GRANGE DEFINES STAND TO TAKE

MAJORITY RULE AMENDMENT IS STRONGLY ENDORSED—FORCEFUL RESOLUTIONS ARE ADOPTED BY THE FARMERS

LA GRANDE, Ore., Oct. 15.—Indorsement of the so-called majority amendment to the constitution, to be voted on at the November election, was given by the Blue Mountain Grange No. 345, at its last meeting. The grange unanimously adopted a resolution, in which it held that the present excessive use of the initiative is its worst enemy, and expressed the belief that a remedy lies in the proposed measure, making necessary a majority vote of all electors at any election to change the constitution.
The resolution adopted by the grange follows:
Whereas, Blue Mountain Grange has been and is friendly to the initiative and referendum; and since it is the sense of this grange that the present excessive use of the initiative is its worst enemy—there are now before the people of Oregon certain proposed constitutional amendments that threaten with calamity the business of the state;
Resolved, That the grange do hereby endorse the majority amendment to the constitution, and do hereby urge the people of Oregon to vote for the same at the November election.

CARETAKER IS NEEDED BY CITY

COUNCIL WILL EMPLOY A MAN TO LOOK OUT FOR THE FIRE DEPARTMENT EQUIPMENT—WOMEN ARE THANKED

A motion to instruct the city attorney to prepare an ordinance or a resolution providing for the employment of a man to have charge of the fire department equipment was carried at the meeting of the city council last night. It did not appear to be the consensus of opinion that the office of chief of fire department, established, but it was concluded that a salaried man should have charge of the caring for the hose and other equipment.
A resolution asking the city council to take charge of twenty garbage cans recently placed on the streets by the Woman's Civic League was adopted by the council and a vote of thanks to the women was extended.
Complaints that stray horses have been doing damage on the outskirts of the city were received. The city attorney advised the council that the law did not distinguish between horses owned in the country and those owned in the city, but all are amenable to the same laws.

Citizen Urges a Plan to Help Those in Need

Bureau of Investigation to Work in Conjunction With a Municipal Committee. Deemed Allright

Editor Herald:
Up to the present there have been few subjects of charity in Klamath Falls, but in view of additional population and more settled conditions an organization should be formed to take upon itself the relief of the poor in this city during the coming and succeeding winters. It is a difficult thing to give just what is needed and at the proper time and in the proper amount, as is realized by wealthy benefactors who employ expertly to study the claims upon their bounty.

United Press Service
BOSTON, Oct. 15.—"Smoky" Joe Wood was put out of commission in the first frame of the seventh game of the world's championship series played here today, and the National League team now has an even break for the hunting. The last and deciding game will be played tomorrow.

Mugy McGraw's youngsters landed on the Boston side this afternoon for a total of eight bingles in the first inning, and scored six runs, giving a lead which the bean eaters were unable to overcome.
The game was a veritable swiftest, with everybody fattening up batting averages.

Wood was taken out after one inning and Hall substituted. He permitted the Giants to amass five runs, but he distinguished himself as the batting pitcher of the series, with a total of three hits, one of which was for an extra base.

The batteries at the start were Wood and Cady for Boston and Tee-reau and Myers for New York.

First Inning
Devore singled. Doyle followed with a single and they worked a double steal. Snodgrass doubled, scoring Devore and Doyle. Murray sacrificed. Merkle singled, scoring Snodgrass. Herzog singled and Merkle was run down. Meyers singled, scoring Herzog. Fletcher singled. Tee-reau singled. Meyers scoring. Fletcher scored on a throw, but Tee-reau was put out at second. Six runs.

Hooper fanned. Yerkes drew a pass. Speaker fied out. Lewis out. No runs.
Second Inning
Hall replaced Wood. Devore walked and stole second. Doyle walked.
