OF TIME

perative duty to find the defendant not guilty."

At 9:50 the jury rang for a bailiff. Darrow chewed a leadpencil. His wife sat trembling like a leaf, holding a handkerchief to her mouth.

M. R. Williams was foreman of the jury. There was a tense delay while the court waited for the clerk and District Attorney Fredericks to arrive.

"I waive the polling of the jury," said Darrow.

"Gentlemen, what is your verdict?" asked the court.

"Not guilty," read Foreman Williams.

Cheers and loud applause followed.

Mrs. Darrow embraced her husband, who merely sighed deeply and looked around the room.

The complete verdict was: "We, the people of the State of California, found the defendant in this action not guilty."

Friends of Darrow crowded around to congratulate him.

The strain was so great that many in the court room were in tears.

The first chapter in the Darrow trial was written when Darrow consented, at the behest of union labor and labor sympathizers, to defend the McNamara brothers, charged with dynamiting the Los Angeles Times building, and thereby causing the death of twenty-one men. Immediately upon his arrival in Los Angeles he became the central figure in what proved to be one of the most dramatic trials in the history of American courts.

Friends of Darrow now point to his efforts, after realizing the guilt of his clients, to bargain for the best possible terms. The last period of the famous trial, before the confession of both brothers, was spent in an effort to compromise with the state in the event of a change in plea.

Darrow remained in Los Angeles after the McNamara brothers were sentenced. His friends say that he was aware that his name would be brought into the bribery proceedings, and that he preferred to remain on the ground to await developments.

He was well prepared for the battle when he was indicted, having retained as chief counsel Earl Rogers of Los Angeles, who became prominent on the Pacific coast through his connection with the defense in one of the so-called graft cases in San Francisco. Associate counsel were Judge Cyrus McNutt, Harry Dehm and Darrow himself. During the trial Judge McNutt died, and his place was taken by Horace Appel.

Arrayed against these men were District Attorney John D. Fredericks and Assistant District Attorneys Jos. Ford and Arthur Veitch.

Judge George H. Hutton, presiding jurist of the Los Angeles county superior bench, when the case came to trial, assigned to himself the duty of sitting in judgment. The case was called May 15th.

In view of the seemingly endless task encountered in securing a jury for the McNamara trial, it was expected that similar trouble would be met in the Darrow case, where the public was every bit as partisan as in the affair of the McNamaras. To the surprise of all concerned, however, a

Social Events of the Week

RESUME OF THE SOCIAL EVENTS OF THE PAST WEEK GATHERED FOR HERALD READERS—THE COMINGS AND GOINGS OF SOCIETY'S PETS

Our city like Rome is built upon the hills. From its first scanty gathering of a few human souls on the banks of the river many years ago, it has, up to within the last few years, gone through its pioneer and formative state.

Then the railroad—that line of long steel bars, that brings progress and activity in its wake—and behold, Klamath was reborn—its renaissance was at hand.

Its streets were paved, its business extended, substantial brick gradually upbuilding where the lowly frame stores had formerly stood, while the hills nodded and smiled with gardens of gay-topped flowers, and the velvet lawns outgrew the weeds, while still on the lower levels the poplars raised their cathedral spires toward heaven.

The child must grow, and with sheltering care, will reach in time man's full strength.

Our City Beautiful will not depart therefrom.

On Saturday evening of last week Mrs. C. K. Setts and Mrs. J. V. Gilbert were joint hostesses at a most delightful musicale and card party given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Setts in Hot Springs addition. Cards filled the first part of the evening, after which there was music, dancing and refreshments.

Mrs. Gilbert, who is the possessor of a fine soprano voice, gave several solo numbers. Mr. Crooks also gave pleasure with his singing, and Mr. Borel with his violin. A mandolin club, composed of these musical friends, played until a late hour, the personnel of which is: Mesdames Lillie Allen, Claudia O'Loughlin and E. K. Setts, mandolins; A. L. Murray, guitar; Mrs. A. R. Murray, piano. Besides those above mentioned, there were present Mr. and Mrs. Bamberg, Mr. and Mrs. Crooks, Miss Viola Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. Parmalee, Ord Arnold, Mr. Borel, James Crooks, C. K. Setts and Dr. J. V. Gilbert.

Mrs. Robert E. Savidge gave a charmingly appointed luncheon on Monday at 1 o'clock. The color scheme was pink, supplemented with the loveliest pink roses, and those seated at the table were Mrs. Fred Schallock, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. J. C. Brockenbrough, the hostess and Master Robert Savidge.

The Leisure Hour Club was entertained by Mrs. Fred Schallock on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30. The game of 500, concluding with refreshments, filled several agreeable hours, and those present were Mesdames Frank Ward, W. I. Clark, Hiram Murdock, Earl Whitlock, C. C. Hogue, C. E. Hogue, J. J. Parker, R. E. Wattenburg, Thomas Conner, O. M. Robertson, I. J. Knapp, C. H. Daggett, Thos. Hampton, R. E. Smith, Fred Melhase, Charles Martin and Henry Newnham.

Mrs. John Schallock, whose sudden passing away left so great a sorrow in the hearts of her friends, was also present.

Mrs. Fred Mills invited a merry party of her friends for Thursday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Jessie Holman of Tennessee and Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Morton of Portland, who are guests at the Hotel Hall. The very amusing game of Dutch whist was played. There was some excellent music, a little dancing and a delightful supper. At whist Miss Agnes Lee won a cut glass salad bowl, which she immediately presented to Mrs. Morton. Mr. Morton won a box of cigars. Those who enjoyed Mrs. Mills' hospitality were: Mr. and Mrs. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Hall, Miss Jennie Holman, Miss Edna Wells, Miss Agnes Lee, Miss Louise Lee, Harold Merryman, W. A. Duncan, Harry Ackley, D. B. Campbell and Dr. Hunt.

The initial meeting of a new order of Fraternal Brotherhood will be held in its lodge room in Odd Fellows building next Monday evening at 8 o'clock. A number of new names have been submitted for membership, and after initiatory exercises there will be a musical program, cards and refreshments.

Mrs. C. C. Hogue invited the Leisure Hour Club to meet at her home on Friday afternoon, but recalled the invitations late Friday, owing to the death of Mrs. John Schallock.

The Home Missionary meeting was held at the residence of Mrs. J. A. Thompson on Thursday afternoon. The subject under discussion was "The American Indians," and the company adjourned after a profitable as well as a pleasant afternoon.

Mrs. Evans and Miss Jean Evans from Modesto, Calif., are registered at the White Pelican hotel. That young people and romance walk hand in hand is a foregone conclusion, and it is rumored that Cupid with his spring bow is on tip-toe, ready to spring his last arrow near the White Pelican hotel in the near future.

Mrs. C. E. Hogue, with her baby son, expects to leave here next Tuesday to join her husband in Los Angeles, where they will make their future home. The many friends that Mrs. Hogue has gathered unto herself during her short stay here will regret exceedingly her departure.

Misses Agnes and Louise Lee left this morning for Lakeview, where they will supervise the auditing of some of the land office records, returning home in about two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Zumwalt are in Eugene, Ore., where they will visit Mr. and Mrs. Richard S. Smith for the coming two weeks, and incidentally spend a few days on a camping trip.

Mrs. J. P. Lee and Miss Jessie Holman are about to make a ten days auto trip through the Spring Creek country, where they will sojourn a few days at Mrs. E. B. Henry's camp, and then go on to Crater Lake. The outing will be made in Mr. Henry's car.

Mr. and Mrs. B. St. Geo. Bishop and children came from their summer home, "The Cedars," on Upper Lake, last Thursday, and spent a few days with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Smith on Conger avenue.

Mrs. George Baldwin is contemplating a visit to San Francisco in the very near future.

The Young People's Union members are planning to give a moonlight excursion on Upper Klamath Lake Thursday evening, August 27th. Refreshments, including ice cream, cake, sandwiches and coffee will be served on the trip.

POOR TABBY IS LEFT IN COLD

RUMOR THAT FELINES HAVE RABIES CAUSES HARSH TREATMENT FOR DOMESTIC ANIMALS. NO GROUND FOR THE FEAR

The movement to exterminate cats has spread to Klamath Falls. This is evidenced not only by stray carcasses in vacant lots and in the streets, which have recently been located and buried, but by the number of stray felines noticed on the streets lately.

The "driven-from-home" expression is plainly visible on the countenance of every one of the strays.

In Portland, Seattle and San Francisco the crusade has assumed large proportions. It is claimed that cats this year are afflicted with rabies. Scientists have examined the heads of a number of cats, and have found proof of the existence of the disease.

So far there has been no indication that any of the Klamath Falls cats are afflicted, and the crusade here was induced, probably, because of an unwarranted fear.

DEGREE TEAM IN EFFECTIVE WORK

LAST NIGHT'S MEETING OF KLAMATH LODGE, I. O. O. F. WITNESSES CONFERRING OF DEGREE OF FRIENDSHIP

Klamath Lodge No. 137, I. O. O. F., conferred the First, or Degree of Friendship, at last night's meeting, and the team work was highly complimented by visitors for effective work done. Noble Grand Thomas Grubbs was in charge of the evening's proceedings. The regular music was interspersed.

MERRILL TELLS OF GREAT CROPS

COUNTY COMMISSIONER SAYS AGRICULTURAL CONDITIONS ARE SPLENDID, BUT IT IS DULL WITH STOCK

County Commissioner C. Guy Merrill, here today from the village which bears his family's name, says that crops down his way are fine, and then some.

"Everything is looking splendid," said that official today. "It's very dull in the way of movement of stock, however, unusually so. But summer is the best time for feeding the live stock, and this winter I expect to see a good movement in that direction."
