KLAMATH COUNTY MAN IS LOSER

VERDICT IS RENDERED AGAINST J. D. HAMAKER AND OTHERS IN THE FEDERAL COURT IN SESSION IN MEDFORD

The United States government was given judgment for $18,999 against J. D. Hamaker and $5,865 against Hamaker and John Stindt jointly by Judge Wolverton of the United States district court in session in Medford.

These sums are the value of timber cut from the public lands by Hamaker and Stindt, who operated a small portable sawmill in Lake county for a number of years. The government allows every citizen to cut 500 worth of timber from public lands each year for his own domestic use, and the sawmill operators claimed that they cut the timber under contracts from settlers, taking part of it as their payment. Judge Wolverton upheld their defense, holding that the settlers had the right to make such contracts in exercise of their right to cut timber to the value of $50 a year, but the amount of timber cut by Hamaker and Stindt exceeded the amount of such contracts by nearly 2,000,000 feet, which Judge Wolverton held to be worth $10 a thousand.

Bykes Hamaker and Elise McClelland, who also were sued on the same grounds, proved that they cut only such timber as they had contracts with settlers for and the cases against them were dismissed by the court. Robert F. Maguire, assistant United States attorney, represented the government in the case, which was recently tried at Medford.

GOOD COFFEE WINS HUBBY

WOMAN DID NOT HAVE TO WAIT LONG FOR HER HUSBAND TO COME BACK TO HER AFTER A DIVORCE SUIT

CINCINNATI, Oct. 17.—Because she could make such good coffee, Mrs. Maggie Schrader did not have to wait long for her husband to remarry her after she had divorced him once, but now she again has entered court and filed a second suit for divorce.

"My husband just loves my coffee and used to drink three cups every morning as he was getting dressed to go to work," said Mrs. Schrader. "He would take one cup before he shaved. It's not hard to make good coffee."

FRIENDS TRADE THEIR WIVES

BARBER AND RAILROAD STATION AGENT ARE BEST OF FRIENDS, AND AGREE TO A STRANGE PROPOSITION

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Oct. 15.—John Heath, Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe agent at Gower, Mo., and A. L. Montgomery, a barber, have exchanged wives. Heath was divorced from his wife, Blanche, at Plattsburg, ten days ago. He alleged she was extravagant. Montgomery was given a divorce at the same time, his charge being his wife also was extravagant.

Montgomery and Mrs. Heath were married in Kansas City Tuesday and returned to Gower. Heath and Mrs. Montgomery were married at Maryville, Mo., by Rev. Lee Harrell.

Gower people are incensed at the action. The two families have been intimate, and it was agreed that all would take a trial at the divorce courts, with a subsequent reversed second trip to the altar. Heath and Montgomery are personal friends.

LYCEUM COURSE WILL BE GOOD

R. H. DUNBAR TELLS OF THE ATTRACTIONS WHICH HAVE BEEN SECURED FOR THE COMING WINTER SEASON

"It is with no little degree of pride that the Klamath Lyceum Bureau announces its list of attractions for 1913-12," said R. H. Dunbar this afternoon.

"The bureau has spared no expense in securing, as it has reason to think, as good talent as will appear on the coast this season."

It would seem that the public generally should give its hearty support to this cause, and to this end the citizens of Klamath Falls are solicited to aid in furthering this educational movement.

While the five entertainments of last year were good; the nine of this year promise to surpass in every respect.

"The first entertainment will be by the Fisher Shipp Concert company, and will consist of a great variety, as you will see by the following copied from their folder:

"In the Fisher Shipp company the management has combined the two prime essentials of a popular lyceum organization, high standard of individuality and perfect concerted work in the ensemble features which form a large part of their program. Their program is of great variety, no two numbers on it being alike. A large part of their program is owned by the company, and can be given by no other organization. In addition to the vocal solos and duets, instrumental solos, duets, readings and the musical numbers in which the whole company appears, the program includes several sketches which have been a great success in the past six years of the company's existence."

The Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church will meet Friday at 2:30 p. m. at Madison's Music Store. 16-2f

UNTRUE WIVES ARE EXPOSED

EXCITED MAN LAYS IN WAIT FOR HIS OWN WIFE, AND THE SECRETS OF MANY OTHERS ARE THUS REVEALED

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 17.—An excited man rushed up to a motion picture theater Monday night and informed the young woman at the window that his wife was in the theater with another man, and that he was going to shoot them as they came out.

A crowd collected, and the young woman hurried back to notify the manager. The latter, wishing to avoid bloodshed, mounted the stage and announced to the spectators that a man was waiting outside to kill his wife and the man with her. He suggested that the pair leave the theater by the rear exit.

Within ten minutes eleven pairs had hurried from the theater by the back door.

Gets Choice Steak

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—An unknown admiral has sent Colonel Roosevelt a steak from a bull moose, recently shot. The doctors permitted him to eat it.

The Colonel grinned, and ordered the steak cooked hunting style, with salt pork, flapjacks, baking powder biscuits and coffee with condensed milk.

MILWAUKEE, Oct. 17.—Schrank spent this morning writing. He tore up the sheets, however, and refused to divulge what he had written.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—At 1 o'clock the following bulletin was issued: "Colonel Roosevelt's pulse, temperature and respiration are normal. The blood count has also dropped to normal. His breathing is easier. Signed: Doctors Murphy, Boyan and Terrell."

JUDGE WORDEN TO GO TO MEETING

IMPORTANT MATTERS PREFERENTIAL TO ROAD BUILDING WILL BE TAKEN UP IN CINCINNATI IN DECEMBER

An effort will probably be made to induce Judge Worden to attend the American Good Roads congress and the American Road Builders Association meeting to be held in Cincinnati, Ohio, December 3 to 6, inclusive.

The governor of Ohio has caused to be issued invitations to all governors to appoint delegates to the congress and convention who are interested in all highway improvements, and all road and street officials and organizations which have for their purpose road construction are invited to participate.

The foremost road building and paving experts in the United States and Canada will be assembled at this congress and convention for the purpose of discussing the many problems connected with highway and street improvement.

It is anticipated that this will be the largest meeting of practical road builders that has ever assembled in the United States. The program will cover practical questions relating to highway work, including the designs for complete highway systems for cities, counties and states; detail plans for construction, the selection of materials and other points of technical interest.

The convention is endorsed by Samuel Hill, one of the most enthusiastic road builders of this state and a national authority on good roads.

WIRE SLEEPS IN STREET, AFTERWARDS PINCHED

UNACUSTOMED TO ALCOHOLIC STIMULANTS, CAMP TENDER FALLS FROM GRACE, BUT HIS MONEY IS NOT LOST

In spite of reports to the contrary, the Klamath Falls police are capable of resisting opportunities to enrich themselves in ways considered not exactly according to Hoyle or Blackstone. This was demonstrated last night when D. A. Wire, a camp tender for Dave Adler, was arrested.

Wire had come to the city with a band of sheep, and after performing his duties, he proceeded to view the white lights. Not being accustomed to alcoholic stimulants, it was not long before he was out of commission. Selecting a soft place in a cross street, he went to sleep. Officer Greenwood found him and took him to the city jail, where a search disclosed the fact that Wire had in his possession $30.95.

In police court this morning Wire paid a fine of $5 and was given his money.
