

WOLGAST SURE DID NOT FOUL IN LAST FIGHT

FORMER CHAMPION WANTS ANOTHER CHANCE AT RITCHIE

Manager of the Winner Declares That His Boy Will Not Enter the Ring Again for Six Months—John Houston Wants Ned Anderson to Get a Chance at One of the Four Leading Lightweights

United Press Service
SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 25.—Ad Wolgast, the dethroned champion lightweight pugilist of the world, left a plate of ham and eggs in the main hotel this morning to deny the report that he was dead. This report was circulated in the East last night.

The former champion had little to say concerning the fight, except that he was satisfied that he had not struck a foul blow. He wants another chance.

Willie Ritchie, the new champion, said that he showed poor in the early rounds of the fight because he was chilled. He said that after he had punched Wolgast's stomach in the ninth round he knew he had Ad on the run.

"Many of Ad's punches shook me up hard," he said, "but I was never groggy or wobbly. From the tenth round on both of my hands and wrists were numb from hammering Wolgast's head and arms. I will give Wolgast his chance later."

Nolan, Ritchie's manager, said that one of the first aspirants the champion would go against would be Wolgast. "But this fight would not come for at least six months."

United Press Service
LOS ANGELES, Nov. 25.—Joe Rivers, having trained faithfully and studiously having avoided the "white lights," put it all over Joe Mandot of New Orleans, and was given the decision at the end of twenty rounds of going. The Mexican surprised even his most ardent admirers by his return to form. Mandot was probably the most surprised.

Rivers now wants a chance at Ritchie.

John Houston, an ardent admirer of Bud Anderson, is convinced that the Vancouver lad can easily take the measure of any one of the four lightweights who are now in the public eye. He is convinced that if any one of the quartet, Ritchie, Wolgast, Rivers or Mandot, can be induced to come here the local fight fans will guarantee a sufficient purse.

"Bud is a good, clean boy," said Mr. Houston last night, "and I am convinced that he is in the championship class. The talk that Bud is not strictly a lightweight is rot. He made 133 pounds easily in his last mill in this city, and was as strong as ever."

"I have dismissed the matter with a number of local lovers of the manly art of self defense, and I have been assured that there are ten men here who will put up $500 each to bring one of the top liners here for a match with Bud."

Anderson is to engage in a flint argument in Medford December 6th with "Babe" Picato, who recently defeated "Red" Watson, and whom famous sporting writers predict will one day be the champion of the lightweight division.

LOCAL TALENT LEARNING PARTS

DATE OF THE PRODUCTION OF THE MIKADO BY THE ELKS HAS BEEN SET FORWARD TO AID IN GREAT SUCCESS

The date of the Mikado is set ahead for the 9th and 10th. This is done in order to give plenty of time to prepare a smooth performance. The members of the cast already have their parts thoroughly committed, and are working on the finer points of their acting. Rehearsals show that the right people were selected, as each suits the role assigned to him or her very well indeed. The part of "Katsiba" is a very difficult role to fill, but Mrs. Zumwalt both sings and acts it equal to the best professional. "Poo-Dah," "Mikado" and "Yum-Yum" are doing fine in their parts. The chorus is well along with their music, and everything bids fair for a first-class performance.

The cast of characters follow:
The Mikado of Japan . . . W. H. Shaw
Nanki-Poo (disguised as a wandering minstrel) . . . Geo. Wilson
Ko-Ko (Lord High Executioner of Tipton) . . . Ed Andrews
Poo-Dah (Lord High Everything Else) . . . Geo. Walton
Ne-Ban . . . A. F. Salficky
Yum-Yum . . . Mrs. Wagner
Piti-Sing . . . Louise Benson
Peep-Bo . . . Mrs. Jim Baldwin
(Three sisters, wards of Ko-Ko)
Katsiba (an elderly lady, in love with Nanki-Poo) . . . Mrs. D. Zumwalt

Energetic Fire Bug Deported from Asylum

Report of Superintendent Steiner of State Institution Discloses Some Interesting Figures

In the biennial report of the Oregon State Insane asylum, just printed, Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner, superintendent, reports that 26 alien patients were deported within the past year, and 23 to other states. This necessitated an expenditure of $2,000, which, paradoxically enough, means a profitable outlay. It is computed that the average life of a patient in the Salem institution is ten years, and this number deported at $14 per patient, the scheduled appropriation indicates that the state treasury be the beneficiary to the extent of $320,000.

UNION SERVICES ARE SUCCESSFUL

CHURCHES COMBINE TO FITTINGLY COMMEMORATE THANKSGIVING DAY—SERVICES HELD IN MORNING AND EVENING

A most interesting union Thanksgiving service was held Thursday forenoon at the Baptist church. The sermon was preached by Rev. J. S. Stubbfield, of the Presbyterian church. Solos were rendered by Mrs. Harry Caden and music by a choir of a dozen or more from the several churches.

In the evening union services of the Sunday schools of the city were held at the Methodist church. Short addresses were given by G. W. Denton, Geo. J. Walton, Frank M. Upp and Stanley Wood. Following the speaking a banquet was given, at which all of the children were seated at one large table.

CHAUFFEURS ARE NOT WORRIED

DO NOT BELIEVE THAT THEY WILL LOSE THEIR JOBS WHEN WILSON TAKES OFFICE—ARE POLISHING UP THE BRASS

United Press Service
WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 25.—No government employes hail with more joy the advent of Governor Wilson to Washington than the White House chauffeurs, who drive the three automobiles furnished the president. They believe they, at least, will not suffer from the democratic "axe" in being lopped off the payroll.

Between jobs of polishing the bodies and brasswork of the presidential gasoline cars and digging out carburetors, the government gasoline experts happily discuss how the next president, like the present, is an enthusiastic automobile devotee. Privately, they did not welcome the possibility of Colonel Roosevelt returning, because of the Colonel's penchant for horses and horseback riding.

But the chauffeurs point out, Governor Wilson delights in automobile driving as much, if not more, than President Taft.

Cross-country drives from Washington to Princeton and other New Jersey cities, are anticipated by the White House automobilists.

It is not known if Governor Wilson will elect to use the cars furnished him free as a perquisite of the White House job, but the chauffeurs deem it certain that the Wilson garage will be well filled, either with federal or private cars.

Dr. Maxwell M. Long, a recent arrival from Des Moines, Iowa, has located in Klamath Falls, and will open offices in the White building Monday.

Inspect Jail
At 2:30 this afternoon the grand jury made a tour of inspection of the county jail. They were shown through the county bastille by Jailer John Schallock and Sheriff-elect Low, who is bailiff for the jury.

It is expected that the grand jury will make a partial report late this afternoon. Rumor has it that several indictments have been prepared against men now held in custody in the county jail.

Because of the witnesses who have been summoned to appear before the jury, it is not believed that any new business will be taken up by the jury, but that those matters will be left until the new grand jury is drawn next week.

This grand jury will be discharged tomorrow afternoon.

Mr. Hutchins was a reporter on the Northwestern at the time the assault was alleged to have occurred. He has since severed his connection with that paper.

FOOTBALL GAME MONEY SUCCESS

MORE THAN 200 PAID ADMISSION AT THE GAME YESTERDAY—GUARANTEES THE POPULARITY OF COLLEGE SPORT

That football will be a permanent sport in high school hereafter was evidenced yesterday by the successful game in the afternoon. Also, the popularity of football was indicated by the large crowd of townspeople who witnessed the game. The game was a financial success, with about 300 paid admissions.

The two teams were evenly matched, or were supposed to be, but the town team was made up of seasoned men, while the high team has had little experience on the gridiron. The result, however, instead of depressing the high boys, has made them optimistic over the future, and there will, no doubt, be good material for a team next year. Of those who played yesterday, the following will probably play next year: Boller, Markwardt, Orem, Stanley, Fell, Cox and Haines. McClure, whose accident kept him out of the game, will undoubtedly be one of the best players next year.

The game yesterday ended the football season, and Mr. McCall is busy ending up the affairs of the high team.

As to a town team next fall, while it is a question yet, there will undoubtedly be such a team formed. If such a team is formed, there will be a series of games, instead of the one, as there was this year.

The entire third floor of the building has been reserved for this occasion, and while the Odd Fellows conduct their meeting in the east hall, the visitors will be entertained in the west hall with a program, dancing and cards.
