

ITALIANS AND TURKS WILL GO AT WAR AGAIN

PEACE PACT IS DECLARED OFF, ACCORDING TO REPORT

In the meantime the Ottoman Empire has a sufficiency of trouble in the Balkan states—Hard fighting is going on all along the frontiers of the different nations involved in controversy.

Peace Pact Not Signed PARIS, Oct. 12.—It is reported that the peace pact, recently drawn up and which was to have been signed by the representatives of Italy and Turkey, has been declared off, and the Italian fleet is now en route in an attempt to pass Dardanelles with a view of capturing Constantinople. The straits of Dardanelles are mined, and the representatives of the powers are greatly alarmed.

Stocks Slump United Press Service LONDON, Oct. 12.—Responding to the panicky selling on the continental bourses, stocks have slumped heavily here, and financial leaders regard the Italian outlook as unfavorable.

Violent Fighting Between the Montenegrins and Turks in progress about Scutari. The Turks are trying to hold the town. Turkish accounts of the fighting say that the Albanians are fighting with the Turks. The Montenegrins are retreating by butchering scores of non-combatants.

SOCIALISTS LOSE AT UNION MEET

United Press Service SAN DIEGO, Oct. 12.—After a two hours stormy session, during which it was charged that the proposed method of the referendum system of choosing officers was socialist, and a plot to get control of the state labor convention defeated the Telfer resolution endorsing the plan.

Gallagher led the fight against the plan. The convention approved of a report referring the women's minimum wage measure to the executive council. Overwhelming endorsement was given the demand that the state guarantee to all citizens employment at a living wage.

Fisher and Knox Arrive SEATTLE, Oct. 12.—The cruiser Maryland, with Secretaries Fisher and Knox aboard, arrived here today from the Orient.

RABBES CLOSES HECTOR STORE

ATTACHMENT AS A RESULT OF A SUIT ON A NOTE MEANS THE THOROUGH INVESTIGATION OF PROMINENT CONCERN

As a result of an attachment issued in connection with a suit filed by Henry Rabbes against O. M. Hector to recover about $500 on a note, the Hector Department store has been closed and a representative of the San Francisco Board of Trade, H. S. Adolstein, is now making an inventory of the stock.

Friends of Mr. Hector are confident that a thorough investigation of his business will establish his solvency and result in the re-opening of the store at an early date.

Hold-up Story is Probably Untrue

In a sensational story calculated to further discredit the police, the Wave of indignation this morning prints a thrilling account of the waylaying of an aged man, D. J. Toohy. It was stated that he had been held up and robbed by three young men.

Dr. Wright, a reputable Klamath Falls physician, made an examination this afternoon, and reported that he had found a place on the top of the aged man's head, where the skin had been scratched, such an injury as a man might receive by falling down. There was no other injury.

The truth of the Hutchins assault has not yet been told in the Northwestern, and it might as well be told now. Here is it:

Following the publication of the editorial in the morning paper to the effect that statements had been made by a member of the police force derogatory to the chief of police and the police department, Chief Smith made a personal visit to the Northwestern office to find out the authority for the charge made. Instead of assuming the responsibility for the article in his paper, the editor, Mr. Evans, shouldered the blame on his reporter, R. Vance Hutchins.

Mr. Hutchins was called into the office and admitted that he gave the information and charged a patrolman Hall with telling him that the chief of police had refused to permit Hall to raid a certain gambling game. Determined to find out if this was true, Chief Smith immediately sought the patrolman, and was informed that Mr. Hutchins had lied, and that he had never made such a statement. He further volunteered to go with the chief to Mr. Hutchins and demand that he tell the truth.

The chief informed the patrolman that he expected him to meet Mr. Hutchins, as he was determined to know the truth of the matter and wanted to find out on whom he was to place the blame for the lie that had been published. In the evening Mr. Hall and his chief met Mr. Hutchins on Main street, and Hall demanded a retraction from the reporter. An argument ensued, and on Hutchins suggesting what he would do if Hall had his star off, the patrolman threw off his coat and gave Hutchins a punch in the nose.

As Mr. Hutchins did not put up the least semblance of a fight, the row lasted about two seconds and there was no occasion or possibility of the chief or anyone else interfering. Hutchins there-

ROSE TELLS OF THE GAMBLING IN METROPOLIS

BECKER FACES HIS ACCUSERS IN SUPREME COURT

Witness Declares That Former Police Lieutenant Passed Out the Word That Rosenthal Must Be "Cracked"—Officer Declared That the Police Would Give a Medal to the Murderer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—In the trial of ex-Police Lieutenant Becker today, Jack Rose appeared as a witness. His face was pale and his knees trembled. Becker eyed the witness constantly.

The witness said that he had first met Becker in August, 1911, when Becker raided his gambling place. The two became chummy, and the witness agreed to collect money for Becker.

Rose said that Rosenthal and Becker agreed to go into business together on Forty-fifth street, the witness to be in charge as Becker's representative. He said that the partners quarreled when Rosenthal refused to give up $500 for Charles Tripp, Becker's press agent.

The witness declared that he had protected against the murdering of Rosenthal.

"I want him cracked," Becker replied. "I'll take care of the men doing the job. The sentiment at police headquarters is such that they would give a medal to whoever cracks Rosenthal. Here's a hundred. Give it to Salling and let him want Rosenthal stopped."

Selling dumplings, the witness said. Rose saw Lefty Louie and Whitey Lewis, who agreed to crack Rosenthal.

"GRIZZLY BEAR" IS FORBIDDEN

PENDLETON PEOPLE WILL NOT STAND FOR POPULAR DANCING, TURKEY TROT AND RAGGING UNDER THE BAN

PENDLETON, Oct. 12.—"Ragging" as a form of torchbearance accomplishment, has been placed under a ban at the popular Saturday night dances given in Pendleton. The "Turkey Trot," the "Bunny Hug," the "Grizzly Bear," the "Angeworm Wiggle," and all their kindred, will no more be tolerated where the weekly crowds gather for an indulgence in their periodical pastime. Last Saturday night when the throng collected, they were met by a placard announcing that hereafter "ragging" and walking in two-steps, the same being the "raggy" successor to the glide, would be prohibited.

The edict was received with much disappointment, inasmuch as the craze for the Bowery-born dance had seized upon the local disciples of the dancing man, and its fullest development had almost been reached here. Even society folk "had fallen" for its mysterious movement, and whether or not they will obey the mandate of the dance promoters remains to be seen, for these same dance promoters have no voice in the management of exclusive parties.

Teddy Is in Chicago United Press Service CHICAGO, Oct. 12.—Colonel Roosevelt arrived here at 8 o'clock this morning. He was greeted by great crowds.

Ananias a Piker Compared to Sam

There is such a thing as a poet taking all kinds of liberties with the English language, and no criticism attaches thereto, but when a newspaper deliberately juggles with the truth in an effort to accomplish some particular purpose, whether right or wrong in the opinion of the editor, it is time to call a halt.

The morning newspaper seems to be determined to acquire the master degree in the Ananias Club, and this morning continues a policy, adopted some time ago, which is calculated to accomplish that end. After reciting the fact that Officer Hall appeared before Justice Graves yesterday morning and pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery, the Northwestern goes on to say:

"That this action was taken at the advice of District Attorney Kuykendall is evidenced by the fact that Chief of Police Smith, together with Hall, and Smith, went to the office of Justice Graves, where the proceedings was carried through."

As a matter of fact, Chief of Police Smith and Officer Hall did not call on the district attorney. They did see the district attorney late yesterday afternoon, long after Hall had pleaded guilty to the charge of assault and battery. The officers consulted the district attorney concerning a matter entirely foreign to the assault and battery charge against Hall.

When Officer Hall went to the office of Justice of the Peace Graves he was not accompanied by anyone. He had not seen Chief of Police Smith since the night before.

These facts might have been ascertained by the morning paper, but it seems that lies better serve the purpose.

The Northwestern declares that Chief of Police Smith will resign Monday. The paper says:

Another feature of the scheme by which the real condition of municipal affairs here is sought to be squelched was the notification Mayor Nicholas yesterday by Chief of Police Smith that he would resign his office Monday.

This is an absolute falsehood. Chief of Police Smith did not notify Mayor Nicholas yesterday or at any other time in the past that he would resign.

The Herald believes that the people who are back of Sam Evans and his newspaper will resort to most any course, no matter how unjust, in order to effect the removal of Chief of Police Smith. A few lies matter little. But why? Let's delve into a little recent history:

BOSTON TEAM SEEMS NOW TO BE A WINNER

THIRD VICTORY IS CHALKED UP FOR RED SOX

Bedient Holds Hard-Hitting Giants Down and Mathewson Loses Up in Hot Single Inning—Pinch-Hitter McCormick Saves the New York Team From Receiving a Complete Shut-Out.

Wood Will Pitch United Press Service BOSTON, Oct. 12.—Because New York and Boston are Sunday towns there will be no game tomorrow. It is conceded that the victory today practically clinches the championship for Boston, especially as Wood pitches again on Monday and the Giants must win three straight games to capture the championship.

BOSTON, Oct. 12.—A holiday mob of Boston baseball fans became raving maniacs this afternoon when the Red Sox snatched the third victory from New York Giants in the world championship series. One more victory for the home team means the winning of the world's championship.

The game today was probably the best of the season. Bedient, with perfect support, had the Giants eating out of his hand, except in the seventh, when Pinch-Hitter McCormick was called in to bat, with Morike on second base. The team of the big league emergency hitters delivered the goods and the Giants secured their only score.

Mathewson, dean of the big trash mound performers, was never better. He failed in the third half, and half of all the safe singles charged against him were made in that inning, with the result that Boston scored two runs. Not again did Matty loosen up. He pitched winning ball, but the lead gained by the Red Sox was too great.

The game might well be characterized as a pitcher's battle, with perfect fielding as a side attraction. Bedient had a trifle the best of the battle, as the summary shows. But four hits are charged up against him during the entire nine innings, whereas Matty must answer for six, three of which were made in the fatal third inning.

The batteries announced at the start of the game were Mathewson and Moses for New York, and Bedient and Cady for Boston.

UNION LEADERS LOSE A POINT

FEDERAL JUDGE DENIES MOTION TO ALLOW THE DEFENSE TO EXAMINE THE EXHIBITS NOW HELD BY THE GOVERNMENT

United Press Service INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 12.—Judge Anderson overruled two motions by the defense in the dynamite case. The first provided that the defense be allowed to inspect in advance the exhibits of the government. The second asked the government to return to the ironworkers all union documents, letters and papers seized last year, and which the prosecution intends to present during the trial.

R. J. Rutherford, an Omaha hotel keeper, testified that McManis had been in his hotel in 1910. The testimony of other hotel keepers has traced McManis, Nesbitt and Jim McNamara to Cincinnati, Ohio and elsewhere.

SALOON MEN TO HAVE COMPLAINT

NEW CHARTER WILL ALLOW SEVERAL MORE SALOONS, ACCORDING TO LIQUOR DEALERS WHO HAVE INVESTIGATED

This afternoon a number of citizens took advantage of the invitation of the charter commission, and examined the document which has just been completed, and which will soon be presented to the electors for rejection or approval.

Notable among the objections which have been raised against the charter is the provision which allows a liquor license to any hotel having fifty or more rooms. The charter provides that the number of saloons in the city is dependent on the population, just as does the present charter, except that it is provided that it is permissible to grant extra licenses to hotels, when the law is complied with.

In the event of the charter being adopted it is argued that there will at once be made applications for licenses for three other saloons under the 50-room clause.

COLUMBUS DAY IS CELEBRATED

ANNIVERSARY OF THE DISCOVERY OF AMERICA IS FITTINGLY COMMEMORATED IN NEW YORK—FLEET IS REVIEWED.

United Press Service NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Six thousand marines and blue jackets were in a parade here today celebrating the anniversary of the discovery of America by Columbus. The opening ceremony was the annual fall review of the Atlantic fleet. The review will end Tuesday. The president and Secretary of War Meyer, aboard the Mayflower, are reviewing the ships.

U. S. RIDERS MAKE RECORD

TROOPERS MARCH ALL NIGHT AND HALT ONLY AT INTERVALS TO ALLOW HORSES TO GRAZE FOR FEW MOMENTS

United Press Service WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—A strenuous hike of 76 miles at a stretch without sleep or extended rest, and every man and horse in perfect condition, was the rare feat which Troop G of the Fifth United States Cavalry, on duty in Honolulu, recently accomplished. War department officials here say theirs is the record for the army in the islands, and it has caused much favorable comment in service circles.

The troopers marched all night, halting only at intervals of about three hours to allow the horses to graze for about fifteen minutes. The men, who were on the journey nine hours, took only two sandwiches apiece and a canteen of cold coffee. The results of the march show, officials in charge of the forces on the islands say, that the soldiers are in the best of condition, and are fit for the hardest test should they be called on to make it.

POPULAR PLAYS PLEASE PEOPLE

MANION-CLAMAN PLAYERS WILL CONCLUDE ENGAGEMENT AT THE OPERA HOUSE WITH PERFORMANCE THIS EVENING

The Manion-Claman players literally "packed 'em in" at the matinee in Houston's opera house this afternoon.

Long before the hour of starting the matinee there was a steady stream of youngsters, dressed in holiday attire, on route to the theater, and by the time the curtain rose there was not a particle of room to spare. The company will conclude its engagement with a performance tonight.

AUTO WAR NOW BEING WAGED

PASSENGERS ARE BEING TRANSPORTED FROM THIS CITY TO LAKEVIEW, 110 MILES, FREE OF CHARGE

The annual automobile rate war between this city and Lakeview is now in progress and, as a result, two auto loads of passengers traveled 110 miles between this city and the Lake county metropolis free of charge.

"We'll buy them their dinner, too, if they haven't got the price," said W. J. Clapp, manager of the Clapp Auto company, who was the chauffeur in charge of one of the cars.

It appears that three weeks ago Bruce Thornton of Lakeview started carrying passengers between this city and Lakeview in opposition to the Clapp Auto company and the White Pelican garage. It is claimed that Mr. Thornton started to cut the price, which is $15. Manager Gordon of the White Pelican garage and Manager Clapp of the Clapp Auto company held a consultation a few days ago, and decided not to cut the price, but to carry passengers for nothing whenever one of Mr. Thornton's machines was to make a trip.

The situation is that whenever a Thornton machine arrives in Klamath Falls passengers may travel on one of the Clapp Auto company's machines or one owned and operated by the White Pelican garage without paying a cent. But when Mr. Thornton is not represented in the city by a machine the charge is as usual, $15.

CHILCOTE IS POOR HUNTER

REAL DEER MAN RETURNS FROM A THREE DAYS' HUNTING TRIP WITHOUT VENISON—HE GIVES EXPLANATION

Although E. M. Chilcote, the real estate dealer, saw five deer yesterday morning, just as he and Dr. Fred Westerfeld broke camp on Johnson Creek, the two hunters returned to this city last night without an ounce of venison, after a three days' hunting trip.

"The nearest of the deer I saw," explained Mr. Chilcote this morning, "was a doe. Of course I made an effort to bring her down. The other four were bucks, but they were too far away."

Prior to leaving on the trip, Mr. Chilcote had promised to break a record by killing the legal limit in three days. Hence the explanation.

Wilson's Voice Huffers United Press Service HARRISBURG, Pa., Oct. 12.—Woodrow Wilson arrived here this morning, en route home. He has made seventy-five speeches in ten states. His voice is frazzled, but he is satisfied with the results. He will speak in New York tonight.

BLACK MUST BE KEPT PRISONER

JUDGE BELIEVES PLEA THAT PRISONER WOULD FLEE IF GIVEN AN OPPORTUNITY—CANNOT RAISE BAIL

United Press Service SAN JOSE, Oct. 12.—Black, the banker, unable to get bail, is very cheerful. He occupies a cell recently vacated by Jackson Hatch.

Judge Wallace refused to lower the bail because of a plea by the prosecution that Black intended to flee.
