SOCIALISTS ARE INDICTED BY A PORTLAND JURY

ATTACK ON ROOSEVELT ARIK OBJECTED TO

During the Colonel's Recent Visit to the Rose City, It is Charged That Eight Prominent Men Conned Scandalous Circulars to Be Issued—The Ex-President is Called a Would-be Murderer

United Press Service

PORTLAND, Oct. 17.—The Multnomah county grand jury today returned indictments against eight prominent socialists on charges of issuing scurrilous circulars attacking Colonel Roosevelt and Nicholas Longworth during Roosevelt's recent visit to Portland.

The circulars dubbed Roosevelt a "would-be murderer," and accused Longworth with having property devoted to the social evil.

Williams Disapproves

United Press Service
LOS ANGELES, Oct. 17.—Commenting on the indictments against the Portland socialists, Thomas Williams, secretary of the socialist party in California, said:

"If these men are guilty they should get their just deserts. They must have acted on their own initiative. The socialists disagree with Roosevelt politically, but there is no personal quarrel. Any charge of immorality against Roosevelt and Alice Longworth is preposterous. The California socialists regret the attempt on Roosevelt's life as much as anyone."

ARIZONA CATTLE ARE INSPECTED

LOCAL MEN GO TO MIDLAND TO SEE BUNCH OF LIVESTOCK BROUGHT HERE FROM THE FAR SOUTH

Quite a number of citizens went to Midland yesterday and today to examine the bunch of cattle shipped from Arizona by L. Gerber and Alex Davis. There are about 1,600 in the bunch, and 700 of the 2-year-olds are being fed at the S. S. Low ranch.

Alex Davis went to Midland this morning, where the balance are, to assist in separating the cattle. A number of those belonging to Davis will be taken to Sprague River, where Mr. Davis has purchased hay from Bill Smith.

The local people expected to see a lot of long-horn Texas cattle, but instead they found a fine bunch of Herefords, which are said to equal any of the cattle raised in Klamath county. While a few of these cattle will be fed for beef, the greater portion will be wintered and turned out on the range next summer and placed on the market next fall. There is a plentiful supply of hay in the country this year, while the supply of cattle is short.
