LYCEUM COURSE IS TO BE ATTRACTIVE

The executive committee of the Lyceum Bureau is busy completing arrangements for the strongest series of entertainments ever brought to this county. Pupils from the city schools and from the high school are canvassing the town in an attempt to reach every citizen.
At a meeting last night it was decided to open the board for reservations at the Bonbonier at 4 o'clock next Saturday.
The season will open at Houston's opera house next Monday night, with the Fischer Shipp Concert company in a series of concert pieces and dramatic readings, which have pleased audiences everywhere.
Ross Crane, the world famed cartoonist, artist and modeler, will be here November 6th.
On December 16 Margaret Stahl will appear in her wonderful program of interpretive recitals, followed on January 9 by the Original Carlinian Jubilee Singers, famous all over America for their jolly program.

On January 15, the Cosmopolitan Four will present a series of vocal, string, brass, orchestral music, together with Mexican and Spanish quartets.
Robert Parker Miles, one of the world's greatest dramatic lecturers who has probably pleased as many audiences as any man on the American platform today, will deliver one of his inspiring and inimitable discourses on January 29th.
The renowned stereopticon views offered on the evenings of February 9-10, by Ford E. Samuel are expected to inspire and please everybody.
The course will close in a fine climax with the Stars, the great artists, impersonators and entertainers.

RESTORES GRAY HAIR
TO NATURAL COLOR
BY COMMON GARDEN SAGE, A SIMPLE REMEDY FOR DAND-
RUFF, FALLING, FADING, GRAY
HAIR

The old idea of using Sage for darkening the hair is again coming in vogue. Our grandmothers had dark, glossy hair at seventy-five, while our mothers are gray before they are fifty. Our grandmothers kept their hair soft and glossy with a "Sage Tea," which also restored the natural color.
One objection to using such a preparation was the trouble of making it. This objection has been overcome by the Wyeth Chemical Company of New York, who has placed on the market a superior preparation of Sage, combined with Sulphur and other valuable remedies for dandruff, itching scalp, and this, weak, falling hair.
The beauty of the hair depends more on its rich, even shading than anything else. Don't have dry, harsh, faded hair, when a simple, harmless remedy will bring back the color in a few days; and don't be tormented with dandruff, itching scalp and loose falling hair. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur remedy will quickly correct these troubles and give color, strength and beauty to your hair.
Get a fifty cent bottle from your druggist today, and prove this to your own satisfaction. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.
