KLAMATH FALLS, OREGON
MONDAY, OCT. 28, 1918

WOLF! WOLF!

ACCORDING to the morning paper, Governor West will arrive in the city and attend the city council meeting tonight. This same morning paper told a story about a man hitting another man in the head with an ax. This same morning paper recently printed an "Appeal for Help."

Recalling these recent events, there will not be a delegation down to the dog to receive the state's chief executive, who, probably, is coming here only in the fertile imagination of Sam Evans.

And now Sammy is trying to qualify as a jurist. He says The Herald is ungrammatical, and quotes the following from The Herald to prove it:
"But there is objection to the governor coming here for the avowed purpose of 'cleaning up' the city."

In the meantime there is no denial of the suggestion that a man named Hotelling, head of a San Francisco whisky house, is the real owner of the Northwestern.

Funny that Sammy forgot all about the whisky business when he made that evasive statement as to ownership of the morning newspaper.

And now Sammy says that somebody threatened to burn him, using the mails to make the threat. The Herald does not believe that there is any person in the city who would thus abuse good law. But maybe Sammy is only issuing another "Appeal for Help."

Wonder if Sammy's own statement as to circulation is as truthful as his oath as to ownership?

We, one's editor do not necessarily sue with laughter, as suggested by Sammy, but it is truly funny to find the personal organ of a San Francisco whisky house talking about the evils of drink.

When Sam Evans' petition urging Governor West to come to this city was being circulated here it was presented to a well known divine, who signed it, stipulating that his signature was only to be used in the event of it being proven that the charges made were true. It is a notable fact that this minister's signature was not used.

OLD TIME REMEDY

DARKENS THE HAIR

GIVES COLOR, LUSTRE TO FADED
AND GRAY HAIR—DANDRUFF QUICKLY REMOVED

For generations Sage and Sulphur have been used for hair and scalp troubles. Almost everyone knows the value of such a combination for keeping the hair a good even color, for curing dandruff, itching scalp and falling hair, and for promoting the growth of the hair. Years ago the only way to get a Hair Tonic of this kind was to make it in the home, which was troublesome and not always satisfactory. Nowadays almost any up-to-date druggist can supply his patrons with a ready-to-use product, skillfully prepared in perfectly equipped laboratories.

An ideal preparation of this sort is Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, in which Sage and Sulphur are combined with other valuable remedies for scalp troubles and this weak hair that is losing its color or coming out. After using this remedy for a few days, you will notice the color gradually coming back, your scalp will feel better, the dandruff will soon be gone, and in less than a month's time there will be a wonderful difference in your hair.

Don't neglect your hair if it is full of dandruff, losing its color or coming out. Get a 50¢ bottle of Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, and see what a few days' treatment will do for you. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.

POPULAR BOTH AS SINGER AND READER

Miss Fisher Shipp Praised by Press and Public.

Miss Fisher Shipp is among the elect of the lyceum artists. The people have chosen and applauded her from coast to coast. She is praised in the highest terms by public and press both as reader and singer. It is doubtful in which branch of art she is most popular. She takes the leading part also in a musical and dramatic sketch, ably supported by members of her company, and the audience is convinced that she might become a most successful actress.

Her accomplishments are of such merit that it is difficult to secure accomplishments whose work will not seem commonplace by comparison and be unappreciated, but in this respect there is a contrast only in the nature of their work and not in the quality. It is in every respect a well-balanced and harmonious company that renders programs to be long remembered with pleasure.

The personnel consist of Miss Fisher Shipp, reader and soprano; Miss Pauline Harrington, alto; Miss Marion Berry, violinist; Lloyd A. Lee, mandolin, mandola, piano and manager.

When on Road

FREDERICK, N. J., Oct. 28.— Woodrow Wilson started for Westchester, Pa., today. He will speak twice in Philadelphia tonight. He will tour New Jersey Thursday and will speak in Rochester Friday.

A Safe Investment

Well located Main street property is probably the safest investment in the Klamath Falls. Just now I have the exclusive sale of a 20-ft. strip on Main street, with new solid concrete near the center of business and getting better every day. If interested come in and ask the price and terms.

Also ask me about some vacant Main street property.

MINISTERS ADOPT RESOLUTIONS

DEATH OF MOTHER OF REV. GEO. H. FEESE IS MADE OCCASION FOR MEETING OF LOCAL ASSOCIATION

A meeting of the Ministers' Association was held Saturday afternoon and passed the following resolution: It is Resolved, That we express our sympathy to our beloved president, the Rev. Geo. H. Feeze, and his family, in their sorrow because of the death of his mother.

Jesus said: "What I do, thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter." It is true that God's ways are past finding out. He plants his footprints upon the sea, and rides upon the storm. To you, our beloved brother, and family, we extend our heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour through which you are passing. Because our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove your dear mother from your home to His home above. It is true that "A boy's best friend is his mother." Her loving prayers and kind advice that have blessed you in life will still be a benediction to you.
Though she is removed from your presence, yet, up there, in heaven, near the side of her Savior, she will still intercede for you. We realize that our words are inadequate to express to you the sympathy that your heart needs; but your devotion to God and your resignation to his will in matters over which we have no control—these will help and sustain you in your loneliness and sorrow.

It is also Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be filed with the minutes of the Ministers' Association, a copy be sent to Rev. Geo. H. Feeze and family, and a copy be given to each of the local papers.

E. M. FLINN,
Secretary Ministers' Association of Klamath Falls.
