Bud Anderson Will Have Hard Fight

His encounter tomorrow night will mean much to Bud Anderson, the young Vancouver aspirant for lightweight honors. In the event of his winning, his manager, Dick Donah, expects to put him in line for some battles with some of the best known men in the lightweight division, with the hope of eventually getting a chance to try for the championship.

Anderson is a clean-cut young fellow, a sure worker and an astute pupil. He has made rapid strides in his endeavor, and his friends confidently expect to see the day when he will be able to write after his name, "Lightweight Champion of the World."

Anderson gives no little credit for his advancement to his manager Mr. Donah, who has been painstaking in his work.

DAN CORCORAN LOSES HIS WATCH

THE LOSS LEADS TO THE RECOVERY THAT LOCAL BARRISTERS WAS ONCE ST. LOUIS SUPERINTENDENT OF SHERIFFS

Through the loss of his watch and chain yesterday afternoon, the fact that D. J. Corcoran had served for eight years as superintendent of streets in St. Louis became known here.

Although he has resided here for some time, and is well known, Mr. Corcoran, or "Dan" as he is familiarly referred to, has never mentioned, even to his intimate friends, his former vocation. He has worked here as a bartender, but intended to leave Klamath Falls tonight to again engage in his profession, civil engineering.

Yesterday afternoon he discovered that his watch was missing. Then in order to identify the property he told of the description on the inside of the case.

"St. Louis, Mo., Presented to D. J. Corcoran by the inspectors of his department."

In addition to the watch and chain, Mr. Corcoran was presented with a gold chain by his assistants upon retiring from office.

SAGE TEA WILL DARKEN THE HAIR

RESTORE FADED AND GRAY HAIR TO NATURAL COLOR. DANDRUFF QUICKLY REMOVED

There is nothing new about the idea of using Sage for restoring the color of the hair. Our grandmothers kept their hair dark, glossy and abundant by the use of a simple "Sage Tea." Whenever their hair fell out or took on a dull, faded or streaked appearance, they made a brew of Sage leaves, and applied it to their hair with wonderfully beneficial effect.

Nowadays we don't have to resort to the old-time tiresome method of gathering the herb and making the tea. This is done by skillful chemists better than we could do it ourselves; and all we have to do is to call for the ready-made product, Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy, containing Sage in the proper strength, with the addition of Sulphur, another old-time scalp remedy.

This preparation gives youthful color and beauty to the hair, and is one of the best remedies you can use for dandruff, dry, feverish, itching scalp, and falling hair. Get a fifty-cent bottle from your druggist today, and you will be surprised at the quick results. All druggists sell it, under guarantee that the money will be refunded if the remedy is not exactly as represented.
