

ESTATE MIDDLE WILL BE COSTLY

APPRaisal TAKEN BY ADMINISTRATOR OF OTIS GRIGER'S PROPERTY FROM COUNTY COURT'S DECISION—PROSE TO BE USED

In the case of Otis Griger, deceased, J. W. Siemens, administrator of the estate, has, through his attorneys, Elliott & Elliott, appealed from the decision of the county court, and wishes the circuit court of Klamath county, of which Judge Henry L. Benson is the presiding judge, to determine the case on its merits. The title of the case is J. W. Siemens vs. B. G. Griger, the latter, a resident of Santa Ana, Calif., being father of the deceased and the heir-at-law, and Herbert S. Crane, attorney for Griger and other heirs, said that one of the results of the litigation would be an investigation by the bar of Santa Ana county, Calif., of a firm of attorneys at Santa Ana, who are alleged to have held from Griger money that was sent to them for him.

Otis Griger had a homestead about five miles from the city toward Medoc Point, and the estate was worth about $2,000. Probably several hundred dollars have already been spent in handling the matter in court, and the chances are that the amount may be increased very materially before the end is reached.

Papers in the case allege that Siemens had paid claims against the estate from money advanced by B. G. Griger, and thus acted as Griger's agent, rather than as administrator, and that, acting under an alleged agreement with Griger, he parted with the personal property of the deceased, and that Griger now repudiates this agreement.

The order of the county court directed that Siemens retain as funds of the estate the amount of the inventory value of such personal property, and that he have no fees in connection with the B. G. Griger dealings.

One allegation in the mix-up is that $100 was sent Langley & Thomas, attorneys of Santa Ana, on their representation to B. G. Griger that if it were sent to them they would pay it to him, and that they received the check, but paid Griger nothing.

MAIL IS BEHIND OWING TO WRECK

FREIGHT MIX-UP ON MAIN LINE OF ESPER, NORTH OF SACRAMENTO, CAUSES POSTAL SERVICE TO RECEIVE ORDERS

Three hours behind, the mail train last night threw Klamath Falls off its schedule for communication with the outer world. It was first advertised to be but two hours late, but this decision was amended to give the public better measure, and the belated institution rolled into the premium station three hours tardy. As a result of the delay the window at the postoffice was not opened, although mail was distributed, and boxholders who were able to stay awake long enough called and got their mail during the evening.

The cause of the lateness was a freight wreck on the main line of the Southern Pacific road a short distance north of Sacramento.

BONANZA PEOPLE WANT NEW ROAD

era railroad by way of Merrill to section 22. From that point it will run directly east to Olney, then cross Lost River and run along the southern bank for three miles. Then it will cross to the northern side and continue to Bonanza with a water grade the entire distance.

Clark has been working on this project for some time. He visited Bonanza and says he received much encouragement from the farmers in that section. He says he has no doubt that the road will be a financial success.

"Of course," said he, "whether or not this electric road is constructed without delay will depend largely on the people themselves and the encouragement they have to offer my backers. The people of Bonanza are all anxious to get the road, and will do anything within reason to get it. The farmers and land owners along the proposed line have shown a desire to meet us halfway, and I am sure the road will be a certainty."

NEW SCHOOL WILL SOON BE REALITY

TEXUM DISTRICT DECIDES TO ISSUE BONDS—TALK OF CHANGING NAME OF LOCALITY TO MILLER HILL HAS NO RESULT

County Superintendent of Schools John G. Swan yesterday attended the school bond election at Texum, which resulted in the district, which is No. 44, resolving to authorize the issue of $2,000 bonds for a new school. The vote was unanimous, nine votes being cast for the bond issue, and none against. As soon as arrangements can be made, construction of a new and modern building will be begun. The school is near Texum station of the Southern Pacific about seven miles from this city by road, but only four miles in a direct line. There is some discussion among the freeholders of the district as to the advisability of calling it Miller Hill, instead of Texum, but as yet no decision has been reached.

Social Events of the Week

SUMMER WEATHER AND THE CALL OF THE WOODS HAS SO DEPLETED SOCIETY'S RANKS THAT EVENTS ARE FEW, BUT VERY ENJOYABLE

A pleasant surprise party was given Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Yaden for Miss Hazel Summers, daughter of County Commissioner Summers, the occasion being her nineteenth birthday. The evening was pleasantly spent in playing games. Those present were the Misses Fern Wood, Teresa Yadin, Sallie Curria, Foster, Bee Summers, Gladys Roberts, Hazel Summers, Messrs. John Yadin, Foster, Lloyd Alford, Will Wood, Cleveland, Chas. Roberts and Wellington Templar.

The meeting of the Central Oregon Development League in Lakeview attracted many Klamath Falls people during the past week, and a number of auto parties left this city for there.

On Wednesday afternoon Mrs. Fred Mills entertained at auction bridge. A delightful afternoon was passed and refreshments were served to Messdames Oliver Morton, Hiram Murdoch, J. P. Lee, C. J. Martin, Will Mason, E. B. Henry and Miss Jessie Halman.

Mrs. Charles J. Martin gave a charming afternoon's entertainment to a few friends on Thursday. She gathered her guests by auto, and took them for a long drive, returning to her home at 5 o'clock, where a delightful high tea was served. Those invited were: Messdames O. M. Morton, Will Mason, E. B. Henry, Fred H. Mills and Miss Holman.

A dainty little luncheon was served by Mrs. William Pitts on Thursday at 1 o'clock. After the luncheon music and fancy work beguiled several hours.

The Right Reverend Robert L. Paddock, D. D., reached Klamath Falls on Friday afternoon, and while here he was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brockebrough at "La Casita."

The bishop has just completed a tour of Eastern Oregon, including Wallowa, Baker, Malheur, Harney and Lake counties. After leaving Klamath county he will visit Crook county on horseback and by wagon, visiting many of the little farming and mining communities, as well as the larger settled places. As bishop of Central and Eastern Oregon, and representing so vast an area with so meagre a population, his activities are necessarily along general lines, but his hope and strenuous purpose is toward the upbuilding of the country on every side of the jewel of development.

WINEMA TO TAKE LAST EXCURSION

TO PELICAN BAY LODGE AND ROCKY POINT TOMORROW—ON SUNDAY FOLLOWING WILL CARRY DUCK HUNTERS

Captain John Totten, skipper of the good ship Winema, will take out tomorrow the last Sunday excursion of the season to Pelican Bay Lodge and Rocky Point. The boat will clear at 9 a. m. and return at 6 p. m., after stopping several hours at the two resorts. The Harriman Lodge which has been taken over by the Klamath Development company for a resort, is a very popular attraction on the Upper Lake, and the other scenic points seen on the trip make it alluring to the tourist.

On the Sunday following the Winema will make a special duck trip, that being the opening day of the season for hunting the webfooted game that is so plentiful in the marshes hereabouts. The boat will go to Agency Lake, which is a sort of aquatic annex of Upper Klamath, about 27 miles above this city.

LONDON, Aug. 24.—London is tonight practically cut off from telegraphic communication as a result of a fire which totally destroyed the general postoffice at Chapside. The building cost several million dollars, and was built two years ago.

Rover will rove no more. He has gone to the happy hunting ground. Rover was the handsome collier belonging to George J. Walton, and when his owner started out with a camping party last Tuesday Rover started, too. The following day, when the wagon was proceeding on its way above Fort Klamath, the dog made a dash which carried him under the wheels of the vehicle, and was crushed to death.

GEESE GET HOG FAT IN FIELDS

PORTLAND MAN DECLARES THAT FOOD OF TEN GESE WOULD EASILY FATTEN ONE HOG. GIVES FARMERS' ADVICE

With Hogs selling in the Portland market at $9.25 and steers at $7, with no indication of the price lowering, O. M. Plummer, secretary of the Union stockyards of Portland, sees a very bright prospect for stock growers in this section. Mr. Plummer came in Friday afternoon from Lakeview, where he has been in attendance at the meeting of the Central Oregon Development League.

"I am surprised at the scarcity of hogs in this section," said Mr. Plummer. "The wheat from the stubble fields that now feed ten geese would easily fatten one hog. There has been no 'hog reserve' declared yet in this county, so I am of the opinion that farmers are making a mistake in not going into the hog raising business."

The Union stockyards in Portland are the only ones west of Denver, and are the most modern in the country.
