KLAMATH FALLS . . . OREGON

WENDNESDAY, NOV. 13, 1912

TO BOOST HOME MADE PRODUCTS

GOVERNOR WEST SETS ASIDE A DAY ON WHICH HE ASKS THAT ALL FACTORIES BE SHUT DOWN FOR AN HOUR

PORTLAND, Nov. 13.—All Oregon will unite in a movement to boost Oregon made goods on November 21. Governor West has issued a proclamation declaring November 21 Home Industries Day, and the committee on arrangements for the big manufacturers' gathering outlined plans for the proposed convention and banquet in Portland, the hub of the state's industrial activities.

Governor West's proclamation follows:

"Whereas, The growth and prosperity of a state depend to a great extent upon its manufacturing industries for the reason that the factory converts the raw material of the forest and stream and farm and mine into products of higher value, giving employment to thousands who would otherwise have no means of livelihood, and,

"Whereas, It is only by arousing the people to the importance of creating and patronizing home industries that we can hope for success along these lines;

"Therefore, in view of the foregoing premises, I, Oswald West, governor, by virtue of the authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim Thursday, November 21, 1912, as 'Home Industries Day.'

"To make this day an impressive object lesson to the whole state there should be some concerted action toward increasing the demand for Oregon made products. To this end I would suggest that every manufacturing establishment of the state close down for an hour during Home Industries Day and the managers call their employes together and give them a heart to heart talk on the importance of building up our home industries and set an example by declaring their intention to use, as far as practicable, only home grown products and home made machinery in their establishments.

"I would suggest also that on Home Industries Day every man and woman in Oregon, in doing their shopping, purchase only "made in Oregon" products. Merchants should help by making attractive window displays of such products.

"I would suggest that the subject be discussed in our public schools and institutions of learning, in order that it may be impressed on the minds of the young, for the time will come when these same children must have employment, and unless they can find it with the industries of our state they must seek it in other states.

"Success along these lines can only come through the hearty co-operation of all good citizens, and I bespeak for the cause such co-operation."

DID WEST LOSE LAND OF STATE?

GOVERNOR SAYS HE HAS BEEN ON THE JOB ALL OF THE TIME, BUT THE ATTORNEY GENERAL HOLDS DIFFERENT VIEW

SALEM, Nov. 13.—Replying to a charge made against him by Attorney General Crawford that he had lost to the state $50,000 in school lands by failing to heed the attorney general's advice to ask congress for a donation to the state of certain lands surrounding salt lakes in Lake county, Governor West declares that he asked congress to pass such a bill, but that it has failed so far to do so.

The governor used school land scrip in selecting the lands surrounding the lakes. The attorney general advised him to have the Oregon delegation use its influence with congress to pass a law donating the land to the state. This, the attorney general declared, the governor had failed to do, and that should it transpire that the lakes are not valuable for salt the $50,000 of school land scrip would be lost. Governor West declares that such a bill was introduced in congress in April of this year, but that its passage was delayed, and that it will come up for consideration at the next session.

TO RUSH CANVAS OF THE RETURNS

VOTES FOR WOMEN WILL BE PUT THROUGH AS RAPIDLY AS POSSIBLE BECAUSE OF SOME MUNICIPAL ELECTIONS

SALEM, Nov. 13.—Stating that he had been advised that there will be a number of municipal elections in the state in November and December, Secretary of State Olcott has declared that he will hurry the canvass on the woman's suffrage amendment so as to give the women an opportunity to vote at them. He urges all county clerks to see to it that abstracts of votes are correct, so there may be no delay, and he expresses himself as confident thatt he canvass can be made within twenty days, if the returns are in perfect shape.
