CITIZEN SMITH HAS RIGHT TO BE CANDIDATE

FEDERAL LAW DOES NOT BAR CANADIANS FROM OFFICE

Editor of Herald Has Exercised the Powers of Citizenship Ever Since He Has Been of Age—His Father Took Out Naturalization Papers, and Son Gets Some of the Benefit of the Same

Federal Statutes Section 2172—The children of persons who have been duly naturalized under any law of the United States, being under the age of 21 years at the time of the naturalization of their parents, shall, if dwelling in the United States, be considered as citizens thereof.

The morning newspaper has scored a "scoop." The Northwestern has discovered that W. O. Smith, editor of The Herald, and the only candidate in this district for the office of representative, is not a citizen of the United States. This is the "scoop," and, like a great many of the other exclusive stories printed in that paper, it is a fact.

W. O. Smith is a citizen of the United States, and acquired that distinction twenty-eight years ago, when his father became naturalized. Mr. Smith was born in Canada, and his father came to the United States thirty-four years ago. One of the first acts of Smith, senior, was to declare his intention to become a citizen of the United States. Subsequently, and about the time he sent for his family to join him, he took out his final papers, and thusly did W. O. Smith become a citizen of the United States.

As soon as he had attained his majority, W. O. Smith exercised the franchise granted American citizens, and since that time has continued to do so. Soon after Mr. Smith came West, in 1891, he found an opportunity to file on a timber claim in Idaho. Rather than wait to secure from Wisconsin a certified copy of his father's naturalization papers, and thereby run the chance of missing his opportunity to secure the claim, he took out his first papers, and his filing on the timber claim was allowed.

The federal law is very clear on the rights of the children of foreigners who come to this city and become naturalized. The particular section referred to is quoted above.

Immediately upon the arrival of the equipment winter quarters will be established, and arrangements made to begin work. The local reclamation office has received no word that the bid of Maney Bros. has been accepted, but this is taken for granted, as they would not bring their outfit here unless they had definite arrangements with the secretary of the interior.

MALIN FIELDS ARE FERTILE

FARMERS OF THAT SECTION REPORT GREAT CROPS—IMPORTED BARLEY PROVES GREAT SUCCESS THERE

C. C. Low returned last night enthusiastic over a trip to Malin, where he met a number of the farmers. "It's one of the greatest farming countries in the West," declared Mr. Low. Joseph Otoman, who is farming an 89 acre tract, reported to Mr. Low that his crop of rye has yielded 37 1/2 bushels to the acre, and averaged about seven feet in height. After the header had passed over the field a horse could easily hide in the stubble. Joseph Kohout is farming about twenty acres. A year ago he secured about twelve pounds of imported barley, and, after two sowings, raised 600 bushels from this seed. Another successful farmer of that section is Josef Viktorin, who reports 55 bushels of wheat to the acre.

Treasurer of National Committee of 1908 Gives Testimony Concerning Contributions of the Money Prince of the Country—Archbold, Morgan and Frick Each Gave Up Some Money

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2.—Testifying before the senate investigating committee today, Senator Dixon demanded to know how far the inquiry was going, saying, "I want the committee to probe other campaign funds besides Roosevelt's. The impression prevails that this investigation is directed against Roosevelt. Why not probe Wilson's campaign?" The witness said that Munsay, Perkins and Hanna had given him approximately $96,000. Of this amount $52,000 had been spent at headquarters for literature. "We got lots of dollar contributions," the witness said. It was only from hearsay evidence, the witness said, that he had that attempts had been made to buy delegates. He denied that the Roosevelt managers had used money to buy delegates. FERRIS WAIVES AN EXAMINATION

AGED CARPENTER MUST REMAIN IN THE COUNTY JAIL PENDING THE SESSION OF THE COUNTY GRAND JURY

When Judge Graves this morning fixed the bonds of F. Ferris at $10,000, the last hope of the aged carpenter to secure his release pending the convening of the grand jury was shattered. He will be unable to secure this amount of bond, and must remain a prisoner in the county jail. Ferris, who is charged with child stealing, was arraigned before Judge Graves this morning. He waived examination and was held to the grand jury. "The penalty for the crime with which Ferris is charged is from one to twenty-five years," said Judge Graves, "and it seems to me that $10,000 is not an unreasonable amount to fix as his bond."
