TAX MATTERS TO TAKE ATTENTION

The following is taken from the pamphlet compiled by the secretary of state for the information of electors:

Senate Joint Resolution. For Proposed Amendment to the Constitution of the State of Oregon, to Be Submitted to the People for Their Approval or Rejection at the Regular Election in November, 1912.

Section 1. The legislative assembly shall, and the people through the initiative may, provide by law uniform rules of taxation, except on property specifically taxed. Taxes shall be levied on such property as shall be prescribed by law. The legislative assembly, or the people through the initiative, may provide for the levy and collection of taxes for state purposes and for county and for other municipal purposes on different classes of property, and may provide for the ascertainment, determination and application of an average rate of levy and taxation on property taxed for state purposes. The legislative assembly, or the people through the initiative, may provide by reasonable and equitable rates for the apportioning of any state tax among the several counties as county obligations to the state.

Argument Submitted by C. P. Strain, Assessor of Umatilla County, Ore. The parasites and tax eaters who feed upon the public revenues are advocates of whatever tax device is best calculated to secure the most "feathers with the least squawking." Senate joint resolution is admirably fitted to serve such an end. It paves the way for separating the subjects of taxation, and such separation would permit the legislature to select at will a few of the choicest subjects for their own exclusive use.
