A Safe Investment

Well located Main street property is probably the safest investment in the Klamath Falls. Just now I have the exclusive sale of a 10-40, city on Main street, with new build concrete building. It gives a sure income, is near the center of business and getting better every day. If interested come in and ask the price and terms. Also ask me about some vacant Main street property.

KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON
WEDNESDAY, OCT. 26, 1916

IRWIN NOT TO BLAME

BE-LIEVING that John Irwin was well qualified for the office of district attorney, The Herald was instrumental in inducing him to make the race. There has been no change in this belief. Now this paper is actually worried over Mr. Irwin's chances of election. His friends must rally to his support. His success at the polls has been placed in jeopardy. The Northwestern has come out for him. The Herald will continue to support Mr. Irwin in spite of his present handicap.

Mr. Irwin must not be blamed for the morning paper's support. He is not in the same position as the farmer boy, who, love sick, attempted to hang himself. Sam Evans is forcing himself on John Irwin. The farmer boy selected his own handicap. He secured a halter from the barn, tied one end around his neck, and the other to a rafter. Then he jumped from a box.

The farmer heard unusual sounds coming from the barn, and hurried to see what was happening. He found his son hanging from the rafter. Quickly the father cut the halter rope.

"Oh, father, why did you do it?" moaned the youth, as he dropped to the floor. "I was just about to enter Heaven."

"You enter Heaven!" snorted the farmer. "You'd look like the dickens gain' to Heaven with old Sam's halter 'round your neck!"

Very convenient, isn't it, Mr. Business Man, to have things written so you can understand? But you can always trust Sammy, the mental giant, not to take advantage of your ignorance. Sammy is ethical, and he explains to you in such a way that you are able to grasp his meaning.

Argument (Negative) Submitted by People's Power League of Oregon

This is an amendment to abolish the initiative. The scheme for a "constitutional convention" was killed two years ago. Now this scheme is offered. It is the plan we had in Oregon from 1857 to 1900, and in those fifty-three years no constitutional amendment ever received enough votes to be adopted.

When charges against grafting aldermen were made The Herald had the sworn affidavits of responsible citizens. The Northwestern attempts to deprive a few police officers of their bread and butter without a hearing and on the unsupported statement of one of its hired men, who has admitted that he is qualified to join an American club.

Is it the folk, Sammy, or did you lose that sentence from the Klamath Development company?

And now C. F. Stone's law practice may be expected to grow rapidly. Sammy has "taken a fall out of him."

In spite of the fact that Sammy compares his newspaper work in this city to the acts of the Lord a few centuries ago, it is doubtful if he came to Klamath Falls. He would edit the Northwestern along the lines now followed.

MAJORITY RULE BILL IS NOW DISCUSSED

Article XVII—Amendments
Section 1. Amendments to Constitution: Few Made—Any amendment or amendments to this constitution may be proposed in either branch of the legislative assembly, and if the same shall be agreed to by a majority of all the members elected to each of the two houses, such proposed amendment or amendments shall, with the yeas and nays thereon, be entered in their journals and referred by the secretary of state to the people for their approval or rejection, at the next regular election, except when the legislative assembly shall order a special election for that purpose. If a majority of the total number of electors voting or casting ballots in the election shall vote in favor of any such amendment, it shall thereby become a part of this constitution. The votes for and against such amendment or amendments, severally, whether proposed by the legislative assembly or by initiative petition, shall be canvassed by the secretary of state in the presence of the governor, and if it shall appear to the governor that the majority of the total number of electors voting or casting ballots at said election have voted in favor of said amendment or amendments, severally, it shall be his duty forthwith after such canvass, by his proclamation, to declare the said amendment or amendments, severally, having received the majority of the total number of votes or ballots cast in the election to have been adopted by the people of Oregon as part of the constitution thereof, and the same shall be in effect as a part of the constitution from the date of such proclamation. When two or more amendments shall be submitted in the manner aforesaid to the voters of this state, at the same election, they shall be so submitted that each amendment shall be voted on separately. No convention shall be called to amend or propose amendments to this constitution, or to propose a new constitution, unless the law providing for such convention shall first be approved by the people on a referendum vote at a regular general election. This article shall not be construed to impair the right of the people to amend this constitution by vote upon an initiative petition therefor.

THE LONG, HOT, WEARY DAY
Is sure to have a pleasant and refreshing effect for those who have anything but a properly appointed bathroom on tap. And modern sanitary plumbing has placed them at the disposal of rich and poor alike, for few purveyors nowadays are so limited as not to be able to afford what was a few years ago an almost priceless luxury. If you desire to know all about what a moderate sum they can be installed, call up ORRELLY.

We Welcome Small Deposits

Did you ever stop to think that a hundred small accounts make a bank stronger than a dozen large ones? That is one of our reasons for urging the man of limited means to transact his business with us. Large accounts are welcome, too, for it is our purpose to serve ALL the people.
It matters not what amount of money you have to deposit—we will accept it at this bank. We welcome the small depositor, we extend to him the same cordiality and courtesies accorded to all of our patrons.
Our customers all know this.
