C. T. Oliver has just received communication from the Southern Parific company in reply to a letter he sent the company relative to a reduction in freight rates on cattle from the Middle West.

T. A. Graham, assistant freight traffic manager of the railroad, writing for the company, states that a considerable better rate than $450 per car from Minnissippi River points is available, although the company declines to make a rate of $150 a car, as suggested by Mr. McCoy. The rates quoted are as follows

Chicago to Klamath Palls, $270 per car.

Mississippi River to Klamati Missouri River to Klamath Palls, $240 per car.
