KEOUGH MIXES WITH DE BRUCE

BUILDING OPERATIONS ARE TEMPORARILY SUSPENDED WHEN FOREMAN OF JOB IS TAKEN BEFORE JUSTICE GRAVES

Building operations on the new home of the Northwestern were suspended for a short time this afternoon when Dan Keough, foreman of the work was arrested on a charge of assault and battery, preferred by Jas De Bruce. Keough was arraigned before Justice Graves this afternoon, and the hearing will be this evening in the meantime the defendant is at liberty on his own recognizance.

Keough was accompanied in court by Manager Innis of the White Pelican hotel, who declared that De Bruce had been employed as a porter in the big hotel, but had been discharged this morning for drunkenness. "He was drunk when he went over to the new building," said Mr. Innis, "and interrupted the work there. Mr. Keough threw him off the lot just as I had thrown him out of the hotel a short time before."

De Bruce declared that he was sitting in front of the building attending to his own business when he was assaulted by Keough. He displayed a black eye as proof of the assault.

When Henry J. Horn, now assistant to President Mellon of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, was division superintendent of the Montana division of the Northern Pacific railway, he lived at Livingston, Mont., and married a Miss Josephine Robinson. One day after the first baby came, Mr. and Mrs. Horn took the baby to church. Mr. Horn carried the child, and as the proud father and mother walked down the aisle the minister read from Daniel, seventh chapter, eighth verse: "I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another little horn."

MUSIC WILL AID LIBRARY FUND

MONEY IS NEEDED TO CARRY ON COMMENDABLE INSTITUTION, AND MRS. ZUMWALT'S CONCERT IS SURE TO PLEASE

On Friday evening Mrs. Don J. Zumwalt, with the assistance of other talented musicians will give a concert at the opera house for the benefit of the public library. The proceeds are to be used for the purchase of new books, which fact will be welcomed by the reading public, and will assure a large attendance.

Mrs. Zumwalt is too well known to need an introduction, and no apology seems needed, as those who attend will be amply repaid for the outlay, but the Women's Club feels like saying that it is hoped that this may be the last time that it becomes necessary to appeal to the public. The county court has accumulated a fund with the idea of taking over the library and converting it into a free Carnegie library as soon as arrangements can be made, but this fund is not available for running expenses of the present institution. The income of the library from other sources is barely sufficient to defray running expenses, making it necessary to raise funds in other ways for the purchase of books.

GOVERNOR WEST WILL TAKE REST

OFFICE OF EXECUTIVE IN PORTLAND HAS BEEN CLOSED FOR A TIME—GOVERNOR SAYS HE WILL GO AFTER GRAPERS

PORTLAND, Sept. 18.—Governor West's vice clean up crusade in Portland is to have a rest of a week, so far as the part played by the governor himself is concerned in the meantime.

The governor's office in Portland moved back to Salem when Miss Fern Hobbes, his secretary, took her notes and papers back to the state capitol.

While Miss Hobbes is in the capitol, Governor West himself will be inspecting one of the state forest reserves with some federal officers. He will not return to Salem until next Monday. In the meantime his Portland office will be locked up and deserted.

After next Monday, however, the governor expects to be in Portland from time to time to see that everything is going as he wants it in his campaign to clean up the city.

After being in session more than a week, the Klamath county grand jury made its first report to Judge Benson in the circuit court at 10:30 this morning. Two indictments were reported to the court, one against Robert Allen and the other against a man whose name was not given.

Allen is charged with having raised a check from $3 to $300. He made a hurried flight from the city in an auto, but was captured in Sonoma, Calif., and returned to this city. He is now confined in the county jail. He will be formally arraigned before Judge Benson tomorrow morning.
