TEACHERS ARE WELL PLEASED

RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED AT THE CONCLUSION OF THE SUCCESSFUL INSTITUTE HELD IN THIS CITY

The Klamath County Teachers' Institute came to a close last night at the high school with an address by State Superintendent of Schools Alderman.

Before adjournment the following resolutions were adopted:

Be it resolved by the teachers of Klamath County Institute now assembled that we voice our appreciation of the excellent service rendered us by the instructors of this institute during the past three days.

Therefore, First, Be it Resolved, That we extend our thanks to our worthy State Superintendent, L. R. Alderman, for the words of good cheer and many helpful suggestions he brings us and his efforts to place our schools on a higher plane of efficiency; to Dr. Winslip for his masterful addresses and inspiring suggestions; to Dr. Rubec for his scientific lectures along educational lines; to Mrs. Fulkerson for the common sense way in which she presents her subjects, and to all others who have so ably assisted in making our institute a success.

Second, Be it Further Resolved, That we extend our thanks to the pulpit for the interest shown our work, and to the press of Klamath Falls for the space accorded to the work of the institute, as well as the many announcements to which they have given publicity.

Third, Be it Further Resolved, That we extend to the officers and teachers of the Klamath County High School our thanks for the hearty welcome accorded us and for the use of their building for this institute.

Fourth, Be it Further Resolved, That it is the sense of the institute that the credit system for home duties be given a conservative and careful trial during the coming year.

Fifth, Be it Further Resolved, That the State Text Book commission be urged to consider very seriously the recommendation of lay teachers in the matter of selection of text books for the next six years.

Sixth, Be it Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be made a part of the records of the institute, and that copies be forwarded to the several papers of the county.

KLAMATH MEN ARE INDICTED

PHILLIP LEWIS AND ED GIBSON MUST FACE TRIALS OF VIOLATING FEDERAL LAWS RELATING TO BOOZE

The federal grand jury in session in Portland has failed to find true bills against S. B. Reid and Frank Wintshut, who were recently arrested on the Klamath reservation, charged with selling liquor to Indians.

Indictments were returned, however, against Ed Gibson for selling liquor to an Indian, and Phillip Lewis for taking liquor on a reservation. Both were arrested on the Klamath reservation. Gibson is well known in the Indian country, where he has lived for years.

The true bills returned by the grand jury follow:

Charles Gervais, white slavery; Ray Harold, white slavery; William Patton, selling liquor to an Indian; R. Walton, using the mails to defraud; Phillip Lewis, taking liquor on an Indian reservation; Esther Wood, perjury; Frank Bishop, alias Fred Black, impersonation of a secret service officer; Max G. Cohen, subornation of perjury; Nathan Self, white slavery; Preston Ballard, white slavery; Astor A. Anderson, postmaster at Jewell, in Clatsop county, embezzlement of postoffice funds; Ed Gibson, selling liquor to an Indian; Ah Sing, having contraband opium.

After a hearing the following bills were dismissed: S. B. Reid, charged with selling Indians whiskey; Paul Beattie, charged with white slavery; Glenn Hollister, charged with white slavery; Frank Wintshut, charged with selling liquor to an Indian.

All the defendants named in the true bills are in custody, either in jail or out on bond.

GIVES WARNING FOREIGN PLAN

EUROPEAN AMBASSADOR MAKES A REPORT TO PRESIDENT TAFT CONCERNING CO-OPERATIVE CREDIT SYSTEM

Special to The Herald

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 3.—

A warning to the American people that the great benefits of co-operative credit may be turned into a national calamity if speculation is not guarded against by wisely considered legislation and strict government supervision has been sent by Ambassador Myron T. Herrick to the state department, in connection with the report which he is making as a basis for President Taft's effort to establish co-operative credit in the United States for the benefit of the American farmer.

"I realize," writes Ambassador Herrick, "that the agitation of the financial phase of the agricultural question has undoubtedly brought many people into the field who only see here an opportunity for creating a security which will have a wide market. Of course we cannot prohibit them from entering this field, and organizing under present laws, but I would urge that a timely reminder be given to the people, recalling the infinite harm that came to our country from the exploitation of Europe in our early days of railroad building, with railway securities of unlimited issue, unchecked by any state restrictions.

"There was also the land mortgage craze of some twenty-five or thirty years ago, conducted with unbridled license. There were, indeed, in that movement certain companies, honest and well meaning, but lacking in judgment. Others, however, counted upon the cupidity of the public and victimized the investor to such an extent that land mortgages have been a stench in the nostrils of the investor ever since.

"The plan which I am now at work upon by direction of President Taft is of the greatest magnitude. It affects every individual in the United States. It is essential that the government, both federal and state, assume due responsibility, and thus prevent a recurrence of these errors of the past. This field must not be permitted to be overrun by irresponsible people without check of legislation.

"The study which we have made of the co-operative and mortgage systems of Europe has demonstrated beyond question that these organizations, with or without state aid, but all inspected and carefully guarded by the state, have resulted in financing, in the most satisfactory way, the agricultural interests of all Europe. It has demonstrated as well that these systems may be adopted in the United States, and that we may even, with the experiments of Europe to guide us, vastly improve upon the European systems and do for the American farmer what has been done for the European farmer—create a ready market for agricultural securities at low rates of interest, and with unburdensome amortization, and thus afford a natural increase, and, in some cases, double the production of his soil."

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Stewart of Langell Valley arrived in the city today with their little daughter Charlotte, who will undergo medical treatment.

LESLIE TELLS OF A CYCLONE

WELL KNOWN KLAMATH FALLS MAN RETURNS FROM A TRIP TO MISSOURI, WHERE GREAT DAMAGE WAS DONE

J. W. Leslie, who recently returned to the city from a trip to his former home in Missouri, displayed a number of interesting pictures of damage done by a cyclone which swept over Cass county, Mo., during his visit last summer.

Mr. Leslie was in an adjoining county at the time of the big wind, but hurried to the scene upon receipt of a telegram from a relative who had suffered great loss.

There were 21 lives lost in the storm, and some marvelous escapes from death were reported. A baby was picked up and carried away. The parents followed in the wake of the storm for about 15 miles, expecting to find the mangled remains of their loved one, but no trace of the infant could be found. A couple of days later the baby was found in a meadow, 50 miles from home, and still alive.

MONEY KING FORGETS BIG GIFT

The witness denied that he had communicated with Roosevelt in any manner during the 1904 campaign.

As he left the court room the spectators gave him an ovation. They stood on chairs, seeking a last look at the distinguished financier.

At noon the committee took a recess until tomorrow, when Roosevelt will testify.

Morgan's examination was conducted in the most polite manner. There was no grilling. Once Senator Paynter asked the witness why he had objected to the second contribution in 1904, after he had given $100,000. The witness answered that he had forgotten the first contribution. He said that when the second contribution was asked for $250,000 was wanted. He replied that $50,000 was all that would be given.

In excusing Morgan, Chairman Clapp said that he was entitled to his expenses.

"I guess I can stand it," the witness grinned.
